ILER'S SOLILOQUY AFTER THE TRIAL.

The following lines were picked up near Mr. Iler's residence on Sunday the 11th inst., after he had returned from the Election Trial at Sandwich.

Back through the swamps from Sandwich I've trudged my weary way,
I, a played out candidate, as all the people say,
I, who was the cheekiest of any Grit about,
Must forever take a back seat, and be quietly jostled out.

Once I was fond of Politics, and always light of heart,
And of dirty work in Politics all know I've done my part ;
And if to do it cleverly would make a man feel proud,
The Grits have had a candidate that would pass in any crowd.

The Grits—I cannot blame them—are all ashamed of me,
And in future have concluded to quietly let me be,
For as a politician they think I'm no success,
And as a good petitioner they know I'm something less

'Twas only last election, when I aspired to fame,
That Wigle and the Electors had to spoil my little game,
And I learnt a little lesson in a very appropriate school,
That I was the rarest specimen of a good political fool

No lack of proof was wanting to show I was a fool,
When I was willing to become Hube Deming's pliant tool ;
But the treacherous "cuss" he wilted me and only was my friend
To get even with the Wigles and an old quarrel end.

'Twas he who made the trouble and started all this fuss ;
'Twas he who caused the muddle and left me in this muss ;
And without an eye to pity or a friendly voice to cheer,
He sucks at his Government pap, while I am whimpering here.

The biggest toad in the puddle I always tried to be,
At home or at county council or at any political spree ;
But now when talking politics I get the same reply,
Alike from Grit and Tory—"No Iler need apply."

Once I was true and honest as any man need be ;
Once I was just as good a Grit as any you might see ;
But it wasn't hard to lead me ; and it must be confessed
The company that I fondly kept was not always the best.

There was Alanson Elliot, and also Sam McGee,
The hoary-headed sinners, who were the ruin of me ;
Who gave their ablest council to always put me wrong,
And missed no opportunity to help the thing along.

There was Balfour of the Echo, and many other such,
Who never yet was grumbled at because he knew too much,
And since nature didn't bless him with the common sense we see,
He thought he'd like good company, and so he went for me.

But he did the "Echoing" bully in his little one horse sheet,
And plagiarism was something at which he couldn't be beat,
And at spouting in his own style he took especial pains ;
But it isn't fair to blame him, because he hasn't brains.

I'd like to give him credit for something if I could ;
I know he'd gladly take it if I only would ;
But about him I'll be silent, then I cannot do him wrong,
But he's got at least one talent in the great length of his tongue.

Not long before the election,—I can't forget the day—
The Grits were all assembled in glad and proud array ;
Like a second edition of Judas I shook hands all around,
And vowed a solemn promise by their dictum to be bound.

But I fancied the convention would every one agree
In hunting up a candidate, to hunt no one but me ;
And I felt considerably miffy when things got turned about,
And instead of its being Iler, why, Atkins was brought out !

But I quietly hoped for better days and bottled up my wrath,
And gave no kind encouragement when Atkin crossed my path ;
And what with meeting Wigle and holding meetings brief,
Our candidate threw up the sponge, and Atkin came to grief.

'Twas then I studied Politics and put my armor on,
While the electors of South Essex stood by to see the fun ;
But I couldn't stand the pressure, and I was put to rout ;
My nephew he got Wigled in, and I was wiggled out.

I thought I'd try another game, and got old Sam McGee
To do, as I had done before, the dirty work for me,
And we trumped up forty charges, and our witnesses all swore
To all the forty charges, and were willing to do more

But our yarns didn't hang together, and many were proved wrong ;
It would have been a blessed thing if some had held their tongue ;
And to us our trial ended in a decided sell,
And as a speculation it was far from paying well.

So back through the swamps from Sandwich ; Electors dear, good bye;
Many's the time I'll think of you when election times draw nigh ;
Judge Spragge, may God forgive him ; and I will always pray
You'll never be as badly fooled as I've been fooled to-day.

ILER Coat-of-Arms

Coat-of-Arms (cotte d'armes), a light garment, worn over the armor in the 15th and 16th centuries, often with the heraldic bearings of the wearer.

Gottschald's "Deutsche Namenkunde" says the root of this name is EILEN, German EIL-E haste, speed, dispatch; in a hurry. Arms described by the family (various spellings in America--Eiler, Eilar, Oyler, Eyler, Iler, etc.) These appear in Riestap's "Armorial General" for EHLERS (Mecklemburg) "Or an arm, flesh-colored, extending from a cloud in the upper sinister canton and holding a bunch of five arrows gules."

Crest - The figure of Justice issuing from the helmet, above the knees, holding in the right hand a sword and in the left a balance, and dressed in a red robe.

Arm with red arrows from the cloud is obviously lightning and refers to the speed embodied in the name's meaning. The figure of Justice seems to represent speedy but fair decisions, as the arm on the shield denotes fast action.

Gold with red signifies a disposition to shed one's blood to acquire riches.

Clouds, moving with each breeze, signify the breath of life.

Arrows often represent messengers

Red (the robe) signifies strength, boldness, hardiness

Taken together the arms may be said to represent a fast, sure messenger, willing to risk life itself if necessary to carry out his duty. The crest shows a fast-thinking, logical mind, able to weigh the consequences of any projected action and look at both sides of any problem that may arise.

Mrs. Edgar Iler
R. R. # 5
Harrow, Ontario, Canada

Dear Grandma,

I would like to dedicate this booklet on the SOLOMON ILER, II, generations to the memory of Grandpa Iler, and to you, Grandma, on your 85th Birthday, September 18, 1958.

Your marvelous memory has been a tremendous help. Your hearty laugh surely has inspired others. Your faithfulness to Christ your Saviour is a real inspiration.

Well do I remember the many Summers spent on the farm when Grandpa read the Bible after breakfast and prayed. This happened no matter who was present, including the hired help. A deep impression was left upon my life and one that encourages me in my faith that I shall never forget. Grandpa not only believed what he read - but he also lived it. I am happy for the Summers spent with you. Sunday was a day I looked forward to going to the Baptist Church in Harrow where the messages from God's Word were heard and heeded. The visiting evangelists in the home for meals encouraged me to give my life to Christ in full time work. I have always wanted to be in the Lord's work and it is remarkable how He has led each step of the way. Being Music Director, Youth Leader and Office Manager of the Salem Baptist Church I find the greatest joy in all the world serving Him.

The kindness, humbleness and sweet Christian life of Grandpa Iler shall always linger in my heart and mind. I trust my life may be such as the example he lived. He always looked forward to the day when he would see Christ. This happened on February 2, 1947. I, too, look forward to that day when Christ shall come and we all shall be united together in glory, according to the definite promises in God's Word - I Thessalonians 4:16 - 18.

Thank you, Grandma, for the many enjoyable years of knowing a wonderful Grandmother and the privilege of being your grandson.

Happy Birthday and may God grant you His grace and blessing in the remaining years of your life.

With love,

Robert L. Iler

RELATIONSHIPS

There are at least two accepted ways of figuring relationships. One is called the Common or Canon Law method, and the other the Civil Law method. Both agree when figuring the direct or lineal descent. They differ only in figuring the collateral relationships. As the Common or Canon Law method is now in general use and gives a more accurate discription of "cousin relationship," we will not consider the Civil Law method, but present for your use a chart, especially prepared for this publication, which shows (according to the Common or Canon Law), the relationship of descendants to a progenitor to the tenth generation. Also the relationship between his descendants, in any combination of degrees from him, down to and including the tenth generation.

HOW TO USE RELATIONSHIP CHART

You will note that the two upper columns are outlined in heavy lines. These are the common progenitor and his descendants. "CP" stands for common progenitor, the one who is the head of the two lines of descendants. "S" is his son or daughter as the case may be; "GS" his grandson or granddaughter; "GGS" his great grandson or granddaughter; "2GGS" his second great grandson or granddaughter, and so on down to his eighth great grandson or granddaughter.

All the diamonds inside these heavy lines show the relationship between his descendants. By following columns "1" from both sides of the chart we find they cross on the "B" diamond, showing that the sons of the common progenitor are brothers. By following columns "2" to the center we find they cross at the "1C" diamond, indicating that grandsons of the common progenitor are first cousins to each other. And so on down: his great grandsons are second cousins; his second great grandsons are third cousins; his third great grandsons are fourth cousins, etc.

To this point few people have trouble in figuring relationships. It is when they start to figure the "cousinship" and "times removed" that they have difficulty. But with this chart you will find no trouble with any combination up to the tenth generation, and by following the pattern set by this chart you can go as many generations as you desire. Say you want to figure your relationship to a distant cousin. You are eight generations removed from the common progenitor, or his sixth great grandson. Your "distant cousin" is six generations removed or his fourth great grandson on another line. To figure your exact relationship simply follow columns "8" on the one side and "6" on the other to where they cross and you find "5C 2R" indicating you are fifth cousins twice removed.

If you want to find your relationship to the son of your fifth great grandfather, follow columns "1" and "7" which show you are his fourth great grandnephew (4 GGN). Likewise, you are a first cousin six times removed (1C 6R) to the grandson of your sixth great grandfather.

This method of figuring relationships is in general use by most courts of the country and was recently adopted for use of the patrons of the Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

tio p discriptions we give the following:

The parents of your father or mother are your grandfather or grandmother and you are a grandson to them. (GS)

The parents of your grandfather or grandmother are your great grandparents and you are a great grandson to them. (GGS)

The parents of your great grandmother or great grandfather are your second great grandparents and you are a second great grandson to them, etc., etc., (2GGS)

The children of your brothers and sisters are your nephews and neices (N) and you are uncle or aunt to them.

The children of your neices and nephews are your grandneices or grandnephews (GN) and you are granduncle to them.

The children of your grandnephews and grandneices are your great grandnephews or great grandneices (GGN) and you are great granduncle to them.

Your father's brother or sister is your uncle or aunt and you are a nephew or neice to them. (N)

The children of your uncle or aunt are your first cousins and you are also their first cousin. (1C)

The children of your first cousins are first cousins once removed to you and you are the same to them. (1C 1R)

The son of your third great grandfather is your second great granduncle and you are a second great grandnephew or neice to him.

The children of your second cousins are your second cousins once removed and you are the same to them.

The grandchildren of your second cousins are your second cousins twice removed and you are the same to them.

The great grand children of your second cousins are your second cousins thrice removed and you are the same to them.

The second great grandchildren of your second cousins are your second cousins four times removed and you are the same to them.

A simple formula for figuring cousin relationships by the above method is this: Call the common ancestor "O" and count down to the subjects; subtract one from the smaller of the two figures - this is the cousin relationship. Then subtract the smaller number from the larger and this gives you the times removed. Example: one subject is seven steps down from the common ancestor, the other is four steps down - one from four is three, so the cousinship is third cousins, and four from seven is three (three times removed) making them third cousins three times removed (3c3r).

Another example:

Subject No. 1 is 9 steps down from the common ancestor.
Subject No. 2 is 6 steps down from the common ancestor.
6 - 1 = 5th cousin. 9 - 6 = 3 times removed. So they are fifth cousins three times removed. (5c3r).

Of course, if the steps down from the common ancestor are the same you simply subtract 1 from that number and it gives you their cousinship and there are no times removed to be figured. Remember also that the common ancestor is never counted when figuring the steps down to the subject, just as it appears on the chart.

Answers to problems on reverse side: 1) 5C 3R; 2) 5C 2R; 3) 7C 1R; 4) half 1C 1R; 5) step sisters; 6) 3C 1R; 7) 8GGN-i-1; 8) 4GGS.

This sheet has been prepared to assist in the study of relationships. Two relationship charts and one family chart are presented with complete instructions in their use, making it possible for most everyone to understand this little known art of figuring relationships between distant cousins and other relatives. A few problems are given with the answers on the reverse side. Hundreds of other problems can be formulated by a teacher. Others may wish to make up problems on their own to practice this interesting phase of genealogy.

The first question that arises in the study of the family chart above is how to figure out the lines of ascent or descent. Where a couple is shown the symbol "∞" is used to indicate their marriage and their children are indicated by lines from the symbol: Julius Brown ∞ Doris Jenkins Fred Fly ∞ Julie Smith

Oliver Brown Michael Brown Judith Fly

Afton Green Carol Johnson Conrad Smith

Sometimes a circuitous line is drawn because of lack of space and you will find brothers and sisters on two or more different levels, yet connected by lines to their parent:

Peter Smith
Harold Smith
x x x
Dale Smith Homer Smith

Michael Brown
Dwain Brown
Thomas Brown
Norman Brown
Calvin Brown
Alice Brown
Ivan Brown
Gilbert Brown

Thus Harold, Dale and Homer are sons of Peter. And Dwain to Gilbert Brown are all children of Michael, full brothers and sister. (Agnes Brown is the daughter of Norman Brown)

Another difficulty the neophyte genealogist will encounter is the problem of finding the common progenitor. Great care must be exercised in not going beyond him, as well as being sure you count each generation up to him. Counting just one step too few or too many will give you the wrong answer. In problem No. 1 below, the common progenitor is Wallace Smith as he is first one where the lines of Conrad Smith and Carol Johnson run together. And so it is in every case - the common progenitor is always that person or couple through whom relationship springs and who's sons and/or daughters head separate lines of descendants. Henry Smith is the common progenitor in problem No. 2, and John Smith is the common progenitor in No. 3.

After finding your common progenitor, call him "O" and count down first on one line to one of your subjects, then down the other line to the other subject. By using these two figures and the relationship chart on the reverse side it is easy to tell the exact relationship between them.

Regarding the descendants of Roy Page - the sons from the first and second wives are half brothers and their children are half first cousins and so on down. The same with the children of M. Good - Ben Rich and Dale Page are half brothers. Roy Page is the stepfather of Ben and Linda Rich, and Stephen Page is their stepbrother. Reference is seldom made to step-cousins, aunts, uncles, grandparents, etc., but these could be figured on the same basis as stepfather, mother, bro., or sis.

Problems: What is the relationship between 1) Conrad Smith & Carol Johnson; 2) Agnes Brown & Max Smith; 3) Dennis Smith & Janice Page; 4) Rex Page & Sol Page; 5) Janice Page & Linda Rich; 6) Allan White & Leo Davis? 7) What is the relationship of Milton Smith to John Green? 8) Gilbert Brown to Mary Gray?

Another difficulty the neophyte genealogist will encounter is the problem of finding the common progenitor. Great care must be exercised in not going beyond him, as well as being sure you count each generation up to him. Counting just one step too few or too many will give you the wrong answer. In problem No. 1 below, the common progenitor is Wallace Smith as he is first one where the lines of Conrad Smith and Carol Johnson run together. And so it is in every case - the common progenitor is always that person or couple through whom relationship springs and who's sons and/or daughters head separate lines of descendants. Henry Smith is the common progenitor in problem No. 2, and John Smith is the common progenitor in No. 3.

After finding your common progenitor, call him "O" and count down first on one line to one of your subjects, then down the other line to the other subject. By using these two figures and the relationship chart on the reverse side it is easy to tell the exact relationship between them.

Regarding the descendants of Roy Page - the sons from the first and second wives are half brothers and their children are half first cousins and so on down. The same with the children of M. Good - Ben Rich and Dale Page are half brothers. Roy Page is the stepfather of Ben and Linda Rich, and Stephen Page is their stepbrother. Reference is seldom made to step-cousins, aunts, uncles, grandparents, etc., but these could be figured on the same basis as stepfather, mother, bro., or sis.

Feb. 22, 1732 - George Washington was born

This information received from Jesse H. Eilar, New Castle, Indiana - 1957

CONRAD C EILER and FAMILY came to Philadelphia on the ship ALLEN from Rotterdam, Holland, September 11, 1729, with a group of 126 Palatinates. In the group were the CULPS, SNIDERS, and other families who figure in our ancestry.

"Among the early families or settlers who took up land under Maryland titles on and around the site of Hanover between 1729 - 1733 were: VALENTINE and CONRAD EYLER." (from HANOVER CENTENNIAL).

Warrantees of land: LANCASTER COUNTY: CONRAD C EYLER - 200 acres, Oct. 3, 1738
C4 JACOB EYLER - 200 acres, Oct. 3, 1738

Swiss Origin: The family had its origin in medieval times in Basel, Switzerland, and spelled the name EULER, pronounced OILER or EILER. They migrated down the Rhine into the Palatinate and the German spelling is EILER. The variants in spelling are common as clerks spelled the name the way it sounded to them.

ALEXANDER MACK brought 126 Palatinates to Philadelphia in 1729. They were Brethren, German Baptists, and Dunkards escaping religious persecution in the Palatinate. They were law abiding, peace loving, religious people. CONRAD EILER bought land near what later became Hanover, Pa., but then in Maryland. In this community were born JACOB C42 EILER II and VALENTINE C43 EILER II. Our common line is via VALENTINE C43 EILER II (son of JACOB C4 I).

Our common ancestors were VALENTINE C43 EILER and SUSANNAH C43* CULP EILER. They were German Baptists and were born in what later became Hanover, Pa., in 1745 and 1747. VALENTINE C43's father was JACOB C4 EILER, C* a carpenter, and son of C4 JACOB EILER I, and grandson of CONRAD C EILER and ~~ELIZABETH,~~ MARGARET the 1729 immigrants from Germany.

VALENTINE C43 and SUSANNAH C43* took out a deed for a tract of land in Maryland, now Hanover, Pa., in 1771, the year your ancestor JACOB C431 was born. They sold it to CONRAD EILER C41, an uncle, in 1779.

In 1790, several families from Plum Creek, a stream in Hanover, Pa., migrated to Gros Isle, Colchester Township, Upper Ontario, Canada, and among them were VALENTINE C43 EILER and wife, SUSANNAH C43*, and their son, JACOB C431, then about 20 years old. JACOB C431 had married ELIZABETH C431* SNIDER before going to Canada. ELIZABETH's C431* father, JOHN SNIDER, went along with his daughter. JACOB C431 had some trouble in getting across the border as trouble with Great Britain was brewing, but with the help of a man nammed CHITTENDON of Amherstburg, he got his chattels and goods across the lake at night and was safe from molestation.

From this JACOB C431/J EILER and ELIZABETH * SNIDER came your line of the family that started in America with CONRAD C EILER and MARGARET C*. A school teacher took the liberty to spell the name ILER because the E is silent, but it is common knowledge that EISENHOWER, of our same Pennsylvania Dutch stock, is sometimes spelled by some branches of that family without the E. Also, take the word EITHER, usually radio speakers and others often pronounce it I-THER, the EI being pronounced the same as the single letter I. Since our name is short anyway, and the I and L look alike, my personal preference is to stay with the German spelling of EILER, which is official after all.

Our line started with SAMUEL C432 EILER, who was a brother of your JACOB C431 EILER, although SAM was born on Gros Isle, about 20 years after your JACOB was born, (1771). SUSANNA C432* SNIDER, later wife of SAMUEL C432, was born near his birth place February 19, 1791.

Dear Bob,

Referring to your letter of the 17th, and the Germanic origin of the EILER family, your missionary friend might look into the church and geneological sections of the library for two bits of data of interest to us.

1. Alexander Mack and the Church of the Brethren, especially the list of immigrants who left for America July 15, 1729.

As your church history shows, the Reformation sprouted the Protestants around 1550, with Lutherans, which your ancestor J JACOB EILER (Iler) from Hanover, Pa., was a member, according to Dr. J. S. Eilar of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Baptists, Dunkards, which later were called Brethren and which our joint ancestor SUSANNAH CULP EILER C43* was a member of after 1765.

The Church of the Brethren, or Dunkards, was a body of Christians developing out of the great religious awakening which occurred in Germany in the latter part of the 17th century, when large numbers organized at Schwartzenau, Germany, in 1708, with Alexander Mack as their first minister. Driven by persecution to Wittgenstein, the church finally migrated (1718 and 1729) to America, settling near Germantown, Pa., where the first church was organized in 1723. But as Dr. Eilar says in the German settlements in and around Hanover, Pa., were Lutherans, Baptists, and Dunkards or Brethren, and Rev. John Casper Stoevver ministered to the needs of all sects from Germany, his records showing the baptism of our ancestors JACOB EILER, C42 II, in 1743, and probably of our VALENTINE C43 in 1745.

Among the passengers on the Ship Allen, which left Amsterdam, Holland, July 15, 1728, were Alexander Mack and his entire church, including such families as the CULPS (Kolb), SNIDERS, (Schneider), ARNERS, and others which married into the EILER male line as you know, and which families went with the EILERS to Canada in 1790. The specific point for your German missionary friend: Can he find in church history the names of the 126 Palatinates in Alexander's migratory group and does our ancestor's name appear as KONRAD EILER (Conrad Eiler) C.

2. Geneological data: Anything about the origin of the EILER family, in brief, spelling of the name, origin in Basel, Switzerland, in the middle ages with the spelling EULER or VON EULER as some have it.

Ernest Dromm, a geneologist of Zweibrucken, Palatinate, Germany, wrote me back in 1923 that: "You should be proud of the family name, for they have always held high rank among the people. Research on the EILER FAMILY tree has already been done. The EILER FAMILY came originally from Switzerland and settled at the city of Zweibrucken and stayed sometimes at the house of the princes (Furstentum mehrmals Aufenthalt). You yourself know they then went out over the great domain of the German empire, yes, even to foreign countries. The CONRAD EILER you are looking up did not come directly from Zweibrucken but we hope that an old family tree will clear up your ancestry".

I have reason to think that C CONRAD EILER and his GRAND sons, C43 VALENTINE (our ancestor 1745-1813) and JACOB, C431 were members of the Hanover St. Matthews Lutheran Church, but that when C43 VALENTINE married SUSANNAH CULP around 1765, he went into her Dunkard Church for worship and JACOB, C431/J his son, was a Lutheran when he went to Ontario in 1790, age 20, and later identified with the Baptists along with others of the German Baptist families into which he married, namely; ELIZABETH SNIDER. C431/J*

Regards to you and best wishes for your success.

SEVENTH ANNUAL REUNION OF THE EILER FAMILY
(Ann Hartley Grove, near [illegible],Ind)
BRIEF SUMMARY OF FAMILY BACKGROUND
Aug. 2,1942

I. HOW IS THE NAME TO BE SPELLED?

A. SWISS FORM: EULER . (Pronounced OYLER or ILER)
- a. Ernest Drum, geneologist, Zweibrucken, Palatinate, said in 1938 communication that all our family by any name started in Switzerland and some of them are still there. Others came down the Rhine and later scattered over Germany and to the New World at various dates.

B. GERMAN FORM: EILER. (Pronounced OYLER or ILER)
- a. There is an ILLER river in Bavaria, but EILER is the correct form.

C. AMERICAN FORM: EILER, EILAR, EYLER, OYLER, ILER, UHLER.
- a. There is an EYLER VALLEY and the old EYLER HOMESTEAD out the Great Road from Emmit to Frederick, Md., says E. Ralston Goldsborough, Rm. 2, Pythian Castle Bldg, Frederick, Maryland.
- b. Our own ancestor, according to our best recorded information, signed his name CONRAD EILER, but it appears in legals as EYLER and in some church records as EULER.

II. WHY DID WE COME TO AMERICA?

A. FREEDOM OF WORSHIP.
- a. Sept. 15, 1729, Alexander Mack brought 126 Palatinates on the Ship Allen from Rotterdam, via Cowes. They were Brethren, Dunkards, or German Baptists escaping religious persecution. They settled in Pennsylvania near the Maryland state line and became law-abiding, religious, peace-loving people. They owned land and followed the trades they had learned c in the Old Country.
- b. In this group were Conrad Eiler, his family, including C41 Jacob and C43 Valentine, his neighbors. the Sniders, Arnses, Weigles, Culps, etc.
- c. In 1738 Conrad Eyler and sons C4 Jacob and C5? Valentine took out warrants for 200 acres, each, of land, at Digg's Choice. This land crossed disputed state lines and was partly in Maryland.
- ? d. In 1740 JACOB EULER sponsored the first Lutheran Baptism. The name was given the original Swiss spelling by Rev. Casper Stover, who knew the family backgroung intimately.
- e. In 1771 C43 VALENTINE EILER and wife * SUSANNAH EILER bought a tract of land known as Muddy Spring of Daniel Cooper, near Iler's Character, in Maryland, Frederick County.
- f. In 1778 C43 VALENTINE EILER and wife * SUSANNAH EILER sold this land, on the request of a Conrad Oiller.
- g. Valentine C43 and wife C43 * were members of the Brethern Church in colonial days, says the History of the Brethren Church. Susannah Eiler's C43* headstone says she died in 1838 and had been a member of the German Batist Church for 75 years.

III. MIGRATION TO CANADA IN THE WINTER OF 1779:

A. FREEDOM OF WORSHIP AGAIN THE MOTIVE.
- a. The Detroit Library gives among the first settlers on Gros Isle a C431/J JACOB EILER. He was married and migrated with family and neighbors.
- X b. "OUR ANCESTORS" by Homer Eiler, 1518 Grove Ave., Topeka,Kansas, says little is known if Jacob's origin, but 'he was very religious, a Lutheran, and a Potter by trade,"
- c. C4 (NO) We seem on sure ground when we assume that this JACOB EILER was the JACOB EYLER C4 of the 1729 migration and the 1738 land grant, and oldest son of CONRAD C EILER.
- d. We know that our VALENTINE EILER C43, whose wife was Susannah Culp C43*, went to Gros Isle in 1779 because as a member of the Brethren Church in colonial days he had remained true to his peace principles and was persecuted by neighbors who thought he should take up arms.
- e. In the group who went to Canada were the Eilers, Sniders, Arnses, Weigles, and others. Here SAMUEL EILER was born in 1791. C432/I

IV. VALENTINE RETURNS TO THE STATES IN 1796;

A. DAYTON in 1796:

a. The History of Mad River Township, Dayton, Ohio, says C5 Daniel Cooper paid taxes for his miller, Valentine Oyler.

b. "Valentine Oyler was a NATIVE of Maryland (i.e., native means place of birth) and during the Revolution he was a Tory and fled to Canada. In 1796 he came to Dayton, settled on Section 21, known as the Mary Goodman Farm, and raised a family." "He was miller for Daniel Cooper and helped build the first Courthouse in Dayton."

2 people

Valentine Eiler was born Feb. 14, 1745 and died Dec. 13,1813
C43 His name is spelled VALENTINE EILER in his will, but C5 it is spelled FELTY OYLER in Ohio Pioneers.

c. "Two Centuries of the Brethren Church " says:

> "Most of the colonial Brethren were land-loving and land-owning people. They were people who attended to their own business and did not participate in movements such as the Revolution. During the Revolution their faith as to non-resistance was put to a severe test. The utterly groundless charge was made by neighbors that their reluctance to take up arms was loyalty to England. Some were persecuted beyond endurance of highly strung nature and they moved deeper into the frontier."

d. The fact that our own (C43) C5 VALENTINE EILER, father of C432/I Sammy Eiler, and direct forbear of most of the members of this reunion, came back in 1796 to the United States, remaining in Colchester Twp., Ontario, Canada, near Detroit only 16 years shows that his motive for leaving his native state, Maryland, or Diggs Choice, on the state line, was NOT loyalty to England.

e. C432/I Our SAMUEL EILER who was born on Gros Isle in March, 1791, ok married ~~Susannah~~ Snider in 1811 and moved in 1823 to Hagerstown, Indiana. He was deacon in the Brethren Church for 75 years. He died in 1875 and is buried at the Hagerstown Nettle Creek Church of the Brethren, on his old homestead. His mother, Susannah Culp Eiler is also buried there. His father, Valentine Eiler, is buried at Dayton, Ohio.

f. There is no doubt about our direct connection with the J5 Canadian Iler Family. A letter dated 1837 from David C431-J Iler to his 'Uncle I Samuel and Aunt * Susannah' says his father would love to see his old C43* mother before she died. In the spring of ? 1838 another letter states that his father C431-J (Jacob Eiler, son of C43 Valentine and brother of Samuel) C432-I was grieved to hear of the death of his old mother, Susannah Culp Eiler, who, as we have said, died that winter. C43*

V. "OUR ANCESTORS" by Homer Eiler, 1518 Grove Ave, Topeka, Kans.

A. His line came over about 1800. Three brothers, Conrad, Jacob, and another brother were in this group.

B. There have been many migrations of the old, original stock from Switzerland and the Rhineland, but it is now clear about our common origin.

C. All records verify the assumption that in the main the EILER FAMILY is good stock, law-abiding, given to church affairs, domestic in their tastes, interested in public affairs but not ambitious to assume public office or great power. Many are professional and business men and women; others farmers.

Dear Grandniece:

Yours of the sixth instant gladly received and contents noted. Many thanks. We were glad to hear from you and family. In regard to the information you desire, I beg to say that several years ago, the officials of Woodstock College asked for information on the topics you mentioned. They said they would publish my answer as soon as they received answers to their inquires from other parts of the Province. I do not know that they have done so yet. You want to know what I know about the "old ministers who preached in the past".

Well, it is recorded in the church book of the old Gosfield Baptist Church that in the year 1810, a minister named Fairchild came from the U.S.A. and held several meetings in this county and organized the said Gosfield Baptist Church and ordained the late Charles Stewart, who was born in the States, of Scotch extraction. He traveled on horseback to many places between Amherstburg to the place where Chatham is now.

The First Baptist Church organized in Colchester was composed of black people, their pastor's name was Wilkes, who came from the States but was born in Africa. I don't know when nor where he was ordained, but he did not travel much. The black people have two villages in Colchester in which he labored. I saw him with other delegates at the First Baptist Association that was ever held in this county. I think it was in 1832. It was held in the Baptist Church in Kingsville as it is now called. The following ministers were there: Elder Simon Maybee, moderator, Elder George J. Ryersee, clerk, Elder Charles Stewart, Elder Reese, and Elder Wilkes. The moderator preached the introductory sermon from Ecclesiastes 10, 10. Elder William Reese preached on the second day from Psalm 90-3. Since those days there have been many churches organized and preachers ordained. The Baptist Church at Woodslee was at first named Rochester. I was at its organization on the fourth of March, 1854. I preached a sermon on the occasion from 1st Peter 2, 5. I have not got the date of the organization of any other church. As you have got some of my recent texts, I will give you some of my first texts. I preached my first sermon on Sandwich Street, now called North Ridge, on the 27th of October, 1842 from Romans 1, 16. My second sermon was preached at Elder French's, Eighth Concession of Mersea, from Psalms 139,7. Third sermon was at Deacon Henry Huffman's, in Colchester, from Psalms 144-15. All three sermons were preached in 1842, when I lost the use of my voice until 1847. My first sermon in that year was at Whittles School house, on the town line between Gosfield and Mersea, Acts 7, 15. Abraham Bruner's wife was converted whilst I was preaching. The next day and at the same place I preached from Acts 15-3. Well that will be enough to disgust you, for it looks like egotism.

On the 19th of October last, Mary fell and hurt her leg badly, and she is still under the doctor's care. She has suffered much. The doctor lanced it four times, and said it must be lanced again. Finally I wish you success in the good work in which you are engaged. Mary and I send our respects to you and your parents. Adieu Received this copy from Clarence O. Eiler, July 18, 1959, as he received it from Jesse H. Eilar of New Castle, September 1, 1936.

1. A letter from Lottie M. Bausman of Lancaster, Pa., August 28, 1936, supplements data already recorded:

2. On October 3, 1738, C Conrad Eyler and his oldest son C4 Jacob Eyler took out a warrant for 200 acres each from the Penns. See Pennsylvania Archives, 3rd series, Volume XXIV, p. 399, Warrantees of land in Lancaster County. This land was situated on the branch of Codorus Creek, west side of the Susquehannah River, then a part of Lancaster County, now in Manheim Township, York County.

3. On December 1, 1763, C5 Valentine Eyler bought of C4 Jacob Eyler that tract of land, on which he was living at the time. Note: The family of Conrad was originally on the Conewago Creek near Hanover, but the 400 acre purchase was on a branch of the Codorus Creek, not far distant across the county.

4. Lottie Bausman, an expert at geneaology, says of the name: "A clerk at Philadelphia asking a newcomer his name would write it as it sounded to him; but when Rev. John Caspter Stoever, himself a German with a college education, put it down in his own records as EULER (and it looks as though he knew the family well) it would seem to be the most trustworthy. I would take it in preference to a clerk's hurried scrawl".

5. The persistence and variations in spelling show in the day of our well known C43 VALENTINE II and C432 SAMUEL in the following dated papers before me now:

March 20, 1854 - Samuel Eyler (receipt by D. Hardman)
April 3, 1852 - Mr. Sam Euler (a doctor's prescription)
Nov. 29, 1828 - Mr. Samuel Oiler (Tax receipt in Dayton, Ohio, on outlot #48)
Nov. 1, 1827 - Sam Oiler (Same from Dayton, Ohio)
May 23, 1814 - The estate of Valentine Oilar by debtor.
April 25, 1808 - Valentine Oilar receipt
Sept. 14, 1811 - bill to Valentine Oiler

L00 6. John George Eyler, so listed in ship records, took the oath of allegiance as John Euler in 1737.

7. It is logical to assume that C CONRAD EULER may have returned to his German home after 1704, married there, and possibly his son VALENTINE may have been born in Germany, as the old "Dunkard" or German Baptist records state. That would account for church records and shipping records of dates later than 1704, the date of our "control" CONRAD OILER scrip in family papers. The CONRAT ILLER who came in 1729 might have been our CONRAD on one of his migratory voyages to the old country.

8. Corrections as of page 5:

I1 DAVID EILER was born near Dayton, June 15, 1812,; died in Wells County, June 1, 1904, age 91 years.
I2 ELIZABETH EILER married George Cornelius.
I6 ANN EILER married Mike Busher; not Susanna as stated.
I5 SUSANNA EILER became a Burkett by marriage.
I8 SALOME EILER married John Richardson

1. Dr. John Silbert Eilar, son of John, grandson of Jacob, brings this corroborative evidence from Pennsylvania:

2. W. CONRAD EULER (OILER): father of six children, died 1751, without a will. Settled on 200 acres of land, taken by warrant, in 1738, at "Digg's Choice" settlement on the Conewago Creek, near Hanover, York, and Gettysburg, Penn. In this same settlement lived the Culps, Sniders, and other families later related by marriage. In 1740, Jacob Euler, oldest son of Conrad, was first to sponsor a baptism, according to the Lutheran Church records. Valentine, youngest son, later bought out the other heirs. Conrad was probably born in the Palatinate, 1684, inPenn. by 1704.

c5 3. VALENTINE OILER, born 1722; place unknown, died March 2, 1792, and is bured at Arendtsville, Penn., near Digg's Choice ,and Gettysburg, in the Conrad Settlement. His Will is recorded at York; he made his mark: the clerk spelled the name in the Americanized form as it sounded to him: VALENTINE OILER.

c43 4. VALENTINE EILER, born in 1745 at Digg's Choice, Penn., married SUSANNAH CULP, of this locality. Between 1781-1790, he went to Canada, migrating with the Sniders, some Culps, Arners, and Weigles. On Gros Isle, Colchester Township, March 17, 1791, c432 SAMUEL EILER was born; and nearby SUSANNAH SNIDER, his future wife, arrived at about the same time. VALENTINE returned to the States, and died near Dayton, Ohio, December 13, 1813, where his Will is recorded. Some of the papers relative to his estate spell the name OILER and OILAR.

5. Evidence supports our assumption that our migratory Conrad was either W. CONRAD EILER or W. CONRAD EULER (OILER). Both are good German names, but designate different families. Says Dr. Eilar: "The Pennsylvania Dutch say EILER and EULER exactly alike, and don't know when they say them differently." German readers in the story of the hare and tortoise, call the hare "EILER", meaning, "in a hurry." But the name EULER means "the potter", or worker in pottery, according to KEN VON EULER, consul at Chicago, and son of AUGUST VON EULER. The Lutheran Church records clearly enter the family as EULER, and being German the clerks should have had the family properly allocated. It is logical to assume that our forebear was W. CONRAD VON EULER, the younger son whom AUGUST VON EULER says left the Palatinate and was lost from their records prior to 1704, in the Rhineland. The VON EULER family has a tree extending back to 1450.

6. THE FIRST EILER REUNION at Warsaw, Indiana, August 16, 1936. About 100 in attendance; a fine day, fine place; fine occasion. Of the eleven children of Samuel and Susannah Eiler, representatives were: DAVID EILER, by grandsons, Rev. Will L. and Rev. Will S. Eiler. SAMUEL EILER, by grandson, Thomas J. and grandson, Clarence O and sons. JACOB EILAR, by Dr. J. S. Eilar, by letter. BENJAMIN EILAR, by his son, Ol. and grandson, Ora. DANIEL EILAR, by his sons, Samuel and Lewis Daniel Eilar; grandson, Jesse H., and great grandsons, Lothair and Howard.

Officers: Thomas J., President; Clarence O, Secretary; Rev. Will, Vice-President

Copy of letter written to Clarence O. Eiler of Mentone, Indiana, by Dr. J. S. Eilar of Albuquerque, New Mexico, just before their reunion. Letter dated August 12, 1936.

Mr. C. O. Eiler I4131
Secretary, Eiler Reunion
Bourbon, Indiana

Dear Clarence:

If my work on the family genealogy was to close today I would feel that the effort put forth, and the work done, was well repayed, for I feel that it has created the interest which has resulted in the forming of an annual reunion of our good family.

It is with the greatest regret that I am not with you people on this occasion, the initial reunion of our branch of the family. Although having met very few of my relatives, I feel that I know all of them, for in my records are charted and dated all the decendents of Samuel Eiler, Sr., with but few exceptions.

My inspiration for this IB work was from a sketch written by Jesse IB22 Eilar of New Castle, Indiana, of the Daniel Eilar line, in which also was set forth some data on the early history of the family. I decided that it was high time that someone make a complete history, with dates of all the branches, as well as make a thorough search for all facts concerning the early origin of the family here in America, and if possible connect with continental Europe. This I started in the early part of April, 1935.

I had never seen an Eilar outside of my own immediate family until I visited IB25 Russell Eilar, a brother to Jesse, who is living here in Albuquerque. Russell and I talked it over and decided that there couldn't be many in the family, especially male members. In this matter I have changed my mind considerably. He knew the people around New Castle, and I of course knew none. My first big task was to locate some of the members of the family. I remembered of visiting in Van Buren with my people when I was a small boy, and that my father claimed relationship with Jacob Heaston. I had visited his son Sylbert, later, and at that time Sylbert was living in either Mentone or Tippicanoe. I began writing postmasters of Mentone and the towns of that community for information as to his where abouts, also explaining that I was trying to locate people by the name of Eilar. One of my letters was turned over to Collins L. Eiler, I417 and he in turn handed it to Rev. William Linden Eiler. William was able to give me I1A3 much valuable information, and after hundreds of letters and explaining who I was, and the different way I spelled my name, I finally began to contact the EILER branch. After my contact with you and your father I was on my way to a lot of hard but interesting work. When this letter is read I will have been working 18 months on this history, and it is by no means complete.

As I contacted more and more of the C432/I people, my interest became greater. In the old family Bible it is written that Samuel Eilar, was born on Grozeal Island. Note the spelling and I defy anyone to find this place. After weeks of search, through histories, geographys, and maps, I finally sent a letter to the Chamber of Commerce of Windsor, Ontario, Canada. With their aid I located the island in the Detroit River. The name is spelled Grosse Ile, and pronounced Gross ēl. Whoever wrote this name wrote it as it was pronounced to them, which was correct, but the spelling not so good.

In August of 1935, IB22 Jesse Eilar made a flying trip to Albuquerque and brought along many old receipts and letters, among them letters from people in Colchester Upper Canada, written, one in 1837 and one in 1838, and the last one in 1860. My interest then was aroused to contact these people, or rather their descendents. Again writing to the Chamber of Commerce of Windsor, they informed me that people by the name ILER, lived in the communities of Harrow and Arner, Ontario. After letters to the postmasters of these towns I received the names of some of these people. I had previously received information that several people of this name had been born on Grosse Ile, and when I was finally in contact with the people of Harrow and Arner, I found them to be the descendents of those born on Grosse Iler, and that they were all the descendents of Jacob Iler.

From the old letters I was able to give them the names of people mentioned, and I found that they had all been known to them. In fact some of the older ones remembered the ones that were mentioned in the 1860 letter. My letter to them was the first time these two branches of the family had been in contact for 75 years. Lews Iler of J671 Harrow, said that he had heard his father speak of Uncle I Samuel in the States, and it seems that our Samuel had visited up there. The letter of J5 1838 definetly establishes the relation with the Ilers of Canada. In this letter, David Iler, who is writing for his father J Jacob, says, "My father still seems very desirous of seeing his old mother once more, and talks of paying you a visit, but cannot appoint any time". A more beautiful phrase was never written. I sent two of the cards to these people up there, and I hope some of them are with you, for a fine lot of good, wholesome people are not to be found if you search the world over. I am glad to have found them and have them in my history.

I have just returned from a 5,000 mile trip through the East and Canada, and my findings are a revelation. I came in contact with other branches of our family in Pennsylvania, and they are also the good people of their communities, the kind you can be proud to have as relations. I have had books from libraries in Pennsylvania, corresponded with historical societies, the genealogical department of the State Library of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, books from the Schurz Memorial Foundation of Philadelphia, as well as books from the public library of Detroit, and the University of New Mexico library here in Albuquerque. On my trip I studied books of history on the counties of York and Adams in Pennsylvania, as well as visiting the two old churches of which our forefather was a member. Last Spring I employed a geneologist to do work on the early history of the family in the State of Pennsylvania. I have her report and checked her findings and found them to be correct. I could go on telling you of the many different angles I have worked on, and the amount of reserach done, but it would not be of interest to you. The end result is what you want, so I will give you a short sketch which will give you some idea of what the work will be when completed.

A receipt dated June 6, 1704, to W. C Conrad Oiller, gives us a foundation for our family here in America. This receipt is in the possession of Jesse Eilar of New IR22 Castle, Indian; and I hope C Jess is there and has this receipt so that all of you can see it. I located this Conrad in Pennsylvania in 1733, and in 1738 he and his son C4 Jacob took a land grant of 200 acres in "Diggs Choice" in southern Pennsylvania. As to the time of his birth I do not know but have placed it as approximately 1685. He died in 1751, leaving no Will and the name of his wife is unknown. He was the father of six children: Elizabeth, Mary, Catharine, Barbara, Jacob and Valentine.
C6 C1 C2 C3 C4 C5

C43 (NOT C5)

No C5 C5+ Our line takes off from Valentine. He was born near Hanover, Pennsylvania, in 1722 and died March 2, 1790, near Arendtsville, Pennsylvania. His wife's name was Susannah, and he was the father of nine children: Jacob, John, Madlina, Frederick, Valentine, Jr., Katrina, Mary, Christina, and Susanna.
C51 C52 C53 C54
C56 C57 C58 C55 C59

C43 (NOT C56)

NO From this Valentine our line takes off by way of Valentine Jr. He was born near Hanover, Pennsylvania, in 1745, and died near Dayton, Ohio, December 6, 1813. He married Susannah Culp, who was born near Hanover in 1745, and died near Haggerstown, Indiana, March 27, 1838. So far as I am able to find there was born only two children to Valentine Jr. and Susannah. Jacob, the oldest son, was born near Arendtsville, Pa., in C431 1771, and our C432 Samuel was born on Grosse Ile, March 17, 1791. There is a family tradition among the Ilers of Canada that there was another son by the C41? name of Conrad who disappeared at the time of C43 Valentine's migration to Canada and was never heard from. To date I have been unable to locate any of his descendents, if he existed. I might say here that there are many, many Conrad and Valentine, Oylers and Eilers, and there are thousands of people spelling the name as we spell ours but just how manh of these will definitely connect with our family I am unable to say.

C43 (NOT C5) Valentine Jr. migrated to Canada along with the Arners, Wigles, Tofflemires and Sniders. C431 Jacob, the oldest son, married C431* Elizabeth Snider, and in 1808 he crossed the ice in a sleigh with his family and belongings to the mainland of Canada. There was 10 nine children in his family and I have nearly all of his descendents charted and dated.

C432/I Samuel married C432*/I* Susannah Snider January 29, 1811. In 1812 he,along with his father and mother, moved down near Dayton, Ohio. In 1823 he moved to the old homestead near Hagerstown, Indiana. The children of Samuel and Susannah were: David, I1 I2 Elizabeth, Esther, I3 Samuel, Jr., I4 Susannah, I5 Nancy Ann, I6 Solomon, I7 Salome, I8 Jacob, Benjamin, and Daniel.

David married I1* Martha Ann Kidwell; Elizabeth married I2* George Cornelius; Esther never married and was known as Aunt Het; Samuel Jr. married I4* Susannah Crooke; Susannah married I5* Nathaniel Burket; Nancy Ann married I6* Michael Buscher; Solomon died when an infant, Salome married I8* John Richardson; Jacob married Pheobe Crull; I9* Benjamin married Rebecca Laudig; IA and Daniel married Margaret Smith. IB

I don't suppose I need to go father as all of you know that I have corresponded with all these branches, and have them all charted. This is just a short sketch but will give you some idea as to how and why we are here. There are a lot of interesting facts and stories that go along with our 230 odd years of existance in this country, and I will have them all in my work. One story I picked up from Oliver Eilar IA512 when I called on him was very interesting:

When Samuel was moving from Dayton to Hagerstown, he came to a stream that was swollen from recent rains. He was trying to decided if he should cross or not when a mail carrier came along. The carrier being single and thinking the mail should be carried on, told Samuel that he would try crossing and if he got across safely Samuel could then cross. When in mid-stream a strong current caught him and he and the horse were carried down stream and drowned. The interesting part, or rather fact of the story to me is, that if Samuel had tried crossing first, many of us would not have been here, and I would not be sitting out here 10,000 feet high on the side of a mountain writing this letter. I just consider I had a close call a hundred and thirteen years ago. I would appreciate any stories of interest about any member of the family, old news paper clippins, or obituaries that would be of interest for this work.

I am glad that you people have started this family reunion and hope that some day I will be able to be with you on one of thse occasions. If you were to take the map of Indiana draw a line from Rochester to Hicksville, Ohio, then to Indianapolis and back to Rochester you would enclose 90% of the descendents of Samuel Eiler, Sr. I in this triangle. The Ilers of Canada are only a six or seven hour drive from Warsaw, Indiana, and they practically all live in Essex County, Ontario. I drove from the old original settlement in Pennsylvania, visited the island on which our Samuel, Sr. was born, and on into the Iler Settlement of Canada, in one day. Valentine, Jr. probably took weeks to make this trip, as they went by horseback. The Oylers of Pennsylvania are only a day's drive from you people, so I feel that your reunion will become a large meeting in the near future.

There is one thing that you people can argue about, and that is the spelling of our name. I have the facts so just go along apelling it as you please, we cannot help what was handed to us before our ancestors could read or write. This much I will say, so far as our family is concerned, that is the descendents of Valentine, Jr., we spell the name three different ways. The branch in Canada spell it ILER, the two oldest sons of Samuel, Sr., and their descendents spell their name EILER, the three younger sons, and their descendents spell the name EILAR. The Will of Valentine, Jr. is signed EILER, but he made his mark. The Will of Valentine, Sr. is signed OILER, but he also made his mark. Church records show Conrad as EULER, but the court records say EYLER. The family in Pennsylvania spell it OYLER. I write to so many people all belonging to the same family but spelling their names differently that I sometimes wonder just who in the dickens I really am.

It has been only through the cooperation of the members of the family that I have been able to collect and compile all of this data, and I appreciate the help that all of you have given me. I hope that when this is completed you will deem me a worthy member of the family, be you of the EULER, OYLER, ILER, EILER, or EILAR line. When this work is completed I will dedicate it to my father, JOHN SYLVESTER EILAR, and my one regret is that I did not do this while he was living.

Many of the family have written me asking if I intended publishing this in book form and asking to be advised when they can get a copy. In the beginning I had no idea of going to such extent as I have already gone. I thought of only making a little leaflet that could be kept for a record, in fact, I just didn't know there were so many Eilers, or what ever they are, in existence. If I had I probably would never have started. The work has enlarged far beyond my expectations, and there is so much history connected with it that it seems that it should be put in some kind of book form. If it is the will of the members of the family that I do this, when completed I will have it published with this understanding that I will not profit from its publication, and the cost of the publication to members of the family will be just the fee to the publisher. I have spent many long hours on this work, not to speak of the money spent, but I have enjoyed doing it and my pay will be the knowledge and the satisfaction of that I was responsible for reuniting the family, and compiling a record of our good people. I have no idea when this will be finished, perhaps before the next reunion, and may be not. I cannot tell. One thing I do know, I will not close it until every member is accounted for, if it is possible to trace them down. I wish that the reunion when in session would give me an expression as to what I should do.

Before I close I want to make one suggestion. There are many old records, Bibles, etc., that are relics of the family, lying around perhaps in the attics, or in some old trunk where they are liable to be destroyed in one way or another. I want to see all of these collected and put in safe keeping in a place where they will be protected, but so that everyone will be able to see them. Since the old homestaed is near Hagerstown, Indiana, I would suggest that some place near there be selected. I believe that such a place could be secured in the library at New Castle, Indiana. I would like to see a committee appointed to collect these things and feel sure that the members of the family would cooperate with them. Some of our rightful possessions have probably gotten into the hands of people outside of the family, but if they knew that these things were to be preserved I have but little doubt that they also would cooperate with us.

Again let me congratulate you on your noble undertaking. I am sure that a reunion of our family will prove a satisfaction to every one who attends and the members will be more eager each year to be present. I hope this letter has added to the pleasure of the members present, and that our family will be reunited with the bonds of family relationship and bring us closer together, to work for the happiness, the betterment, the elevation of mankind.

Sincerely,

SIGNED J. S. Eilar

REMINISCENCES ILER SETTLEMENT. E. T. C. of West Lorne reminisces on The Iler Settlement in Colchester South as follows:

In the township of Colchester South, Essex County, the most southerly part of Canada, is a lovely place, the Iler Settlement, one of the finest settlements along Lake Erie. There is a straight five mile road running from the 2nd concession south, in Colchester South, south to the Lake. Every farm was owned by an Iler so naturally it was called "The Iler Road."

Well-worked farms, big roomy houses surrounded by a flock of woodsheds, milk-houses, root cellars, work-shops and tool sheds, cattle sheds, stables and big grain barns; to house the varied activities that were carried on to make this early settlement almost self-dependent.

Their gardens held every fruit and vegetable known to man, and each day they worked a little while in the garden or amongst the flowers.

They perhaps drove into town once or twice a month to buy a bit of tea, coffee, pepper or nails.

The men were what they called "good providers." You were never supposed to see the floor of the hay mow, or your wife see the bottom of the flour bin. The women prided themselves on being good cooks and housekeepers. Their big fireplaces were always ablaze, the heavy walnut dining tables bent a bit in the centre; scarcely ever a meal passed without an extra plate or two being set on for passing agents, strangers, cattle buyers, and innumerable relatives and friends. There was always, "Plenty for All." Even the dog got two bones when he came to the stable with the visitor's horse.

The grandparents of the settlement had come over from Germany or Switzerland through the United States and were labled Pennsylvania Dutch. The men were all brothers, nephews and uncles and clanish as the Scots. What ever religion they may have been when they emmigrated they were all "old Baptist" here in the Settlement and built and kept a very fine brick church and stone school house. They used neither tobacco or liquors, and lived so peacefully amongst themselves, and the township, that had you asked a police-officer where they lived he would have said:--"I cannot tell you, I never heard that name."

The men were farmers, veterinarys, carpenters and masons. All the women were housewives, mothers, cooks, weavers, seamstresses and practical nurses. They made bread, butter, cheese, candles, maple sugar, lye-sopa; wove cloth and carpets; and canned fruits; apple-butter by the gallon; and cured meats and dried fruits, and went visiting in the afternoons.

For this was a place where it seemed, (as in Tennyson's poem), -- "A land where it was always afternoon." Not the Mexican, (tomorrow), type of afternoon. From early day-light to noon everything was bustle and work, so by afternoon, there was time for friends, visiting and pleasurers.

Drive up any season, or day, afternoon and before you got to the door it opened in welcome; they were always so glad you came, you must see the garden and the flowers, the new piece in the loom, the latest calf and new horse, then come in by the fireplace and have tea, (if you could not stay over for supper). Such teas you only read about in fairy stories. After tea they gave you a bushel of peaches, a piece of clover honey comb, and a jar of cidar apple-sauce, then walked to the gate to open it and wave you "Good-bye."

Every family were alike in their manner, yet each was a distinct individual and different in many ways, as country people always seem to be.

As you turned in from the main road and drove past a heavy maple woods the first farm was the home of the patriarch of the settlement, Uncle J91 Peter Iler. A big white wide-eyed house up on a hill half a mile along a winding lane. He was typical of the clan.

A short, sturdy, broad-shouldered man, with rudy complexion, bright sharp blue eyes and the pale gold hair, (not red), but golden, that never seemed to turn to silver no matter what age they might be. This golden hair shows up over a hundred years in present generations. He also had the fine singing voice so many of them had. Real "Opera" voices. He sang for hours every day while he worked over the 97 years that he lived. I can hear him in my mind walking home of an evening singing, "Roll, Jordan, Roll!" or "Bringing in the Sheaves rejoicing," "There is a Happy Land," stepping to the music of his voice. He hoped to live to be a hundred years.

Except for an unfortunate accident I do believe he would have done so. He lacked three years of his fond dream. For 97 years he helped feed the world, he never harmed a person, or did a dishonest act in all those long hard-working years.

The people who knew him can still hear him singing.

The next farm was a nephew. He had a more stylish wife and built a very fine house wit the new cut work veranda and flowers in the front yard instead of in the garden. I remember him best for a kind deed he did. On his calf pasture was a flowing well, he made a drinking trough for the calves by the road fence and then piped the water through to the road side and made another big trough there with a wide bridge over the ditch, so passing horses might drink when they smelt the water. And it was six miles from town and the horses soon knew about this stop on the road and would hurry their flaggin steps as they drew near on a hot summer day and blessed him.

Next was another nephew. A beautifully shady well-kept farm on a hill. A lovely lawn with huge maples framing a big cream-coloured house. This lawn never knew what a weed looked like. Any day passing you would see the gentleman, a little bent man, cutting a weed here and there, nailing on a loose picket or barn board, or brushing off a horse to shine too. He was proud of his home and had every right to be. In the autumn they had a sorgum mill where stripped cane could be brought to be made into sorgum molasses. It was very carefully made and never spoilt, kept in a crock in the cellar. It sweetened our long winters poured over hot pan-cakes, biscuits, Johnny-cake and buckwheat cakes, or ma into ginger bread and taffy. We could never have baked without the Iler sorgum molasses.

Next came the fine farm and big hospitable home of Lance Iler and his charming wife. She had the very loveliest laugh I ever heard. I can shut my eyes and hear it still. He had especially fine horses, anyone who had an old pet horse they had not the heart to kill or sell, brought it out to Lance Ilers, where it lived retired its life out. He had plenty, so why worry over one more horse to feed, there was plenty for all.

The next farm was Ernest Ilers and across the road Uncle Henry Iler's farm. These two houses were alike, made of pale pink brick of the clay dug from the creek bank that flowe into the Lake there beside their houses. Big colonial style houses with fireplaces and hand carved paneled doors, mantles, cupboards and wide window sills of one piece whitewood boards. It gave you a nice feeling to just drive by and look at them standing there amongst the old locusts and Jesuit pear trees.

Mr. Ern Iler was one of the kindest men I ever knew. When rural mail delivery came in Ontario, the carrier used to call at the Iler box about 1 p.m. Mr. Iler felt worried he was not officially allowed to stop for a bit of dinner. But for the next 30 years he had wrapped up a little lunch and put it in the mail box for the mail carrier. Never forgot one day.

At the Lake end of this road is the home of Aunt Jane (Iler) Fox and her husband, Frank It is one of the very loveliest homes I ever expect to see outside of the Old Southern plantations of Kentucky or Georgia in U. S. A.

It was modeled from them by the English carpenter who built it. A tall double-winged white house with pillared front door, room high windows, balconies and set amongst locust trees on a wide, green lawn that sloped down to the shore of the lake. The barns being on the road side of the house are also painted white. Inside is a Ladies' Home Journal picture. French windows on Lake side, log size fire-places, gun-cabinets, built-in china cupboards and wide window seat sills. Each room finished in different wood hand-carved paneling. Oak, maple, walnut, beech, cherry and white wood of the near by woods. Underneath a big stone cellar. A wing to the West used for a loom room was once the first Colchester South store, "Mills."

The old leather bound account books are still there with f and S. lists beautifully hand written. Beside this store at the Lake end of this road there was once a dock where the store got supplies and cord-wood and wheat were shipped out by small Lake ships, some sail and others wood-burning steamers.

This dock was the only money translations the settlement used buying and selling and the boys hired once a year to load the wheat. They were really almost dependent on themselves.

I never knew a happier people. The homes and meals were luxuriant even for the present day. You could write a book on the meals the housewives cooked. Their farms and buildings were well cared for and the land gave good crops.

A sound of singing seemed to be always in the air from the summer kitchen, prayer meeting on Wednesday evening, the open fields and along the road to school. At meals laughter and jokes were passed along the table like platters of food.

They had a motto: "There is Plenty For All. So there was never need to skimp.

There is Plenty For All: No need to cheat, lie, or steal, to live.

There is Plenty For All: No need to grab from another to eat.

There is Plenty For All: Give plenty to keep "our" church. God is good to us.

There is Plenty For All: Give charity a share.

There is Plenty For All: So the horses get an extra quart of oats, eats new milk and every dog two bones.

There is Plenty For All: Enjoy it.

Received from Dr. John S. Eilar of Albuquerque, New Mexico to Mrs. Edgar Iler of Harrow, Ontario, Canada in 1966.

Solomon Sibley, and attorney in Detroit was the agent and attorney for the Macombs estate in settling this claim. JACOB EILER, seemed to be the main witness for the estate and he testified no less than ten times. Having been a resident of the island from 1~~8~~791 or perhaps earlier, and a tenent for many years, he perhaps, more than any other of tenents knew the names of those who had lived on the island and those who were tenents and where they lived.

The following is taken from the proceedings in establishing the claim. Another testimony is found on the following copy of the original proceedings:

No. 553, THE LEGAL HEIRS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF WILLIAM MACOMB, deceased. The Board took into consideration the claim of the legal heirs and representatives of William Macomb, deceased, to a tract of land situated on river Detroit, and the notice filed the 21st instant by Solomon Sibley, their agent, was read in the words and figures following, to wit;

To the Register of the United States Land Office at Detroit, for the district of Detroit and territory of Michigan.

SIR: Detroit, December 17, 1808

The heirs and legal representatives of William Macomb Esq. late of Detroit, deceased, give notice, through you the Commissioners of said Land Office, that they claim, and make title to have confirmed, and granted to them and their heirs, a certain tract of land of six hundred and forty acres, with the improvements thereon made, situated and lying upon Grosse Isle, in said district and territory of Michigan, which said tract of land is bounded and designated upon the plot of survey herewith filed, as follows, to wit: (meets and bounds) -- to which said tract of land above described the heirs and legal representatives of the said William Macomb, deceased, set up claim--and make title by virtue of ancient and long possession, and occupancy and valuable improvements-----

For the heirs and legal reprsentatives of William Mac omb deceased.
Sol. Sibley, Attorney and agent.

This tract contains and is bounded, as in the above notice.

Whereupon, JACOB EILER was brought forward as a witness on behalf of the claimants, who, being duly sworn, deposed and said, that many years previous to the 1st of July, 1796, the late William Macomb was in posession, and tenenanted the premises; that Jacob Stoffer was living on the premises in 1796: that he the deponent, succeeded to Jacob Stoffer, and has continued on the premises to this day, and has paid rent to Mr. McIntoss, as agent. About forty-six acres are cultivated, two houses and one stable are thereon.

Joseph Bariau, another witness----

It is said that JACOB ILER went to Colchester in 1808, also that "In the dead hour of night, provided with sleigh~~t~~s", It is also worthy to note that Jacob's testimony was given December 17, 1808. He then had only a few days in which to reach his purchase before the New Year, and I doubt that he wasted much time. If it were a crime and contrary to the regulations and laws to go to Canada previous to December 17, why was it not just as serious after that date? There had been no lessening of tension between the United States and England.

He had testified and served the purpose and was allowed to remain in Canada, and we might add, live happily ever after.

The lot which Jacob purchased and upon which he made his home was granted to John Dalton, date of location, September 11, 1790 , Lot No. 37. It is a fertile and rich soil wich a nice expanse of water frontage on the lake. It is now owned by Winnie J675* Wright Iler, widow of Edgar, the son of Solomon J67 Iler, Jr. Winnie has cabins on the lake front which she rents in the summer, her beach and resort is called TWIN GABLES.

He must have lived a full life and the faith of his ancestors was deeply instilled in him. Like his ancestors and his brother he built a church on his land and the Iler Settlement Cemetery next to the church, which I had the pleasure to visit in 1936 and again in 1964, the church having been torn down previous to my 1964 visit. I am sure many more interesting stories could be told concerning Jacob J Iler for he was a well liked and respected man in his community. He was the progenator of the Iler family in Canada and has many descendants still living in Canada and many have moved to the United States. Still today, 156 years after he settled in Essex County, the community around Colchester is known as the Iler Settlement.

He died at his home in Colchester Township, Essex County, Ontario, April 22, 1843, and is buried in the Iler Settlement Cemetery on his land and near his home.

Smallman's claim had decided that he did not have to pay rent to the Macomb estate. At that date, 1800, the Macombs did not have title to the islands except by the treaty with the Potawatomie Indians, and the United States when they took over Detroit in 1796, did not recognize these claims without sufficient proof "Jake" evidently decided this was a no man's land and bucked on paying rent.

We know that he was on Grosse Ile as early as 1791 and perhaps 1788. The lots granted to the disbanded soldiers and loyalists in the New Settlement was in 1787, those in the second concession in 1788, Valentine was granted one of these lots, but in 1791 both petitioned for lots on the Thames. JACOB had by that time become old enough to qualify if one was granted. His petition evidently was not granted, for what reason it would be hard to guess and he evidently decided to remain on Grosse Ile. By 1796 when those who wanted to remain British had to declare so, or remain a citizen of the United States, he did not make the declaration. He was then married and apparently satisfied to remain on the island and continue farming and working his stone quarry.

In 1792 there was a big exodus from Grosse Ile of the British loyalists to the lots on the north shore of Lake Erie. In 1805 when Governor Hull established the militia, a Jacob Aeiller was appointed an ensigh, October 2 (First Regiment of Militia in the Territory of Michigan." This could have been our JACOB; however, by January 6, 1806, Ensign Jacob Aeiler had resigned.

As has been stated previously, when the United States took over Detroit in 1796 it did not recognize the claims for land made by treaty with the Indians unless occupancy could be established. With the burden of proof resting on the Macombs' estate to prove their right of title and ownership of Grosse Ile, the one most important man for them was JACOB ILER.

In the meantime this important man, who perhaps was the oldest settler on the island had bought Lot #37 on the north shore of Lake Erie, in Essex County, Ontario, and he became needed in two places. True there was trouble brewing between the United States and England, but there was also a claim of ownership for the island of Grosse Ile to be settled. There is probably no reason to doubt the statement in Mary J. Burch's book that JACOB ILER made an attempt to move to his purchase in Canada and was returned. In fact, I was told by one of his descendants, who is now deceased, that he made two attempts before he finally succeeded.

THE ILER SETTLEMENT

Received from RALPH KINGSLEY, ILER, Sr., September, 1957

Dr. J. S. Eilar, a dentist of Albuquerque, New Mexico, has for many years had the hobby of tracing the history of the ILER FAMILY. There are not many of them, so that makes it easy. (He moved to New Mexico because of asthma

The first ILER was C CONRAD, who came to America as an indentured slave in about 1702. This was one way of immigrating from Europe to America in those days. You went to a ship's captain and sold yourself into his hands under contract to work for a slave for 7 years after reaching America for whomever would buy your papers. The captain then transported you (probably as cheaply as possible) to the States and sold your services for the next 7 years. CONRAD worked out his indentureship and was given his freedom, as shown by the original papers which DR. J. S. EILAR has today.

According to legend, CONRAD married the farmer's daughter, which made him unpopular, and they moved West. They had a son named JACOB C4, who had a son named VALENTINE C43, who lived in Maryland during the 1700's.

C43 VALENTINE was classed as a Tory, and left Maryland and made application in Canada of the "Land Board of the District of Hesse" on April 23, 1791.

Actually, VALENTINE did not get into Canada. He lived somewhere on the American side in the vicinity of Detroit, very probably on Grosse Isle, a large island in the Detroit River just south of the city of Detroit. Probably he died there. At any rate, the family stories in Canada tell that JACOB was born on Grosse Isle and farmed there until the time of the 1812 War. At that time, he was outspokenly pro-British, and landed in jail in Detroit. When he was released, he went back to the farm and waited until the river was frozen over and escaped with the family across the ice to Canada. Here he was given one square mile of land on the north shore of Lake Erie, directly across from Sandusky, Ohio. This became known as ILER SETTLEMENT. It proved to be some of the best farming land along the lake shore. It had a frontage of half a mile and extended two miles back. With the following generations, the land was split up into strips 40 rods wide. J6 SOLOMON ILER, Sr., owned one of these strips extending from the lake straight back for one mile. J67 SOLOMON ILER, Jr., was given the back half of this strip, a 50 acre farm on excellent soil which he cleared, and on which he constructed a log house in about 1849. He was 18 and his wife 16.

His wife, J67* ELIZABETH MALOTT, was raised near Kingsville. J67 SOLOMON, Jr. used to ride down by horseback 7 miles to see her in the evenings and was often reprimanded for his late hours.

As their family enlarged, additions were made to the house until it was fairly rambling structure by 1910.

The farm was inherited by J67A ORLAND, the youngest son, and J67 SOLOMON lived with them until his death on September 15, 1924.

J67511

The farm passed into other hands in 1945 after the death of ORLAND ILER. By 1950, all of the land had passed into other hands except the front half of the strip which bordered on the lake, which is still in the hands of SCOTT ILER and his son, J675112 EARL. Besides this there is the original homesite of JACOB ILER, and the family graveyard, which was in the hands of the WRIGHT FAMILY for many years, but which is now owned by MRS. EDGAR (Winnie) ILER, wife of EDGAR ILER and Mother of EARL BRUCE ILER.

J675x J675 J6751

This is the story of most pioneer families. They settled, multiplied, prospered, younger generations moved away, until no trace of the family is left in the land. Even as a young boy, I sensed the coming of the day when the community would disintegrate. It was for this reason that I liked to talk to all the old people to hear of the early days and of the growth and the beginning of the decline of the SETTLEMENT. There was the church which was one of the earliest Baptist Churches, started some time in about 1840. Prior to that time there was no religion in this area. The revival which swept the community cleared out all the whiskey barrels, stopped the feuds and was the beginning of prosperity. The church was finally closed in the 1930's.

One reason the community retained its identity for over 150 years was probably the fact that on the West it was bounded by a strip of marshy forest, and on the East by another strip of land which was heavily forested, but consisting of clay, hard to cultivate. Also, the back end, away from the lake was heavy clay and forested until the 1930's. Therefore the SETTLEMENT was enclosed essentially on all sides by forests and fronted up the lake toward which it gently sloped. Even after other families had come in, the community was dominated by the church and noted for its industrious, sober people.

Interesting items taken from Regular Baptist Church Records dating back to 1842. I recorded them in August, 1960, while visiting with my Grandmother Iler in Harrow.

12/15/1845 - Voted that this branch request the church to organize them into a church. Brethren Harris Whiteman, John Beeman and Adam Snider were delegated to visit brother Solomon Iler and labour with him for censuring the Church of imbibing erroneous doctrine. He was cited to attend a church meeting on the 28th of January and substantiate his charge against the church which he refused to do and consequently he was excluded.

March 8, 1846, Covenant Meeting. Christopher Lintner was baptized. An ecclesiastical council convened this day at the house of brother David Iler in this township composed of delegates from the Chatham Raleigh and Gosfield Churches for the purpose of constituting the branch of the Gosfield Church in this settlement an independent church.

April 5, 1846. Brother David Iler was chosen Church Clerk and John Iler, Treasurer. Jacob Iler, collector.

May 3, 1846 - The church voted that brethren Alex Gustin, George Thornborogh, Jacob Iler be our delegates to the Association.

Appointed Deacon John Iler and Henry Huffman to labour with brother Richard Boyle for his long absence from meetings.

To settle difficulties in the church a meeting was appointed on the 12th of July according to appointment at brother John Iler's house. After singing and prayer, Elder Herrington was chosen Moderator and brother Jacob Iler clerk pro-tem. A complaint was brought before the church by brother David Iler against brother John Beeman. It was settled between themselves to the entire satisfaction of the church.

April 4, 1846, Voted that brethren A. Gustin, A. Stewart, J. Beeman and Jacob Iler visit brother Samuel Iler and sisters Hannah Iler, Ann Wigle and Mary Huffman and report at the next Covenant Meeting the reason for their long absence from the Cov. Mtgs.

Sister Hannah Iler said she could not enjoy herself in the church for there was too much Millerism in the church.

Brother Samuel Iler said he was puzzled to know what to think of Christian religion rather doubtful of the reality of it.

July 4, 1846, Delegated Elder Herrington and Adam Snider again to visit brother Samuel Iler and sister Hannah Iler and to cite them to the church meeting.

July 31, 1846, Brother Samuel Iler's case was cited - charged with a breach of covenant and refused to attend and was excluded.

November 1, 1846, Appointed brother Jacob Iler Superintendent and George Thornborough and David Iler teachers.

Nov. 6, 1846, Voted that brother Jacob Iler be licensed to improve his gift in preaching where and when he likes.

May 1, 1847, Deacon John Iler informed the church that a very unpleasant difficulty arose between himself and his brother David Iler which caused him to be angry with his brother David, and also to use improper expressions for which he was sorry and asked forgiveness of the church. This led Elder William Gonne, R. Herrington and Jacob Iler to give a relation of the labour which they had taken at David Iler's request to effect a reconciliation between those two brethren. The settlement of this case was postponed to the 17th.

Sister Hannah Iler be cited to the Church Meeting to give satisfaction to the church for her breach of covenant and for accusing the church of being full of Millerism.

Elder William Gonne and Jacob Iler visit sister Mary Ann Iler in order to ascertain the reason why she has absented herself so long a time from the Cov. Mtg.

David Iler brought the following accusations to the church against Deacon John Iler. 1st, putting poles across a lane which he had promised David Iler he never would obstruct but it should be left open at all seasons of the year for David Iler's convenience. 2, Threatening to bring down David Iler's grey hairs with sorrow to the ground if it cost him his life. 3, Putting poles again across the same lane after David Iler had cut the first poles to pieces and forbid him to obstruct the lane for David Iler had paid him for the use of the lane.

February 9, 1901, Edgar Iler was appointed to go and inspect organ that an agent wanted the church to buy. It was moved and seconded that the old organ be given to brother Edgar Iler.

February 16, 1901, After services the church members were requested to tarry when Edgar Iler reported the organ was sold. Whereupon it was moved and seconded that the church purchase a new organ and the following brethren were appointed to see after it. Pastor E. D. Sherman and Edgar Iler.

March 25, 1901, Received an organ from Mr. Karn of Woodstock. It cost $110.00. Mr. Karn agreed to throw off $30.00 making the price $80.00. It was moved and seconded that we purchase it on the above conditions and send the money immediatel to Mr. Karn. Lillian Iler, organist - (Ernest Iler's wife)

December 13, 1906, Colchester CANADIAN BAPTIST. See separate page on this.

December 7, 1856 - William Wright baptized (father of Winnie Iler)

April 2, 1859 - Elder Jacob Iler on a visit to this place in June, 1856, while in our chapel on Sabbath, was invited by Elder H. Fitch to preach but he refused to comply with Elder Fitch's request and was then asked if he would open the meeting by prayer which he also refused to do and on another visit to this place, about seven months after, he declared publicly from the pulpit in our chapel that Elder H. Fitch "did not invite him to preach" and as there is sufficient proof that he was invited to preach.

Resolved therefore that we as a church cannot invite Elder Jacob Iler to preach for us nor receive him as a member into this church until gospel satisfaction is made to this church by him.

June 18, 1859 - Brother Charles Bickford was excluded from the fellowship of this church for indulging in profane language.

February 4, 1859 - Elder R. Herrington, moderator. The church proceeded to examine Sister Mary Wright for communing with the Methodists. She endeavored to justify herself in what she had done and after mutual consultation and deliberation, it was moved, seconded, and carried that the church withdraw the hand of fellowship from Mary Wright for partaking of the sacraments with unbaptized believers, the Methodists.

February 4, 1860 - Whereupon it was voted that we consider that Elder Jacob Iler has given us gospel satisfaction and that the moderator be requested to give him the hand of fellowship as a token that the difficulty heretofore existing between him and the church is settled.

September 21,1860 - Church met according to appointments for the purpose of hearing the reports of the Committee previously appointed to enquire of brother Samuel Iler, Charles, Iler, Henry Iler, Jacob Iler and his wife, Stephen and Henry Julian, William Wright, their reasons for discontinuing their travel with the church. Opened meeting by singing and prayer by Elder H. Fitch.

January 5, 1861 - Covenant Meeting. Voted that Brother John Snider be Church Clerk. Voted that Brother John Linder and Deacon Iler visit Brother Samuel Iler and William Wright and site them to attend a meeting to be held in the meeting house on Friday the 18th at 1 p. m.

January 25, 1861 - Church meeting met according to ajournment after prayer. Elder Fitch chosen moderator. Then Deacon Iler and Brother Snider reported Samuel Iler, William Wright being present, were examined and found guilty of hindering the church and were both excluded.

Than Jacob Iler, Jr's. case was brought on and he was also excluded for refusing to submit to the rules of the church.

November 18, 1866 - Solomon Iler, Leonard Iler and Purritt Iler baptized.

December 2, 1866 - Baptized: George Huffman, Daniel Fox, Frances Beaman, Julian Iler, Susan Iler, Malinda Iler, Elizabeth Huffman, Alzora Beaman, Alma Iler, Catherine Bunnam, Elizabeth Bunnam.

November 24, 1856 - Henry Iler and Peter Iler baptized

December 6, 1856 - Henry Iler appointed Church Clerk

December 7, 1856 - William Wright baptized. Father of Winnie Wright Iler

September 17, 1858 - Samuel F. Iler baptized

January 1, 1859 - Mary Wright, wife of Leonard Wigle, father to Linnie Wigle Iler, school teacher, was authorized by the church clerk to cite her to attend the church meeting to give satisfaction to the church for partaking of the sacraments with the Methodists.

February 4, 1859 - The Church proceeded to examine Sister Mary Wright for communing with the Methodists. She endeavored to justify herself in what she had done and after mutual consultation and deliberation, it was moved, seconded, and carried that the church withdraw the hand of fellowship from Mary Wright for partaking of the sacraments with unbaptized believers, the Methodists.

May 10, 1873 - Reorganized Sabbath School and appointed R. McLane, Superintendent; Brother Leonard Iler, a class of young boys, Sister Alma Iler, young girls.

June 6, 1873 - Brother William Wright appointed to act as treasurer for the church after resignation of Brother John Iler.

October 3, 1874 - Solomon Iler appointed Church Clerk.

February 7, 1876 - Dedication of the Regular Baptist Church of Harrow. A sermon at 10:30 by Rev. Mr. Barlow of Chatham, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, there was a pretty good attendance, the house being nearly filled. 2:45 sermon preached by Rev. Mr. J. I. Campbell of Dundas.

January 5, 1878 - Brother Richard Iler, Solomon Iler, Jr., appointed Trustees for the church property.

The irregularity in the breadth of the small Lots in this Settlement appear strange. Still they are delineated exactly as they measure on the surface of the earth by my survey of their fronts in the year 1793. They were first designed to be four acres in front but between the surveyor who first measured them gave only four acres along the beach, making no allowance for the various windings and turns of the bank of the lake. # Cottam awaits sewage details

Residents of Cottam should have an answer regarding costs of a sewage system in the community very shortly.

Gosfield North Township clerk Garnet Stockwell said the proposal has been before the Ontario Water Resources Commission for about three years. He said the original proposal was changed after a petition had been received proposing an extension line.

"The final engineering report is under study now, and then it must go to the financial department," he said. Per-capita cost can be determined later.

Drain Erie and farm it

A Canadian engineer figures he knows the way to solve pollution of Lake Erie--drain the lake and turn it into farmland.

Frank Ogden of Toronto said by building a dam near Detroit and excavating the Niagara River above the falls the lake could be turned into over five million acres of new farmland. He said new channels around the dam site and parallel to the present Welland Canal at the falls would also have to be excavated.

Ogden said his proposed project would "merely speed up the forces of nature.", He said erosion steadily forces Niagara Falls back up the Niagara River and about 25,000 years from now, the falls would reach and empty Lake Erie anyhow.

Such a scheme would mean the end of Niagara Falls, the well-know resort area where newlyweds congregate. But, Ogden said the breakdown of the family unit, and ignoring of the marriage ceremony will eventually diminish the value of the falls as a honeymoon resort anyway.

He said the falls should be covered with a geodesic dome so the area would become the world's largest rockgarden.

Speaking of Spode China it was less than 200 years ago that Iler Brothers of Holland moved to England and began their work aided only by deaf-mutes 65 to 70 per cent of whom were women. The deaf-mutes were hired because of their inability to convey trade secrets about Spode China to their competitors. When Josiah Spode was hired by Iler Bros. he continually strove to better the processes and to improve the designs. The first complete service was called "Tower" and there were 1,500 different articles in this one pattern. It was made in Strafford Stake on Trent, in Engand. In 1794 the first bone was added to China to make it whiter, more translucent and more durable. The bone used is the shin bone of the beef. Spode shapes are those of old silver vessels used before the manufacture of China. It was most interesting to learn that the great number of patterns are still applied by hand and that the manufacturing processes are still much the same as they were 200 years ago.

More Information About The Iler Settlement

As E. T. C. seems to be interested in more data re The Iler Settlement, may I add a bit wrote by E. J. A. to the editor of the Echo office — and we quote:

In her reminiscences in a recent issue of The Echo, she left off with the Frank Fox family. On the next farm east on the lake shore Mr. and Mrs. Charles Iler resided. They were the parents of Ernest Iler (whom she mentioned) and of captain Walter Iler and Forest Iler. The latter lived on the family homestead until his death about ten years ago.

J75
J752-3

Cultured and prosperous, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Iler were staunch supporters of the Iler Settlement Baptist Church - one of the oldest established Baptist Churches in Ontario. Applicants for church membership were taken to their home, and by a path bordered on each side by a border of well-kept flowers proceeded to the beach where baptismal services were carried out in the waters of Lake Erie.

When a death occurred in the community, Mr. Iler, a proficient cabinet-maker, would construct the needed casket from his stock of well-seasoned walnut, and Mrs. Iler would do the trimming from bolts of material kept in the house for that purpose. It goes without saying this labor was purely a gesture of good-fellowship with no thought of remuneration.

Mrs. Iler was the daughter of Leonard Seratch and his first wife who lived on the first lake front farm east of the townline. Their home remained in the family until about ten years ago. It now is a large summer hotel "Crawfton Inn".

Leonard Seratch's second wife was Sophia Agla - daughter of Mr and Mrs. John Agla, pioneers of the community. Two of their daughters married Ilers, Richard Iler and Samuel Iler, both of whom established homes in the Iler Settlement where they resided until retirement late in life. Another daughter married William Wright and their home was next east of the Charles Iler home. Their daughter Winnie married Edgar Iler, and she now resides in her parental home.

It is to the interest and support of her parents and their family and to that of her husband's parents and their family that we should give credit for the continued growth and wide-spread influence of the Iler church. Mrs. Iler served faithfully and efficiently as organist and choir-leader and her husband as a member of the choir for many years.

Her musical ability was no doubt inherited from her great grandmother, Mrs. John Agla. Mrs. Agla was formerly Esmerelda Winterhalter, an aunt to the Winterhalters who have added much to the musical circles of Detroit, and also an aunt to the world famous singer, Madam Schuman Heink. Her son Solomon Agla possessed a well-trained voice of rare quality, and his family were teachers of several instruments and elocution, organists and orchestra. The Solomon Aglas bought their home ninety-eight years ago and it is still the family home, with its many relics of pioneer days. Although some three miles from the Iler Settlement, the Aglas have remained as much a part of it as if next door.

More About Iler Settlement

These reminiscences would not be complete without mention of one of the best known and dearly loved members of the Iler clan — in the person of "Aunt Ann". She it was who braved the elements in all seasons of the year and at all hours of the day or night, to usher into this world not only the younger generation of Ilers, but many others as well — myself included. When the residents heard her clear sweet voice raised in hymnal song as she rode horseback over the brick roads, they would wonder whence she was bound, and await with interest, (not curiosity) to learn if all was well.

So you see, E. T. C. - although we miss the older familiar faces and try to reconcile ourselves to the loss of our church building, the "Iler Settlement" is still "The Iler Settlement."

THANKS ECHO

May 13, 1936.

The Amherstburg Echo,
Amherstburg, Ont.,
Canada.

Dear Sirs:—

Please accept my thanks for the May 8 issue of The Amherstburg Echo.

My search for data concerning my family led me to Essex County, Ontario, and after several letters to the communities of Harrow and Arner, I succeeded in locating the Iler family. The progenitor of the Iler family of these communities was Jacob Iler, a brother to my great-grandfather, Samuel. I

My great-grandfather was born on Grosse Isle, and after his marriage he moved down into Ohio, and then into Indiana. Both he and Jacob married Snider girls.

I have two very interesting letters written to my great-grandfather, from relatives in Colchester township, then called Upper Canada. One is dated April 30, A.D. 1837, and the other May 2, 1838. In the letter of April 30, 1827, it states that "Grandmother Snider died the 23rd of February, also "Old Mother Arner died last winter." In the letter of 1838 it states, "Jacob Arner is dead. He died on the 20th day of March."

The Iler and Arner families seem to have been friends for many years, and as you state in your paper, Jacob Arner II married Susan Iler, the daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Iler. I am very much interested in finding from what place, and at what time, the Arner family migrated to Canada.

JI

J J*

Again let me thank you for your interest, and I hope to have the pleasure of visiting your town and the communities of Harrow and Arner this summer.

Sincerely,
J. S. EILAR, D.D.S.

CHAPTER XVIII.

JACOB ILER.

Jacob Iler came from Pennsylvania—He Settled on Grosse Isle—He finally Removed to Colchester.

Jacob Iler moved from the State of Pennsylvania, about the year 1790. Previous to his coming, he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Snyder, whose father, John Snyder, came with them. They settled on Grosse Isle, and not being satisfied, in the year 1808, Jacob purchased lot No. 37, on the lake, Colchester. At that time, trouble was brewing between the United States and Great Britain, and moving was forbidden. He was taken to Detroit to be tried for violating the law in attempting to move to his new purchase, but was acquitted. A man by the name of Chittenden, residing in Amherstburg, encouraged him to make another attempt, promising him assistance. In the dead hour of the night, provided with sleighs by him, they removed all their goods and chattels across the river without detection, and once over, were safe from molestation.

NATIONAL WILD LIFE WEEK

APRIL 7 - 13

This week through the fact National Wild Life Week was created by an act of Parliament in 1947 as a living memorial to the late Jack Miner, the attention of all Canadians is focused on Kingsville.

Each year since the Dominion Government proclaimed the week as a memorial to the Kingsville bird lover, interest has doubled so much so that this year every Provincial Minister of Education has contacted every school teacher in their respective province asking that the week be observed in their schools. Every department of fish and game has notified their officials as well as outdoor provincial organizations and as a climax the 10 provincial Prime Ministers have made a statement to the press in praise of the week and the pioneer conservation work Jack Miner started.

Public interest continues to grow in the Kingsville Bird Sanctuary. Last week the Detroit Free Press devoted most of the back page featuring same with a result that on Saturday last a record crowd visited the place for any day in the spring with autos lining both sides of the road to see the spring flight.

Among the outstanding visitors were Supreme Court Judges, His Honor Mr. Justice Spence and Mr. Justice Grant. In the field of government Hon. William G. Davis, Minister of Education of Ontario and Hon. Walter Dinsdale, Minister of Northern Affairs and Natural Resources from Ottawa.

lot 37, in the 1st concession, now occupied by Wm. Wright, which she remained till she was married to the late Jacob Iler on June 23rd, 1818, by Squire Wm. McCormick. After marrying, she lived on the old Arner homestead lot No. 27, lake shore, Gosfield South, till 17 years ago, when she took up her residence with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Mickle, of Malden, where she has been kindly cared for ever since. Her husband died on March 20th, 1838, after a happy married life of 20 years. A family of four sons and four daughters were born to them—Elizabeth, widow of the late Geo. Eede, of Gosfield South; John, of Gosfield South (who died in 1886); Jacob, of Gosfield South; Lewis, of Malden; Mary, wife of W. C. Mickle, of Malden; Susan, wife of Robt. McLean, of Colchester South, and Henry, of Kingsville. One daughter, Barbara, wife of Wm. Staddon, of Gosfield South, is dead. Three of her brothers are dead—Solomon (father of Sheriff Iler), David and John, while Samuel (father of Mrs. Solomon Baltzer), of Colchester South, and Rev. Jacob, of Cottam, still survive. Three of her sisters are dead—Mrs. Charles Hughson, of Gosfield South; Mrs. Joseph Coatsworth (mother of Mrs. Alanson Elliott, of Colchester South), and Mrs. (Rev.) Richard Herrington, of Kingsville, while one sister still lives—Mrs. Mary Baltzer, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. David Hopgood, of North Ridge. Her descendants are very numerous, besides her family there being [illegible] 60 grandchildren living, over 100 great grandchildren and a number of great-great-grandchildren. During her long lease of life she enjoyed perfect health, never knowing what it was to be sick a single day. She retained all her faculties to the last except that her mind had become noticeably weak during the past month or two. She had always led a Christian life [illegible] bore the reverses of life with great [illegible]ude; was highly spoken of for her [illegible]sity and tenderness of heart [illegible] was always found willing to lend [illegible] to a suffering fellow creature [illegible] funeral will take place from the [illegible] of Mr. Mickle to the Baptist chu[illegible] Settlement, tomorrow (Satur[illegible] morning at 9 o'clock.

1907 Written

Jacob Arner, another South Essex octogenarian, passed away Tuesday forenoon. He was [illegible] th[illegible] of that [illegible] and [illegible] of Jac[illegible] r, [illegible] he [illegible] an [illegible] ner [illegible] grandfath[illegible] rn [illegible] sy[illegible] of Germ[illegible] ts [illegible] ere [illegible] was fo[illegible] but being [illegible] o [illegible] when th[illegible] [illegible] border, and [illegible] way to the County of Es[illegible] in Gosfield township where he was given 200 acres of land for his loyalty. Adjoining this he purchased another 200 acres, making 400 acres in one tract in the southwestern part of the township, along the lake shore. During his lifetime the greater part of this land was cleared and converted into farm land. He married Barbara Arnold, who was born in Germany, but as a child was brought by her parents to America, her mother, however, dying on the voyage. Mr. Arnold and his children made their home in Sandwich. To Jacob and Barbara Arner were born: John, who died young; Jacob; Susan, who married John Whittle, of Gosfield; Magdalene, who married first a Mr. Blakely, and second a Mr. West, of Kent county; Elizabeth, who married Joseph Julian, of Kent county, and Mary, who married Henry Huffman, of Colchester township. These are all dead. Jacob Arner, the second, married Susan Iler, and Jacob, subject of this sketch, was their son. His brothers and sisters living are Mrs. George Eede, of Colchester South; Mrs. Mary Mickle, of Amherstburg; Mrs. Susan McLean, of Harrow, and Lewis Arner, of Malden. The deceased was born July 15th, 1823, and had thus nearly completed his 84th year. He was in a sense a pioneer of our county. He came into the dense forest in 1844 and hewed out a home for himself. In order to better qualify himself for the task that lay before him he took to himself a most estimable helpmeet in the person of Susanna Williams. To them were born fifteen children, six of whom died in childhood and three in later years, while six survive, they being Mrs. Henry Lypps, Leamington; Mrs. George Grenville, Kingsville; Charles T., clerk of Colchester South, Harrow; Orlando J., of Arner; John Arthur, of Milwaukee; Ezra, of Fairbault, Minn. The deceased was a most manly man, a man among men, never shirking a duty. When he and his estimable wife commenced life in 1845 their stock in trade was a pair of strong hands and a willing mind to each, and a steady aim. They soon became in comfortable circumstances and had money to lend. In the early seventies the family had outgrown the wooden house, when a commodious brick residence was built, in which they lived at their zenith for some months, when the most devoted wife and affectionate mother was called away. The deceased carried on the farm for some years longer, when he gave the home place over to his son, Orlando J., who is now one of our most successful farmers, the other members of the family all being well provided for. In politics he was a staunch supporter of the Liberal party. The funeral took place on Thursday to the Baptist church burying ground, Iler Settlement.

There were some s[illegible]t errors published last week concerning Mrs. Susan "Granny" Arner's death. She married Jacob Arner instead of Jacob Iler. Also she has been residing with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Mickle, for 2? years instead of 17 years. Her funeral took place on Saturday, last, her remains being interred beside those of her husband, Jacob Arner. Her remains were followed by a large number of friends and relatives to their last resting place in Colchester South, on the farm where she lived from the time she came to Colchester, until she was married on June 23rd, 1818. She had not appeared much worse than common as she sat up in her rocking chair the day before she died, and re[illegible] different chapters of the New Testament and even at one o'clock, on Thursday morning, before she passed away, she rose up in bed. The pall-bearers were four of her great-grand-sons viz:—Sylvester and Eddie McLean, Leonard and George Eede. The two former are deceased's eldest grand-daughter's sons and the latter two are deceased's eldest grandson's son. The Rev. Mr. Johnson, Baptist minister, assisted by Rev. E. D. Sherman, conducted the funeral service at the Baptist church, Iler Settlement. His text will be found in the 116th Psalm and 15th verse. Mrs. W. C. Mickle wishes to extend her many thanks through the Echo to all the friends who so kindly assisted in any way during the time of her trouble especially the friends of Colchester, who were so kind on Saturday.

THE NINETY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY.

Of Mrs. Susan (Granny) Arner.

THE CELEBRATION.

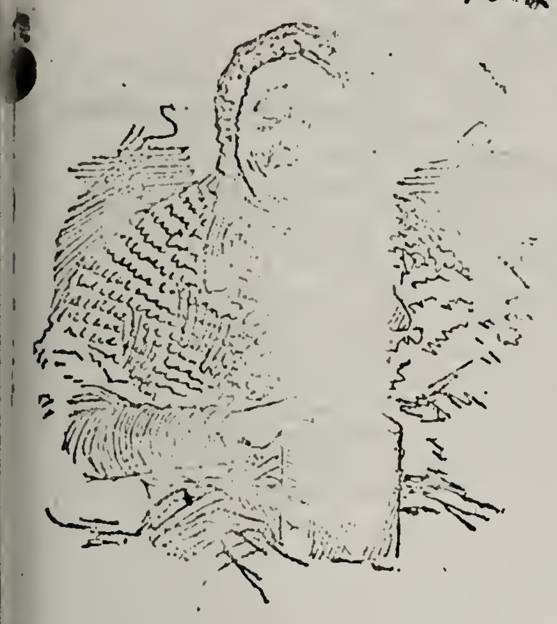
1892



Monday last was the 95th anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Susan Arner, and her birthday was duly celebrated by her large circle of relatives and friends in South Essex and elsewhere, who have assembled at the home of one of their number on each recurring 27th of June, for several years past, to do honor to the venerable lady, who, at the ripe old age of 95, still retains all her faculties and has a surprising memory for events that have occurred during her long life of nearly a century. The celebration, this year, took place at the residence of her grandson John Arner, in Gosfield South, and the attendance on this occasion was probably the greatest that has yet gathered in honor of her anniversary, there being 150 persons in attendance. The day was a thoroughly sociable and enjoyable one, there being no formal proceedings, but all having a good time in social converse. The dinner was a splendid affair and the ladies of the house and their friends, who assisted in the preparations fairly outdid themselves and added much to the pleasure of all who participated.

THOSE PRESENT.

At this gathering from Malden were Mrs. Susan Arner (Granny), Mrs. W. C. HER HISTORY.

Mrs. Arner was born on Grosse Isle, Mich., on the 27th of June, 1797, and was the eldest daughter of the late Jacob Iler and Elizabeth Schneider, who were descendants of Pennsylvania Dutch families. She resided at her birthplace till she was 12 years of age, when she removed with her parents to Colchester South, in Essex County, to the farm on lot 37, in the 1st concession, now occupied by Wm. Wright, where she remained till she was married to the late Jacob Iler, on June 23rd, 1818, by Squire Wm. McCormick. After marrying, she lived on the old Arner homestead lot No. 27, lake shore, Gosfield South, till 17 years ago, when she took up her residence with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Mickle, of Malden, where she has been kindly cared for ever since. Her husband died on March 20th, 1838, after a happy married life of 20 years. A family of four sons and four daughters were born to them—Elizabeth, widow of the late Geo. Eede, of Gosfield South; John, of Gosfield South (who died in 1886); Jacob, of Gosfield South; Barbara, wife of Wm. Staddon, of Gosfield South; Lewis, of Malden; Mary, wife of W. C. Mickle, of Malden; Susan, wife of Robt. McLean, of Colchester South, and Henry, of Kingsville. Three of her brothers are dead—Solomon (father of Sheriff Iler), David and John, while Samuel (father of Mrs. Solomon Baltzer), of Colchester South, and Rev. Jacob, of Cottam, still survive. Three of her sisters are dead—Mrs. Charles Hughson, of Gosfield South; Mrs. Joseph Coatsworth (mother of Mrs. Alanson Elliott, of Colchester South), and Mrs. (Rev.) Richard Herrington, of Kingsville, while one sister still lives—Mrs. Mary Baltzer, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. David Hopgood, of North Ridge.

Short addresses were given by the Rev. gentlemen present and singing was furnished by the Baptist choir from Essex, and it was ended by singing "God be with us till we meet Again." The Dr. that thought the crowd would kill her (Mrs. Arner) was very much mistaken as she drove home a distance of ten miles that same evening and was up at half past four o'clock the next morning. The friends return many thanks to all present.

Along with the rest was received a letter from Miss Mary Arner, of Brooklyn, New York, daughter of Jacob Arner and granddaughter of John Henry Arner, stating how very sorry she was at not being able to attend the birthday party of Granny Arner, on account of ill health.

Minnie Arner turns 98 at her family homestead

By EVELYN WALKER

KINGSVILLE — Minnie Arner came back to the homestead for her birthday Saturday; back to the home she came to as a bride in 1906 to live there for 56 years. It was her 98th birthday and she came from a Leamington home for the aged to celebrate with all but three of her 23 descendants.

As she sat in the room where she once served meals to 10 or 12 men daily through the summer months, she sifted through her memories of the years that telescope now into a brief span.

It was in this house her two sons and two daughters were born, and grew around her as she cooked for the gang of men her husband needed to help him in the planting and harvesting of his 345-acre farm. Cooking included frying down the meat from five or six pigs each season, packing it in rendered lard to preserve it, boiling lye to make soap, and churning the butter.

"Once my husband spilled it. I remember it all over the bricks on the work house floor," she recalled.

They enjoyed a multitude of social events either in Harrow or Kingsville along with frequent family dinners.

"I often look back now and wonder how I did it," she said with a triumphant smile.

The Arner homestead is on County Road 23, known as the Arner Townline. Her husband's family bought the farm from the Crown and lived in a log cabin until the family home was built in 1882.

Adapting to being a farmer's wife was more traumatic for Minnie Arner than for most brides of 1906 for she was the first secretary in Essex County and left a highly-paid position as secretary and bookkeeper for Kingsville Woollen Mills.

Minnie took it all in stride, taking a keen interest in whatever her husband did. In the first year on the farm he was one of the first in the area to grow Zimmer Spanish tobacco for making cigars. Men known as curers came from southern U.S. and stayed to eat at Minnie's crowded table during the weeks it took to harvest that tobacco.

"Some people wondered how I'd manage," she said of her unusual task of running a household for what was then considered an unusually large farming enterprise.

"But I held my ground no matter where I was."

She came from a farm background and one of her father's gifts was a cow and its calf. When her husband brought it to their farm he left her Tilbury home at 8 a.m. and arrived at the Arner homestead by 5 a.m. the next day.

Their wedding date of June 27 was chosen because it was the birthday of the groom's great-grandmother, Mrs. Jacob Arner II, who lived to be 99.

A 10-day wedding trip by train and boat to Chicago was typical of the Arners' interest in all kinds of activities, an interest that keeps Mrs. Arner alert at 98. Those many activities provide a variety of memory treasures that assist those who wish to record life in the early 1900s.

Her son, Alfred, took over the farm and his family lives there now. His son, Lloyd of Colchester, oversees the farm work now and hopes one of his sons will eventually take over the family farm.

And great-grandmother Minnie, can return to her childhood surroundings if she chooses, for her other son operates the farm near Tilbury where she was raised as a child.

THE EEDE FAMILY

The earliest authenticated record of the Eede family in England begins when Births, Marriages, Deaths had legally to be recorded in the parish churches. In 1527, John Eede of Kirdford, Sussex, died. This record is followed by a long record of Eede births, marriages & deaths, up to the death of John Eede in 1906, grandfather of Richard Eede of Bournemouth.

Battlehurst, an old Elizabethan building, still stands and was recently renovated to modern standards, though much reduced in size. Battlehurst and Cranfold Farms in Kirdford, a village near the town of Petworth in the County of Sussex, have been the main homes of the family since the year 1500.

The family, up to Richard's grandfather, were all recorded as being substantial farmers. The eldest son always taking over the family home, Battlehurst, but records of the family are also to be traced at Alfold, at WishoroGreen and other villages in Sussex. 'John Eede' coins are to be seen in the museum at Brighton, Sussex. These were tokens with which they paid their labourers in earlier days.

There is much unauthenticated information going back to the year 900, but here we run into difficulties because of spelling of our name. The first 'E' is often missing, probably due to very few people who could read or write. There are several 'Ede' and 'Eade' in England today.

The origin of the name (hearsay) is that we came from the village of EEDE which was then in the Lowlands of Holland, and which is now on the Dutch-Flemish frontier near the chief town of Middleburg, Southern Holland. When the laws of England ruled that everyone must have a surname, people adopted the name of their folks, or the districts they belonged to, — the Eedes adopted the name of their old home on the Continent.

Richard Eede of Bournemouth has a common ancestor with the Essex County branch of the family. It was John Eede of Battlehurst, born in 1738; died ??. His son John inherited Battlehurst, and he was born in 1768; died 1827. His son Richard (b. 1771) lived at Crawfold.

John Eede of Battlehurst - 1738- ?

| * Richard - 1897- | 4th " | Ruby Eede (1903- ) m. Mervyn Woodbridge |

The town of EEDE in Holland was completely razed in W. War II, and all archives and records were destroyed. A new village has been built. Tax records from West Sussex refer to a Robert Eede in 1296; Adam Eede in 1327; William Eede of Westhampnett. Robert lived at Permstide; Adam at Warnham.

(These facts supplied by Richard Eede, C.I. Princes Gate, East Overcliffe Drive, Bournemouth, B.N.I. 3 A.W., England.)

Richard knows of atleast 2 other EEDE familes in England related through his great undles. If the spelling is similar, they are related.
The old home of Battlehurst was finalized as an Eede residence in 1909-10 after almost 400 years of continuity. Richard tells of the visit of Jacob Eede of Colchester South, and daughter Fannie Eede, to Battlehurst in 1906.

Miss Ethel Eede, daughter of Albert Eede of Cottam, visited Richard Eede in Bournemouth in the summer of 1973. She met Geraldine Eede-Smith who is a family history buff, and who took her to Battlehurst and Crawfold, and the parish church in Kirdford. Ethel has a long list of genealogical data from 1564 onward, but has not forwarded them to us as yet. Geraldine lives with her parents at Broadstone which is only 10 miles from Bournemouth

Mrs. Marjorie Rhodes, 97 Berrow Rd., Burnham-on-Sea, Somerset.

Richard assures all Eede descendants a warm welcome if they should visit Sussex.

Biography:

"When George was 21 years of age, he came to Canada, locating in Colchester Twp., Essex County, Ontario. After a short interval, he bought a farm of 100 acres in the fourth section, Gosfield Twp., and was settled there for the greater part of his life. He accumulated considerable property, at one time owning 650 acres. His whole attention was devoted to farming, and he reaped a prosperous harvest. He was a prominent Baptist, but his religious sympathies were broad. While attending the dedication of the Harrow Baptist Church, he was striken with apoplexy, and he died before he could be moved from the church. He was 64 years old."

Witnessed: George Eede & Daniel Wigle.

Biography:

"Jacob Eede grew up on the home farm in Gosfield, and, as he was the eldest son, his father depended on him for much assistance. He remained at home until he became of age, and then he was given 100 acres of bush land in Lot B, Concession 2 by his father, where he settled down to make his own way. Later he bought 200 acres more of wild land adjoining his own, and managed this land until 1880. In 1880, he rented his Gosfield farm and went to Colchester South Twp., where he purchased from Judson Patton a tract of 280 acres originally settled by John Cornwall. The first schoolhouse of the (Potleg) community was built on this property. This land was all cleared and he added some improvements. He agreed to pay $11,000 and was able to free it from debt. He was of the Baptist faith." --Essex County Biographical Book.

The Eedes of Warnham and District

L C Suggars and C W Marshall

Sudsexe, the independent kingdom of the South Saxons, was founded in the 5th century A.D., and since the Eedes (or Eades - there are several variants) are now widespread in the modern county of Sussex, (entries in the telephone directories run into three figures), it may be asked whether they have been there ever since those early days. The only evidence of this is a report from Mr Francis Leeson, who tells us that Eede is an early English name of the same derivation as the name Edith.

Here we have one of those families who were the backbone of the country, the yeomen of England. Known especially for their prowess as bowmen at the battle of Agincourt, the yeomen did not otherwise get their names into the history books or have their heads cut off, but provided the real English. Not that there is any evidence that the Edes were at Agincourt in 1415, but Robert Eede was paying taxes in Pernstede (? Binstead) in 1296 and in 1327 Adam Ede was paying taxes at Warnham while William did the same at West Hampnett. Other counties have not been searched, nor have later generations more easily traced been followed up, but we do know that George Eedes who was baptised at Kirdford in 1812, the son of Richard and Frances, joined in the early 19th century emigration from the farming community. He took up a grant of government land in Ontario, Canada, where his descendants are now well established.

The question had been asked, since there is a town called Eede on the borders of Belgium and Holland, whether this surname could not be derived from a place name, as are many others. The south coast of Sussex has come under a good deal of influence from the Continent, mostly Norman, both by immigration and otherwise. The Flemings came over in large numbers, mostly in Elizabethan times, long after the first Eedes were recorded locally. The answer would seem to be that since the Eedes fall into several groups they may originate from more than one family, the inland family being the older.

At the time of the Domesday Book (1086 A.D.) the county was divided into five strips called Rapes; these ran from north to south. (1) The Rape of Arundel in its north-western part is the one with which the Eedes are chiefly concerned. It is there shown as having very few settlements, particularly where are now Warnham, Rusper and Horsham, the homes of many 16th century Eedes. The reason for this is that it was then still heavily afforested and only traversed by the Roman road, Stane Street, which runs from London to Chichester and is now in part incorporated in the A-29 route.. As the need for farm-land grew, the forests were cleared to make fields from the flat and fertile ground which adjoined the rivers, a process that may be seen in operation to-day, in South America and, no doubt, elsewhere.

In the Table (see Appendix) will be seen the density of the Eede population so far found in Sussex.. From the places named in the preceding paragraph, all in the upper reaches of the River Arun and its tributaries , are found extensions to the upper reaches of the River Rother, first at Lurgashall and then at Kirdford. At Crawfold and Battlehurst farms, 2½ miles south of Kirdford, Eedes farmed continuously for 350 years; the first register entry there is the marriage of William Ede in the year 1571: in 1908 the last farmer died and Battlehurst was sold, neither of his two sons wishing to carry on there.

It will be seen that the survey covers only a sample of the many parishes in the Horsham district where Eedes are likely to be recorded, but the picture of their multiplication and spread is clear. Making an accurate pedigree is difficult; not only are there gaps in the records, especially the early ones, but there is much repetition of Christian names. Out of 245 male Eedes listed (4) no fewer than 57 bear the name John. This is a high proportion, nearly one quarter, even if it has not always been realised that duplication of entries may have occurred where an individual has moved from his birthplace.

The study has led to the discovery, new to C.W.M. (the junior contributor) of the custom of Borough English. Here in the case of intestacy property descends to the youngest son and the otherwise widespread rules of primogeniture do not apply. This is in contradistinction to the custom of gavelkind, prevalent in the adjoining county of Kent, where in these circumstances the property was divided equally between the sons.

The widow's bench is also mentioned (2); this was her share of the income from the estate of her late husband. Usually this was one third, except in Sussex where it was often the whole of the income. Parish Registers and the Bishop's Transcripts of entries therein have proved to be a mine of information as to families, and many lines of succession can be traced through these. More light is cast on individual personalities by study of the many Wills available in the County Record Offices.

A husbandman is a tenant farmer, as distinct from a yeoman, who farms his own land, and in the Will of Thomas Eede, husbandman, of Warnham, which was proved on the 2nd March, 1517/8, we see that the modern granny-flat is no innovation. He says I will to Margaret my wyff a loft for her chamber which is in the west end of the forsaid my house. I will also to her 6s. 8d. a yere for the term duryng her lyffe. A devout man, the ancestory of many churchwardens, his bequest after leaving my soll to almyghty god was to the mother church of Chychester 4d. Item to the heygh alter of the church of Warnham 4. Item to St.Margarett's light of the same church 6d. How many values have changed since those days!

Later, 1555, we find the Will of John Ede the elder of Warneham. His description is not given, but he was evidently a man of substance and public spirit. That he had a conscience is shown by his bequest of 3s.4d. to the high Aulter of Warneham for tythes omitted. He left my mancyon housse called Budes (this has not yet been traced) the manor of Brambly in East Greensted with all manner of lands tenements rents reversions and farms lying in ..... Warneham Horsham lyye (sic) Rngemier Ronsy Wolley Kyrdford and Wreysbury in the counties of Surrey, Sussex and Bucks. This does not link up with the families mentioned by Mr Steer (3) which were found in Middlesex, Essex, Suffolk and Bedfordshire.

John left more accommodation to his widow than Thomas had been able to do in 1517. This time there was for her a parlour and two chambers at the south end of my house with nessassarye wode for her fewell and free gooynge and comynge to the kitchyne and all other places at her pleasure. One wonders what her daughter-in-law thought about this arrangement. Still she would have approved of the clause which stated that as the widow was provided for financially she had to pay her son for any food that she had from him. The widow received four of the best kine owned by John at his death, also a grey mare, to be summered and wintered by her son.

Provision for the two younger sons, James and Henrye, was followed by instructions that they were to be put to grammar school until they had sufficiently learned the same, and afterwards to be set forth to good masters ... so as they may afterwards lyfe honestly. Alternatively, after they had lerned their gramer they were to be put to lernynge of the law if they can be apt to take ytt. Should the bequest fail John left £40 for deeds of charity, one moyte ... for making the hyway betwixt Bradbridge Heath and Horsham and further if it will extend hereto and the other £20 to be given to the twenty poure maydens at their marriage desiring them to pray for my soule (and) all christian soules.

The Eedes, however, were not always on their best behaviour; in 1673 we find William Ede of Churles in Tillington being fined 20s. should he fail to remove an offending instrument. This was a moletrina, the amercement being for failing to grind at the Lord's mill and possessing a quern mill contrary to manorial custom and to the prejudice of the Lord. (2)

The map of 1610 and notes on this have much to tell us (2). Stephen Ede was in 1587 admitted to Homdene near Northchapel on payment of a fine of £10. Possibly this was the Stephen who died at Kirdford in 1599. In 1610 William Ede owned 17 acres of land called Fernhurst and also a cottage which was still there in 1954. Also in 1610 John Ede the tobacco-cutter occupied a barn in East Street, Petworth. He would be the ancestor of John Ede who issued a trade token at Petworth in 1670. This token is now in the museum at Lewes and photographs are available through the writers.

In the same year (1610) Alice Ede held Dickhurst as her widow's bench, her house being on the same site as the present farm building. She could have been the widow of the William Ede previously mentioned who married Alice Luff at Kirdford in 1571. She was succeeded in 1611 by her son Henry, and after his death by his widow, Margaret. This Margaret paid a fine of £20 for her admission but died herself before this could be done formally. She was succeeded automatically by her infant son Richard, but his fine in the circumstances was only £2. This was in 1634/5, when the new heir was put under the guardianship of his uncle, also Richard.

Lord Leconfield gives us interesting particulars of the different properties.

Dickhurst, also called Douman's had 93 acres, of which only 13 were arable. Its northern end was dominated by a 36 acre close of scrubbed bushes and birches while at the opposit end were 13 acres covered with myne pyttes, no doubt relics of the old iron-founders. Traces of these were still visible in 1954.

Richard the elder was admitted to the copyhold of Redlands in 1617 after a delay in raising the fine of £40. There was also an outlaying property called Braches near Gospel Green. These properties were made up as follows:

| | | Acres | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Redlands | In the block | | |
| | House and Orchard | 1 | |
| | Arable land | 54 | |
| | Pasture | 20 | |
| | Meadow | 1 | |
| | Wood | 21 | Total 97 |
| Braches | Pasture with timber of 60 years growth | 14 | |
| | Meadow | 4 | Total 18 |

When the property had passed in 1561 it was noted that two pigs were the only heriot available there being no better animal than a pig on the property. This was possibly because of the large acreage of wood. Incidentally, a heriot was a beast or beasts from the stock on the property due to the Lord of the Manor either in lieu of or as well as the customary fines on the admission of a copyholder. William Christmas is recorded as a bad tenant from whom in 1617 the property passed to the Edes of Dickhurst.

The Richard Ede who succeeded his parents at Dickhurst in 1634/5 succeeded his uncle and former guardian Richard Ede at Redlands in 1638/9; his uncle Thomas Ede of Little Braunchers was also childless and young Richard succeeded him too, in 1641/2. Things then began to go wrong; perhaps the seeds of his difficulties were sown in the Civil War. Though he was not dispossed, like the Royalist Brownes of Cowdray Castle, and in fact carried on for over thirty years perhaps life got more difficult as he got older. First he raised £270 on the Dickhurst property; then in 1667 he mortgaged Redlands for £350, and the same year he raised £90 on the 11 acres of Little Braunchers. All these were lost by foreclosure in 1677, 17 years after the restoration of the monarchy when life should have been more stable. His relationship to the line which carried on successfully at Kirdford has not been established.

The inventory of John Eede who died at Kirdford in 1689 is published in the Kirdford Inventories of 1611-1776, and reference to the Eedes will be found in Volume 93 of the Sussex Archaeological Collections. Summaries of the names of individuals who have been traced so far have been deposited in the Library of the Sussex Family History Group, and it is hoped that they will be useful to members of the family who may wish to look up their ancestry. As noted above, there is plenty of material not yet searched.

The interest of one of us was aroused by finding that a Marshall ancestor had married one Elizabeth Eede at Petworth in 1765, and by the sight of copies of the actual application for the Marriage License and of the License itself. Both parties could sign their names, not a general accomplishment in those days, it is understood. The name Eede was used as a Christian name in his family for another four generations after her.

It is a pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of a grant for this research from Mr Richard Eede of Bournemouth, grandson of the last holder of Battlehurst Farm. Work in the Record Offices and Museums has been carried out by L.C.S., the write up is mostly by C.W.M.

APPENDIX

A: Notes:

Among the Wills and Administrations recorded at Chichester from 1517 to 1800, 72 Eede entries were found. Of these 25 have been looked up and showed 45 offspring of the testators and 65 other relations. We learn from Steer (3) that the areas in which the surname is concentrated are from Stedham to Wisborough Green and south to Heyshott and Duncton, also in Slinfold, Warnham, Rusper and Horsham. It was found in isolation in Harting, Greatham, Thakeham, Steyning, Mid-Lavant, Merston and Chichester. There were small groups in Climping, Rustington, East Preston, Kingston and Ferring. There were few in East Sussex.

B: Variants: Steer (3)

Ead, Eade, Edde, Ede, Edes, Eed, Eede, Eedes, Yedes, (Head).
L.C.S. has noted:- Eades, Eeed, Eeede, Yeed. It seems to have been the custom to use phonetic spelling, so that a change in the spelling does not necessarily indicate a change in the line of descent.

Who Got Eliza Arner's Money? Old Colchester South Mystery Opened Up

The letter printed below appeared in a Windsor paper lately and brought back a flood of memories to many families of Colchester South. Everyone thinks that the writer of this letter was Wm. Muckle or Wm. Mickle and that his family lived in the home now owned by Mrs. Hackett of Detroit. It wasn't difficult to figure that William was referring to Miss Eliza Arner, elder daughter of John C. Arner (1821-1886) who was the eldest son of Jacob Arner II and his wife Susan Iler.

Eliza Arner died over thirty years ago and as she lived alone for some years and was said to own some property and considerable money. A favourite topic of conversation in the neighborhood was the same question that is bothering this old chap from New York.

Well, many in this district could tell him that Eliza Arner's will was a surprise. It was thought that it would have been a big surprise to Eliza herself. The money is said to have been willed to three women who probably were some kin, but her only sister and her family were almost forgotten.

The whole story sounds like something you read in a book, because there is talk of a satchel of gold coins that never appeared and evidently the reading of the will was a dramatic moment.

Certainly Eliza Arner gave William Muckle some very good advice which probably saved him more money than she intended to leave him. At any rate he has lived a good long life and writes a very interesting letter.

It is said the Eliza Arner's money is all gone with the wind now and that it didn't bring too much happiness to those who got it. So congratulations to Wm. Muckle, he likely got the best of the bargain.

The Letter

To The County Court or Head of the County Taxing and Information in same:

I was born in that county in 1864 April 7th in a brick house on the south side of the road, between Cochester and Oxley owned by my father W—— M——, he was a carpenter and builder. Now for a correction in the nickname M——; M—— is a Scotch word meaning something very small and all the men in our family were very large; my father was over (six feet) tall and built in proportion there. The Scotch began to call them M—— and it stuck with everybody else.

The reason I am giving you all this information I will now devulge, my father was building a veneered brick house on the farm of John C. ARNER east of his house for his daughter and her husband, a man by the name of C——. I was a boy and worked with my father on this house. His other daughter Eliza ARNER ran his house and my father and I lived with them. Miss Eliza ARNER, to me, was one of the most wonderful women I ever met and she treated me like a very close relative and I was with her as much as I possibly could be and she wanted me to be and told me so. Miss Eliza asked me to make two promises and she said I know you will keep them. Here they are: I promised her I would never drink any whiskey, nor play cards for money and I will make an oath before God and man that I have kept those promises. She also said she would remember me handsomely for it (that handsomely) is the very word she used. Now she has been dead many years. What I am trying to find out, what did she do in her will. I received an unsigned letter from Kingsville that she remembered me handsomely in her will. Will you kindly give me some information about this. I have some cousins recently moved to Harrow from Oxley they do not even answer.

I am going to thank you kindly for an answer.

Your truly.

Will Is Searched

The will of the winsome Miss ARNER was searched by Margaret Whalen, Surrogate Court clerk, it was there all right but without a mention of our hopeful native of Essex County who had moved to the big city.

So the answer was no.

At the courthouse they're wondering if the 82-year-old man will take to drinking and gambling, if he does he's got a lot of time to make up.

But he won't have long to do it.

Mrs. Minnie J. Arner observes 95th birthday

Mrs. Minnie J. Arner, thought to be the area's oldest resident, recently observed her 95th birthday and received many congratulations from friends and family.

Congratulations were also received from Pierre Elliott Trudeau, Prime Minister of Canada; Governor General and Madame Leger, William Davis, Premier of Ontario; Robert Daudlin, M.P., Kent-Essex; Don Paterson, M.P.P., Essex South and over C.B.C. radio on the "Over-Nineties Birthday Club".

Mrs. Arner's whole life has been centred around church and home, as many of her momentos can testify — a book in recognition of perfect reciting of the catechism as a child, or a certificate of life membership in the Harrow United Church Women's Missionary Society.

The accompanying note dated July 12, 1927, reads: "The members of our Harrow Auxiliary are grateful for all the inspiration and help you have given them, and ask you to accept this certificate of life membership as a token of their affection and appreciation." The only surviving one of the four ladies who signed it, Mrs. G. E. Bredenberg, still lives alone in her own home in Florida at age 102 years.

During the years 1902-1906, while living in Kingsville, Minnie taught a Sunday School class in Epworth Methodist Church and some of her pupils still living are Miss Faith Kratz, Mrs. Hattie Clark and Mrs. Dency Truax.

Her grandfather, John Fletcher, who was the first Fletcher to come to Kent County from Scotland, taught school in Dover for years, kept the first store in Chatham and was clerk-treasurer of Kent County.

Her family tree is studded with clergy and missionaries of the Presbyterian Church. A few of them were Rev. Dr. A. G. Fletcher, Soeul, Korea; Rev. Stewart Forbes, China; Dr. Archie Fletcher, Bombay, India; Rev. Don Fletcher, Chili; Rev. C. D. Farquharson, Rev. J. B. Lamb and Rev. W. H. Burgess whose sons serving in the United Church are Rev. William Burgess of Edmonton and Dr. George Burgess of Angola.

Mrs. Arner is distinguished among her friends for her outstanding penmanship, even today. When she attended Chatham Business College, 1900-1902, she was the top lady penman.

Upon graduation, she came to Kingsville where she was bookkeeper and stenographer in the office of the Woollen Mills which were owned and operated by James E. Brown and his son, E. A. Brown.

On June 27, 1906, she was married to Alfred L. Arner. That date was chosen by special request of the groom's father, Charles T Arner, since it was the birthday of "Granny" Arner (Susan Iler) who lived past her 99th birthday. History of this area shows that "Granny's" annual birthday parties were attended by as many as 400 people from all over the county — a fabulous list of descendants of pioneer settlers.

At the homestead, on the Arner townline, were born four children, Charles (deceased in 1969), Isabel (Mrs. Louis Morawiec) of Orangeville, Jean (Mrs. Delbert Walton) of Kingsville and Alfred of Kingsville and Riverview Hospital. There are seven grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Her remarkable recovery from an operation last February has been termed "miraculous" but since her improvement from injuries she received in a fall in November, there are those who say "Her life must be charmed".

Family wins land deal

Colchester South Council at Mondays meeting received notification of the decision of the Ontario Municipal Board on an appeal made by the Essex Region Conservation Authority against approval of an application for severance made by Alfred Arner.

The report from the OMB upholding the decision of the Essex Land Division Committee reassured municipal authorities and concerned residents the OMB does consider the individual in making its decisions.

It concerned the request for severance of 3.5 acres of land on conc. 1 in the township by Alfred Arner, to be used by his only son as a site for his home.

The request had been approved by the township council, the Harrow and Colchester South planning board and the Essex County Land Division committee.

The land in question has never been cultivated and is the site of the log cabin built by Lloyd Arner's great grandfather who took over the farm as a young man after his father purchased it around 1875.

The cabin still stands and Lloyd, who plans to build his home nearby hopes to be able to restore the cabin.

THE 23rd PSALM

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Wins $100,000

A few weeks ago, Lloyd Arner was teasing one of his students whose parents won $127,000. Now, the student can return the ribbings as Mr. Arner, a Kingsville area resident, has recently been the happy recipient of $100,000, thanks to Wintario.

Mr. Arner has been teaching in Essex County for 12 years and is presently teaching at East Mersea School. He follows the same routine each week by purchasing one book of tickets and not opening the envelope until it is the actual time to check out his numbers.

This particular week, Mr. Arner had purchased a book near Wheatley in addition to the book containing the lucky ticket from the Arner Stop. It was such an unbelievable surprise, that he checked the numbers several times before he began to believe it.

Lloyd plans to pay off debts and bank the remaining money until at least November when his mortgage falls due again. Lloyd, his wife Connie, and his three sons Rob, Eric and Charles, all will enjoy a little happier New Year this year, and the plans are to continue buying a book of tickets a week, just as before!

Arner - Johnstone wedding

Homer J. Arner and Mrs. Lloyd A. Johnstone were married on Saturday, April 10th. The quiet wedding in Mrs. Johnstone's home, was attended by Mr. and Mrs. W. Douglas Johnstone, of Penfield, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Johnstone of Cedarhurst Park, Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Arner, of R.R. 3, Kingsville and Mrs. Rosemary Lange of Windsor, daughter of the bride. Mrs. Lange attired in shaded cream colored silk, with a corsage of golden orchids, was the matron-of-honor. Hadley Arner the groom's son was the best man.

Mrs. Johnstone wore French blue, with mauve orchids.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jas. Forsythe of Epworth United Church.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Miss Maude Weeks, sister of the bride (Cedar Beach Rd.) About 16 members of both families were present.

The tables were decorated with tasteful arrangements of spring flowers. Mrs. Harvey Reynolds and Mrs. Hadley Arner officiated at the tea table.

Beside the wedding party, guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wigle of Windsor, Stanley Evans of Detroit, Miss Grace Smith of Amherstburg, Mrs. Bernie Malott, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Reynolds of Kingsville.

The bride and groom have left on a trip to California, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Arner of Sacramento.

Mrs. Staddon Dies, Dec. 25

Mrs. Cora Belle Staddon, 73, died Christmas day, Dec. 25 at Metropolitan hospital, Windsor, after a lengthy illness.

She was born in Colchester South township, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Tofflemire, and lived here all her life. A devote member of the Harrow Baptist Church, Mrs. Staddon rendered over a half-century as organist.

In October 1967, Mr. and Mrs. Staddon observed their golden wedding anniversary on the same farm they acquired over a half-century ago on 18-highway, east of Harrow.

She is survived by her husband, William J., son Bruce of Harrow; daughter, Mrs. Gordon (Marie) Fisher of St. Louis, Mo., a sister, Mrs. Everette (Ina) Arner of Kingsville and eight grandchildren.

The service was conducted from the Gerald A. Smith Funeral Home on Saturday Dec. 28 with Rev Charles McGrath officiating. Burial was made in Iler Cemetery.

HARROW PUBLIC SCHOOL CLASS OF 1936?

From time to time, the "News" receives an old photo for publication of past events or, as in this case, a class photo, with a few faces that we can recall but the names are somewhat hard to recall.

The "News" received the above photo from former resident Keith Martin, who in an accompaning letter wrote: "This is Harrow Public School around 1936, I think? Clara Sellars from Kingsville was our teacher, and I'll try to give you some of the names in the picture as best I can. If you check with Russell Beaudoin or Margy Wright Hennessey, maybe they could help! Looking from right to left, the first row: Loraine and Bill Gillanders Jim Wright.

MRS. MARY MICKLE.

Another South Essex pioneer [illegible] gone the long road, [illegible] person [illegible] Mrs. Mary Mickle, relict of [illegible] William C. Mickle [illegible] man [illegible] her death was a su[illegible] and [illegible] peaceful that it see[illegible] ist a [illegible] running down of [illegible] mech[illegible]. Since her husban[illegible] a four [illegible] ago she had bee[illegible] w[illegible] daughters, Mrs. F[illegible]own, of [illegible]herstburg, and M[illegible]y A[illegible] Malden, the last [illegible] years [illegible] spent at the latter's [illegible]. Always an active and industrio[illegible] woman, [illegible] plied her needle in th[illegible] erests of [illegible] house until Wednesda[illegible] Thursday [illegible] complained of drowsi[illegible], and Friday, though able to be a[illegible]d as usual, felt the same feeling and lay on the couch during the afternoon. At tea time, the family heard her cough, went in and in a few moments she had passed beyond their ken. Heart failure, the physician said, was the cause. The funeral took place Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. R. J. McCormick, M. A., conducting a short service at the house, and the remains, followed by a large cortege, were then taken to Harrow, where an impressive service was conducted by the Rev. C. C. Anderson, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Mr. McCormick. Interment followed in the Iler Settlement burial grounds, the pallbearers being six nephews—Charles Arner, Gordon Arner, Eli McLean, John Staddon, Reuben Arner and Richard Eede. The funeral had three climaxes, where large numbers of people, related to or friends of the various families gathered to pay their last respects. Mrs. Mickle represented one of the pioneer families of Essex county—the Arners—whose family relationship extends not only through the length and breadth of this, but adjoining counties. She was a daughter of the late Jacob Arner, who married Susan Iler, who died December 17th, 1896, in the 100th year of her age, and who was one of the remarkable women of Essex county's history. Of the children only two are now living—Elizabeth, widow of Geo. Eede, of Colchester South, and Lewis Arner, of Malden. One brother of Granny Arner's still lives—Rev. Jacob Iler, of Cottam. The family history of both the Arners and Ilers shows them to be a hardy and long lived people. The subject of this sketch was married to William C. Mickle 57 years ago, and their union resulted in four children, all of whom are living—Emma, Mrs. E. M. Beeman, of Colchester South; Eliza J., Mrs. Henry Atkin, Malden; Annie, Mrs. Fred. Brown, of Amherstburg, and Mary, Mrs. Edie, of Gowanda, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Mickle lived on the lake road, Malden, until seven years ago, when they took up their residence with their daughter, Mrs. Beeman, at Arner. There he died in 1905, and after that she spent the time with her daughters. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church and took an active interest in the work connected with that faith. Her [illegible]h will be widely mourned.

Neighbor Finds Body

Walter Livingston Death 'Natural'

MITCHELL'S BAY—An 86-year old Mitchell's Bay man was found dead Friday morning on an ice-covered dredge cut adjacent to the public wharf at Mitchell's Bay.

Walter Livingston was found dead at 9:15 a.m. by a neighbor, Paul W. Nesbit.

Mr. Livingston is believed to have been crossing the dredge cut on his way to the home of a friend when he collapsed and died.

Dr. J. R. Holmes said he had been dead for more than eight hours before the body was found. Death was attributed to natural causes.

The body was atken to Arbour's morgue in Chatham by Arbour's ambulance service.

Mr. Livingston had lived at Mitchell's Bay for more than 32 years.

Surviving are sons, Ralph of Tonawanda, New York; Warren of St. Catherines; a daughter, Mrs. Andrew (Lillian) Taffeiren of RR 1, Courtland; a brother, Robert of Tucson, Arizona.

The body is at the George E. Fennell funeral home, Chatham, where funeral services will be held Monday at 1 p.m. Rev. Stanley Gompf of Chatham will officiate. Burial in Iler Cemetery, Colchester South Township.

"SHOW AND TELL"

"A quilt show and tell" was held at the Harrow Public Library on Monday and attracted over a dozen hand-made beautiful designs.

A broad discussion headed by Dorothy McMurdie covered the many details involved in quilt making by hand.

Mrs. Stanley Hedges told of her son Charles from Ottawa bringing two teenage daughters to her home recently. The girls were interested in and amazed at the fact that she went to the raspberry bushes and picked black raspberries for dessert. Also that she dug new potatoes for the meal. The young city girls evidently thought both foods were products of the supermarkets and had no idea where they came from originally.

Mrs. Hedges Dies

A Century In Colchester South

Another mother and grandmother, one of the pioneer mothers of this wonderful Canada of ours, has passed to her Eternal Home — in the person of Mrs. Henry L. Hedges, 100 years of age. Mrs. Hedges who has been living with her son, Stanley since the passing of her husband entered peacefully into rest on the 31st day of October.

Besides her family of two sons, Charles of Chula Vista, California and Stanley S. of Colchester South and two daughters, Mrs. James Dooley of Detroit and Mrs. Harold Balkwill of Kingsville, she is survived by 102 direct descendants. Her late husband, Henry Hedges served as a member of the Colchester South Council and her son, Stanley S. was also a member of the township council and served several terms as reeve.

What an honor she possessed. What a blessing she has left to posterity and what a responsibility she has left to her children and her grandchildren to uphold and carry on in the same manner as their forebears by adhering to the high ideals and eternal principles that were so splendidly lived before their very eyes.

Mrs. Hedges lost her husband, the late Henry L. Hedges.

After she had lived to quite an advanced age she often expressed the wish that she might live to be 100 years old and the good Lord has granted her wish for she passed the century mark in July of this year, 1960.

The loss of her husband was a sad blow to her but she met this great loss bravely and has carried on nobly upheld by her family of two sons and three daughters

Children never get old to a mother. To be one hundred years young is sometimes far more cheerful and hopeful than to be 100 years old.

She is happiest be she princess or peasant who finds peace and happiness in her home.

We have often remarked that people express in their countenance the kind of life that they have lived.

How true this was of Helen Hedges and when she reached her one hundredth birthday her every feature seemed to say "I have given my best to life" as indeed she had.

And now she has gone to that Eternal Home, where everything is bright and beautiful and where there is no sickness, no pain and no death.

What sweet memories she has left for her children and her children's children to cherish down through the coming years. Mothers are more than a memory, they are a living presence.

There is one thing we should always remember in seasons like this — Death cannot rob us of our happy memories — neither can it take away the rich store of experiences which the years have laid up.

Neither can death end the influences which a good life has exerted and our Christian faith enables us to believe that they who pass from our sight, pass into a place prepared for those who love the Saviour who said "I go to prepare a place for you."

Many beautiful floral tributes impressively indicated the love and esteem in which the deceased was held in the community in which she had lived her whole life.

Burial took place in the family plot in Greenhill Cemetery in Kingsville and the pallbearers were Henry Dooley, William Balkwill, John Balkwill, Edward Hedges, Robert Hedges and James Hedges. J. H. Madill

Resident 45 Years

Mrs. Helen Hedges Dies in 101st Year

HARROW — One of Essex County's oldest residents, Mrs. Helen Hedges died Monday after a brief illness.

Mrs. Hedges celebrated her 100th birthday July 6 of this year. She was born in Haldimand County and came to live in Colchester South Twp. 45 years ago.

Mrs. Hedges was born in Canfield in Haldimand County and was one of 11 children of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Turnbull, Scottish immigrants. Before her marriage she taught public school at Nanticoke, near Port Dover.

In 1912, Mrs. Hedges and her late husband moved to Essex County and began farming on the McCormick Sideroad, Colchester South Twp., where she lived with her son, Stanley, and his family.

Mrs. Hedges taught Sunday School for more than 60 years and has 101 direct descendants.

Survivors include two sons, Charles of Chula Vista, Calif., Stanley of Colchester; two daughters, Mrs. Ethel Dooley of Detroit, and Mrs. Harold Balkwill (Annie) of Kingsville.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the J. H. Madill Funeral Home in Harrow, Rev. W. E. Aldworth officiating. Burial will be at Greenhill Cemetery, Kingsville.

Interviewed by Robert Vercrysse 1975.

Mrs. Alva Hedges who is 75 years old and has been a resident of Colchester South area for the majority of her life.

Q. "Mrs. Hedges, now you're from the Iler Settlement?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Can you tell us about the Iler Settlement, and what it was like and you've brought some stuff along that shows pictures of the Park House, could you just explain that."

A. "1912 we moved from Gosfield South just east of the Arner townline and in those days we moved on the ice with the horses and sleighs and I went to school the snow banks were higher than the rail fences and they would make an opening in the fences so people could drive through the field with their teams and cutters and stays and we bundled up and walked to school, we didn't have the 'buses to take us."

Q. "This was about in ...?"

A. "1912."

Q. "1912 and you were born in 1900?"

A. "1900."

Q. "Do you remember the first World War?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did any of your relatives, your brothers, sisters.......?"

A. "My brother, one of my brothers, two years older than I was, was in it."

Q. "He was in what, the Canadian Army?"

A. "The Navy, they called it the Navy Links from Toronto. Stanley was drafted, my husband was drafted but he never got out of Ontario."

Q. "You showed me some pictures that you have of the Park House, of the Fox home and you told me that there used to be a corn field south of Gordy Fox's."

A. "When my parents were young and the two Creeks, ~~Dawson~~ DOLSON Creek and the Gordy Fox Creek emptied out the same mouth."

Q. "They both emptied out the same mouth?"

A. "Yes, now they're about a quarter of a mile apart."

Q. "Do you remember any of the people who used to live in the Park House?"

A. "Oh yes Gordy's Mother and Father were my Uncle and Aunt. Uncle Frank and Aunt ~~Jean~~ JANE Fox and Aunt ~~Jean~~ JANE was an Iler, an aunt of Mrs. MAURICE Moirey Fosters Annie Iler Joe (a slave)..John ILER ? and there was two sons Gordy and Hardy Fox. Gordy had no family and Hardy had one daughter Pearl, she went to California for a few years and died there."

Q. "You moved to the Iler Settlement when you were 12 years old."

A. "Yes."

Q. "Where did you live before that?"

A. "Well just about ½ mile east of the Arner town line."

Q. "Sounds like Cedar Beach then?"

A. "West of Cedar Beach, yes."

Q. "Well what was it like round there, was any of the docks there?"

A. "No, no, but at one time they used to fish at the end of the Arner town line. We had a little shanty there and we'd go out into the Lake, with their nets, you know, with these poles, now wait what did they call them."

Q. "Buoys?"

A. "No, they had like fishing poles, like hydro poles, telephone poles and put their nets on those and they'd go out and get their fish out of the nets and in those days there was a nice sandy beach about 15 - 20' that we could walk along at the edge of the water and now it's right up to the bank and eating the bank away. My Grandfather was Samuel Iler, and his wife was Susan Scratch and they lived in the Iler Settlement, where Ernie Brimner, on the Brimner, what is now the Brimner home. My Grandfathers planted the trees in the Iler Settlement there, when it first started years ago and my Father was Culver Arner and he was raised right near where I was born, east of the Arner town line and my Mother was raised in the Iler Settlement she was Mina Iler, she had two brothers Leo and Harold.

Q. "How old was the oldest person living in the Iler Settlement when you moved there, how old would the oldest person be like, were there people born there that were say 65 - 70 years old?"

A. "Yes about that, I remember the one Iler family, they had a coloured slave living at their home and I've heard my Mother tell that when she was a young girl that there was Indians lived back in the bush, they would live I suppose, it was a kind of shack they were always near a ditch or a stream or creek or stream of water, where they could get water, and there used to be several chestnut trees and I've heard my Mother tell that she'd picked chestnuts and sold them until she bought a bedroom outfit?"

Q. "You mentioned the slave, there was no slavery."

A. "No he just come over and sought refuge you see in the Iler home that's the only one I ever knew anyway."

Q. "Your Grandmother was a Scratch and they were some of the first settlers in Essex County?"

A. "Their descendants came in from the States, years ago."

Q. "Where did the Arner's come from?"

A. "Well originally they came from the States too."

Q. "Did you ever hear about a young girl, her last name was Turner, who was taken by the Indians and raised with the Indians and William McCormick?"

A. "Oh I have heard that story one time."

Q. "William McCormick built the .... was the man who built the ... _____?_____ Lake took _____?_____ out of Pelee Island."

A. "Yes, Oh there's some McCormicks over on Pelee Island and the ones that lived here up at Colchester. Gordon McCormick and Dr. McCormick's Grandparents."

Q. "How long did you live at the Iler Settlement?"

A. "9 years."

Q. "And then you married?"

A. "Stan Hedges."

Q. "You married Stan and you moved out here to the 4th."

A. "In 1922."

Q. "Did your husband own a farm then or did his father?"

A. "His Father and Mother came up from Woodstock. They farmed down there at a little place called Gobals and they came up here to Colchester in 1913 I think it was. They came up on the train, in those days they didn't have the trucks and cars for hauling like they do today."

Q. "Do you remember any of the people who lived at the Hedges farm, prior to when you moved there?"

A. "No."

Q. "Did you know any of your father-in-laws relatives?"

A. "No, they were raised down in Haldimand County, so was Grandma Hedges, and they moved to Woodstock when they got married you see, and then they moved from Woodstock to here near Harrow."

Q. "Grandma Hedges was his wife?"

A. "Mother, yes she passed away when she was 100 years old."

Q. "Is she buried .........?"

A. "In Kingsville, Greenhill in Kingsville."

Q. "Do you remember when they put the Arner town line through?"

A. "No."

Q. "How about 18A or 18 Highways?"

A. "Well in those days it was just a dirt road, we called it the lake road."

Q. "When was that?"

A. "Well the lake road was the first concession and the 18 Highway going between Harrow and Kingsville that was the second concession road."

Q. "What was Harrow like in 1914, or something like that?"

A. "Well it was a mud hole, you go to town with a horse and buggy you had to about hold the hitching posts in those days where you tied your horse up."

Q. "Are there any of the original stores that you can see still standing there?"

A. "Well J.K. Madills store had been there on the corner, as long as I can remember." "The other Mr. Fori Ferriss had the grocery store there for years and they would come round on a Monday with a peddlers wagon, team and horses and a peddling wagon and have all kinds of groceries in it, they had cupboards and drawers that they'd pull out."

Q. "Ferriss Grocery Store is that still there?"

A. "Yes, its part of Crest Hardware now, they've got the furniture there."

Q. "How about the other side of town, down the other end."

A. "Richardson Hardware, Richardson Hardware, that's Crest Hardware; was there for years, his Father and Grandfather had it."

Q. "Now going east."

A. "Darby's drugstore was there for years."

Q. "You know where the like JB's is now, going down towards Kingsville now down this street and across the road?"

A. "There wasn't no stores in those days, the old public school was along there, about where Bruce Martins is now, there was houses on the other side of the street, then there was the coloured Church, where the I.G.A. is"

Q. "Oh yes. Was the Church on the Walker Road, was that there then?"

A. "Yes that coloured Church on the corner of the 4th. I remember Stanley and I went out to a Camp Meeting in the horse and buggy days."

Q. "Oh yes."

A. "The only one I ever was to in my life."

Q. "And every year the Harrow Fair comes around, I understand that you were quite active and sewed hard for the Harrow Fair."

A. "Well I was always interested in it. Stanley was a director for years but I stayed home and kept the home fires burning, when he wasn't home I did chores. Till since his death, I joined."

Q. "Do you remember any of the outstanding things that happened, like did you ever have a famous person come and open the fair early on?"

A. "No, not in those days, and we would have a concert in the old town hall, across from the Anglican Church. It was a big building then and that was a concert. That was the only programme, we didn't have the big programmes like they do nowadays."

Q. "Do you remember over Ferriss Hardware, did you ever hear of like we've heard stories, I've heard stories, like we've heard stories of young people going there and they'd have a dance, over Ferriss Hardware?"

A. "Yes, band practice and things like that, I remember the kids up there practicing. You'd go to Harrow Fair years ago, the kids had a balloon on a squawker and that's all you heard from the time you went in, till the time you went home. Then we all had to go home with Fair Taffy, we'd get about 6 big long strips of taffy for 25 cents and that was our treat that we took home from the Harrow Fair. We had horse races in those days."

Q. "Oh yes, was there ever a track in the park?"

A. "Yes, yes, it went all the way round in behind the grandstand there."

Q. "There's still part of it you can see there."

A. "Part of it there like to the norths there, oh the north sectio is still there but the south part it's sodded over by now."

Q. "When were the last ones run there, horse races?"

A. "I don't know, I don't remember."

Q. "Were there, did a lot of people come to the Harrow Fair then?"

A. "Oh not as many as today but there wasn't the population in Colchester South in those days. We all had to come with a new hat, dress, coat and shoes and see which one was dressed up the best, go home with blistered feet and it usually rained and we'd be driving a horse and buggy."

Q. "And another thing where did you attend public school?"

A. "In the Iler Settlement, S.S. No.1, it was a students school."

Q. "And do you remember any of your teachers, their names?"

A. "Yes, my first teacher was Miss Suzie Wilson from Essex, then Mr . Frank Iler, he taught, and Ada Arner she was Homer Arner's sister, she's at a Nursing Home in Leamington now and Fraser Ross was another name and my last teacher was Irene Campbell. And one day, before Elsie was married, she worked in the bank, and she was in Darby's drugstore at noon, and this lady came in, and asked John Darby how to get out to the Iler Settlement and she taught in the Iler Settlement at one time but she had forgotten how to get there. So I called Mrs. Laramie up, and I said "did you have company today" and she said "yes, Irene Campbell was here," and she was my ex-school teacher and I said "Well I would loved to have seen her," she's passed away now and Elsie being in the drugstore knew that I had went to the Iler School, so she came home and described her."

Q. "Who is Elsie."

A. "That's one of my girls, daughters."

Q. "You had eleven children?" How old is the oldest one now?"

A. "53 in January that's ~~Margaret~~ FLORENCE." "44 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren, so far."

Q. "Just three?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Three that you know of?"

A. "Yes, so far. Here's my pin the family gave me."

Q. "What was it like with 11 kids out on the 4th concession."

A. "Well my 11 were no more bother than my brother had raising one, I had less sickness with 11 than he had with raising one."

Q. "So were they good kids?"

A. "Sure, sure, all kids are bad, you know they need a spanking once in a while. And on the farm we always had plenty to eat, in those days we didn't have all this pop and potato chips and stuff that kids eat today or anything like that; lots of milk, lots of Holstein milk, home made bread and butter, canned fruit, in those days, oatmeal porridge and Sunday morning we had corn flakes."

Q. "They all went to the S.S. School on the side road?"

A. "Yes, S.S. No. 12."

Q. "S.S. No 12."

A. "Learned to read and write."

Q. "Did any of them go to Harrow High School."

A. "Oh yes, least most of them did."

Q. "How did they get in there?"

A. "Well let me see, a bicycle some of them and the girls used to walk up and go in go with Winnie ~~Dollar~~ DOWLER (BEAUDOIN) and their mother would drive them in."

Q. "There were no buses?"

A. "Oh no, they had to walk".

"Well this was in 19......well I don't know?"

Q. "How long was this?"

A. "1923 - 1935 or 6 about 12 years old when they'd start to High School."

Q. "12 starting High School?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did they go to 8th grade here?"

A. "I don't know, but we used to call it the entrance, when I went to school - public school."

Q. "Do you remember when Murray Clark first took office?"

A. "Oh yes, no doubt."

Q. "When was that, do you know?"

A. "I don't remember."

Q. "He was in office for quite a while."

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did you know Murray Clark?"

A. "Yes, yes, knew his mother."

Q. "Knew his mother?"

A. "Mrs. Charlie Clark."

Q. "The side road that the school was on, did it ever have a name?"

261

A. "You mean No. 12, oh we always called it the Willy Ford side road, but it has another name."

Q. "Who was Willy Ford?"

A. "Oh that's Navednas and Milford Ford's Father. The Ford side road we used to call it."

Q. "Is it considered a continuation of the McCormick's side road, more or less?"

A. "Yes, more or less I'd say that ....."

Q. "Was the Harrow News always run by Mr. McKenzie or was there ever a Harrow News before Mr. McKenzie took over?"

A. "Yes I think there was."

Q. "What weekly papers or daily papers did you ........?"

A. "Amherstburg Echo has been published as long as I can remember. Seems to me there was another publisher before Mr. McKenzie took over. You forget these things when you don't think about them for years."

Q. "Can I ask what religion you are?"

A. "United."

Q. "You're United, when was the United Church in Harrow built?"

A. "Well I was raised as a Baptist. When I was a girl there was a brick Church by the Iler Settlement Cemetery. Mr. Turnbull tore it down and used the bricks to build some of his houses out on the 4th Concession."

Q. "The guy who made this development?"

A. "Pleasant valley that development, pleasant valley. When we were married we went to a little white Church on the corner of the 4th and the town line and that was called Zion Church, you see they moved it out around Woodslee."

Q. "What faith was that?"

A. "United."

Q. "The Zionists?"

A. "The Zionists and the Malden United Minister would come down there and then in the last few years Mr. Del Burton, he was just a layman, he came from Kingsville and preach there."

Q. "And then you started going to the one in Harrow."

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did you ever go to the Baptist Church in Harrow, the original?

A. "Oh years ago, Oh yes, the White Church that is now.........?"

Q. "Antique place?"

A. "Antique place yes."

Q. "Have you ever been in the Catholic Church?"

A. "Time or two for funerals."

Q. "The Chapel?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Do you remember the Chapel being in Harrow when you were, whe you come to visit do you remember the original Chapel being th Catholic Church?

A. "Stone, the old stone Church."

Q. "None of your children went to the any of public schools in Harrow?"

A. "No, they just went in to the High School."

Q. "Did any of them play on any teams in town, like base ball?"

A. "No, by the time they walked to school and they walked home again they didn't have time for all of these sports."

Q. "In the summer now, did they play baseball?"

A. "No, just amongst themselves."

Q. "They worked on the farm."

A. "Yes, some of them worked out when they got older you know, we had a hired man until the boys got old enough to help. One summer we had an Indian boy come up from near Sarnia. I heard his name on the radio, in the paper one day, and the horses would kick every time he went in the stalls, they decided they didn't like the smell of him. During the depression men would walk up and down the road wanting work, shock boots for so much a day, maybe a dollar a day and we'd give them their dinner. I know one of the men saw me years afterwards and told us that he remembered us, he told me who he was, and he remembered coming to the farm and working for a dollar a day to shock boots."

Q. "The depression came in 1929 and how long did it last around here?"

A. "That's a good question."

Q. "Did it last 5 years, 10 years, 1 year?"

A. "Well when we moved up to the Iler Settlement we had the Army worm in the oats field, and they dug a trench all around what was the orchard and they dug it by hand and they put straw down in the trench and set it afire to burn these Army worms up that year we had hog cholera. They dug a great big hole behind the barn and slaughtered all our pigs and dumped them in this hole and covered them in lime and that was a great loss."

Q. "But like when you lived on the 4th that was during the depression - the great crash?"

A. "Yes but we survived."

Q. "You're here today."

A. "Yes, we didn't have all the luxuries that people have today but we always had plenty to eat."

Q. "That's the main thing."

A. "Yes, we didn't have to drive either, people expect it today, we had substantial food."

Q. "What were the names of some of your girl friends, when you were a young girl or some of the fellows that you knew, like would I know any of their family names or no."

A. "Well years ago when Stanley and I were going together 1917 - 18 - 19 - 20 - 21 they had what they called the East Harrow Mutual Society and we would meet on a certain Thursday evening of every month and we would sing songs, and there was Earl Brush he's still living, and there was Katie McCormick and her sisters and the Walton girls, Mrs. Carl Higgins was Edna Walton and there was Mrs. Frank Persoon and she and her sisters and brothers were there and Mrs. John Arner from Harrow she was at the Huffman, she was one of the group.

Q. "What was the name of this society?"

A. "East Harrow Mutual Society, Mrs. Tom Wride ____?____

QT "They give an award away in the high school called the Glen Wride Memorial."

A. "Yes."

Q. "Now is this Tom Wride's grand-son?"

A. "Yes, he was a great friend of Jimmy's."

Q. "You said that when you met, they would give, one person would give readings, you'd sing songs. What kind of Society was this, was this any kind of a religious society?"

A. "Yes, more or less a religious society, yes."

Q. "Would you give readings out of the Bible or something?"

A. "Oh a poem, or if you found something suitable you know, and we'd get Valentine Parties, or box socials, where you'd go and take your lunch and they'd sell your box to some boy friend or man would büy your box and then they'd have to eat supper with you. Had these at the different houses in the neighbourhood, you know. Anybody that had a big house, well they had a box social party."

Q. "What was the police force like then, or was there a police force then?"

A. "I don't remember the town-ship having a police force but there was always a Cop in Harrow. There wasn't the vandalism in those days like there is today. If children today had more work to do, hard work to do, there wouldn't be so much vandalism."

Q. "Have the fairground buildings always been there, those red barns?"

A. "Yes the red building, the main building has been there as long as I can remember."

Q. "Have you ever heard stories of it being somewhere else, the fair?"

A. "Not as far as I can remember."

Q. "No. Did you ever go to Harrow to watch any baseball games or...?"

A. "Well years ago they didn't have those sports."

Q. "Oh not like they do now?"

A. "No."

Q. "Special town teams?"

Q. "You remember your first car?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "What year was that?"

A. "About 1917".

Q. "What kind of car was it?"

A. "It was a Model T Ford you got out and cranked it with a crank to make it go."

Q. "How did you like riding in that thing?"

A. "Oh it was wonderful - in those days."

Q. "Did you ever have horses like?"

A. "Oh yes I used to drive the horse and buggy to Kingsville or to Harrow to shop."

Q. "What was Kingsville like was it a little bigger than Harrow? "

A. "Yes I would say it was as a town it was bigger in those days but the stores are much the same today, as they were when I was a girl. Mr. Salmoni had a dry goods store and a grocery store, Mr. Charlie Quick had a store, dry goods and grocery on the corner where Lethbridge is."

Q. "Now between Harrow and Kingsville, like out in the country do you know if there was much settlements years ago, in between there and Harrow?"

A. "Well it was mostly farming country, we used to drive to Leamington in the buggy and it was a long drive."

Q. "Yes, did you ever go to Windsor?"

A. "Well only on the p.m., the train from Arner."

Q. "Was there a train station at Arner?"

A. "Yes, there was a station there."

Q. "It's not there any more?"

A. "No."

Q. "Whereabouts was it then?"

A. "Oh right there where the Co-op is now on the north side of the tracks."

Q. "Can you tell me once again how you got your mail, from Arner?"

A. "Well we only went about once a week, to pick up our mail, and in those days we had the Windsor Record, I think our paper was called."

Q. "Oh yes, the Windsor Star wasn't being published?"

A. "No, it was the Windsor Record and the Amherstburg Echo, also came."

Q. "What was the farthest you ever travelled from home before say, 1925?"

A. "Well to Windsor to Walkerville and Windsor on the PM train."

Q. "You never went to like down to London on the train?"

A. "Oh no."

Q. "Do you remember who the Mayor of Harrow was, when you were first out here?"

A. "Howard Heaton was......."

Q. "Howard Heaton?"

Q. "Was farm life, it wasn't as convenient as it is now, was it really tough?"

A. "Oh no, we had years ago, we were good neighbours we helped each other, we had threshing bees, and sawing bees, and we would have butchering bees, we would go in and butcher a number of hogs and then we'd sell them dressed years ago, and then we'd have shredding bees, where they shredded the corn fodder and husk the corn off and chop the fodder all up for the cattle, they'd throw the fodder up into the barns. That was before we had silos."

Q. "Mr, not your husband, but his Father?"

A. "Henry Hedges."

Q. "Henry Hedges, was he one of the first ones around here to bring in Holstein cattle."

A. "Yes, yes, he was."

Q. "Where did he bring them in from?"

A. "Woodstock, Woodstock that's great Holstein district out there, and they said the first calf., registered Holstein calf that Grandpa Hedges broughtin, she came in on the train to Harrow, in a crate and he built up his herd from them."

Q. "Started his with one cow?"

A. "And a heifer."

Q. "Was she already pregnant?"

A. "I don't remember."

Q. "Then your husband took over the Holstein operation in here."

A. "After Grandpa Hedges died, that would be 46 years ago he passed away."

Q. "Your husband held quite a few offices, local offices?"

A. "Yes, reeve, councillor, reeve, deputy reeve and reeve."

Q. "Do you remember him telling you any of the major problem of the area of what they were trying to get done or not?"

A. "Well Stanley wasn't much for telling me stories."

Q. "Did you ever hear from anyone else like?"

A. "Well if you waited long enough, you could, little stories would gradually hear them, you know. He wasn't one for gossip, he kept things to himself."

Q. "Do you remember when the railroad was put through?"

A. "No, I remember the street cars going through from Windsor to Leamington."

Q. "Street cars?"

A. "Street cars."

Q. "Well in Kingsville, not now I know, but they re-topped the road, but you used to see the tracks."

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did the street cars come all the way from Windsor to Leamington."

A. "Round by Essex, North Ridge and Cottam and into Kingsville."

Q. "Oh yes, wouldn't that be a long ride?"

A. "Yes, but it beat the horse and buggy in those days."

Q. "Yes. Street cars how did it run?"

A. "Electric trolley, cable."

Q. "Did the street cars run through Harrow?"

A. "No it didn't go through Harrow, it came through Windsor to Essex, North Ridge, down Division into Kingsville and then from Kingsville into Leamington."

Q. "Earlier when you were talking about your school you mentioned Mr. Arner and ............?"

A. "Miss Arner, and Mr. Arner and Mr. Frank Iler."

Q. "Were they related to you?"

A. "Oh distant cousins, yes."

A. "Our Inspector was Dr. Maxwell he was, I though in those day s, an old man, suppose maybe 60, he had whiskers like Santa Claus, and he would come in a horse and buggy and tie his horse up outside the school."

Q. "Did you go 'No, No, No' to him?"

A. "Oh no. Then he would give us questions you know."

Q. "Is there a lot of your family still living, a lot of your immediate family, not like your brothers and mother and fathe living, are there a lot of relatives of yours around this are

A. "Some, oh yes, cousins."

Q. "How many are there, quite a few descendants, granchildren and your cousins or something like that?"

A. "Oh not too many, we are all getting older each year."

Q. "OK Mrs. Hedges on behalf of myself and our history class I would like to thank you for your time and for sharing this with us."

A. "You're welcome, I'm sure."

(Ed.'s Note): We have on our files one of the first papers published in Harrow, and known as "the Sentinel". — The following under date of May 24, 1900 brings forth some interesting news items therein.

MAY 24, 1900

The following officers have been appointed for the baseball club: president, T. B. Adams; vice-pres., Forrest Ferriss; secretary Thos. Sims treasurer, Frank Richardson. manager, H. M. Swegles and captain Clem Wright.

Patronize Lewis H. Scobey, tonsorial artist over the "Sentinel" office on King Street.

H. E. Doherty, confectionery, wholesome, delicious and steaming hot bread delivered anywhere in town for 5c per loaf.

James Drummond, livery and sale stable, west side of Queen. The finest outfit in town. New and commodious stables.

The Walkerville match factory is now running day and night to fill orders for the Eddy Co. recently burned-out by the Hull fire.

A dastardly attempt was made on Saturday night to burn Geo. Wilson and Company's lumber yard. The first attempt failed and the second try burned the company's storehouse, barn, one horse, buggies, sleighs, wagons, etc. Mr. Wilson's own residence was damaged slightly.

Entertainment will be given in Oxley Methodist church on Wednesday, June 6.

Need money, see A. E. Sinasac, banker. Money to loan, notes and drafts collected, notes discounted, cheques issued.

MRS. McLEAN

Buddy, I can spare $45,000

Friendship is a rewarding experience especially if you're a friend of Mrs. Donald McLean.

Mrs. McLean, of Kingsville, is giving $45,000 of her $100,000 lottery winnings to an unamed friend because of an offhand comment when she picked up the lottery ticket.

Mrs. McLean says it was one of those cases of telling a friend, "if I win I'll give you half."

Win she did and a promise is a promise.

The friend isn't the only beneficiary of Mrs. McLean's windfall in the Canada Permanent Trust Company lottery.

Her first thought was of the church. "I'm going to give one-tenth to the church," she said. The money will go to the Kingsville Baptist Church.

Mrs. McLean, a former farm wife, found out she had won Monday. "When I first won I said 'If only my husband could have been here,'" she said.

Her husband died in December, 1977.

She is keeping some for herself. "I would like to buy a mobile home in Florida," she says.

She doesn't have any children but 19 nieces and nephews and their families will enjoy going to Florida, she says.

She plans on having a bit left and she says she'll "invest some in Canada Permanent."

The lottery began April 23. Every person who deposited $1,000 into a new or existing account was entered in the lottery. Entries were gathered

Duncan Hughson is honored

Duncan Hughson, a Cottam farmer, received the first award to be given in recognition of his contribution to agriculture by the Essex County Federation of Agriculture.

Peter Epp, president of the federation said Mr. Hughson had been the guiding hand in the organization through his years of service on various boards and committees especially in the area of public relations and in his duties as treasurer under seven presidents. Presently he is chairman of the county insurance committee.

Mr. Hughson still takes responsibility on the board of the Harrow and Colchester South Agricultural Society and served one term as president. As owner of a Guernsey herd of cows for many years he was a member of the Essex County Milk Producers Association and of Guernsey Cattle Club.

The presentation at the regular meeting of the Essex County Federation meeting came as a complete surprise to Mr. Hughson. But its not the first recognition he has received. His faithful service has been awarded by other organizations with a desk set and certificate.

HONOUR COTTAM FARMER

The first award for services rendered to agriculture by the Essex County Federation of Agriculture has been given to Duncan Hughson, a Cottam farmer.

The trophy was presented at the federation's annual meeting by president Peter Epp, who said Mr. Hughson had been a guiding hand of the organization for many years.

Mr. Hughson was treasurer of the Essex County federation through seven presidents and is still a board member, working in public relations. Presently he is chairman of the county insurance committee.

It is not the first such award that Mr. Hughson won in his 41 years of farming. Others have come through his many associations, which include membership on the Harrow and Colchester South Fair board, of which he was once president, and membership in the Essex County Milk Producers' Association and the Guernsey Cattle Club when he was a dairy farmer.

It will be sad news to the many friends of the Iler family to learn that Mrs. Samuel Iler died at the residence, this township, Monday morning last, after a short and startlingly sudden illness. She had been enjoying her usual good health all winter. Thursday of last week she did more than her usual work and that night was seized with a stroke of apoplexy and never rallied, lingering until Monday morning. The funeral was held from the house Tuesday afternoon, interment being made in the Iler settlement Baptist cemetery. Rev. James Smither, pastor officiating. Mrs. Iler was born in Gosfield South, 24th June 1844, and was a daughter of the late Leonard Scratch. She was one of a family of five, one brother Jacob being dead. The others are Alanson and Elihu, Kingsville; Mary, Mrs. Wm. Wright and Esmeralda, Mrs. Richardson Iler, of Colchester South. A half brother, Horatio Scratch, lives in Gosfield South and half-sister, Mrs. Charles Iler, in Colchester South. The deceased was married about 40 years ago to Samuel Iler and went as his bride to the home where she died. They had three children, Watson Iler and Nina, Mrs Culver Arner, Colchester South, and Elihu Iler, Michigan. Mrs. Iler was a woman greatly beloved and highly respected by a very large circle of friends and her sudden calling away has caused widespread grief.

to A'burg police staff

Harrow News 12-30-71

A 34-year-old local resident will join the Amherstburg police force as of January 2, 1972.

Jim Hedges, a mechanic with McDonald Motor Sales Ltd., for the past 13 years was a successful applicant among a dozen seeking the open position.

Mr. Hedges has acquired a background in police work. He spent five consecutive summers in the auxiliary force in Colchester South township and three years in the auxiliary of the Amherstburg force.

The addition to the Amherstburg force brings the staff to seven constables.

McGHEE – ILER

At a double-ring ceremony at Christ Church, Colchester, Rev. James Elliott united in marriage, Karen Joyce McGhee and Lloyd Douglas Iler. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson McGhee and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Iler.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of chantilly lace. The waist and neckline were accented with seed pearls. A crown of pearls and crystals held her veil of french illusion. The bride carried a cascade of white carnations and ivy.

Lynn Meldrum was maid of honour, and Susan Herniman was flower girl. Robert Vagi was best man, and Richard Herniman, usher.

After the reception, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon to Cape Cod. They will reside in Colchester.

BOY SCOUTS HOLD
ANNUAL APPLE DAY

The Harrow Boy Scouts held their annual "Apple Day", on Friday and Saturday and reported brisk sales in the downtown area.

In the front row from left are Shawn Morand, Dean Todd Iler, Brian West, Friars, Nathan Bishop, Rob Armstrong, Chris Dunn and Andrew Woodbridge. In the back row, from left, Shane Nespolon, Edward Corcoran, Jason Pillon, David Creed, Jason Munger, Jerome Clark and Curtis McLean. In the far back from left are Dan Boudreau leader of the 1st Harrow Cubs, and Olivia Clark, leader of the 2nd Harrow Cubs.

- Michael has been in a lot of trouble and has been a real worry for his parents. About June 1972 he was charged with fraud and related charges and was sentenced to 9 months definite and 6 months indeterminate for passing 18 cheques valued at more than $5,000. Uncle Mart apparently covered him and put up $2,500. around Christmas 1971 and then he turned around and did the same thing again between March and April, 1972. The family doesn't talk about it much, but we all feel that this is only the beginning for Michael.

Iler: For 11 years he has lived in pain

By TOM McMAHON

Pain and frustration are a pair of mocking companions that 55-year-old Glen Iler has uncomfortably carried on his twisted back for 11 years.

The pain comes from a back injury suffered in an industrial accident in 1964. The frustration — from a tangled web of catch-22 logic which has involved the courts and the Workmen's Compensation Board (WCB).

The frustration has been eased somewhat with a partial victory in a two-year fight with the WCB on Mr. Iler's behalf, by former Star Alert bureau chief Ron Steele.

The result is that his 1964 WCB pension has been raised from 20 to 50 per cent.

Mr. Iler will now receive a pension of $292.75 per month from the board. And the lump sum retroactive payment will total $2,391.10.

And even a partial victory is a fair accomplishment in Mr. Iler's world.

That work-a-day world was changed in 1964 when Mr. Iler slipped while carrying a side of beef and injured his lower back.

What followed would have made Franz Kafka proud.

Mr. Iler returned to work with a 20-percent disability pension, about a year after the accident.

In 1967 his car was struck from behind by another vehicle. Mr. Iler quit work in 1968 citing pain in his lower back as the reason. His back was operated on in 1969.

A 1971 court case over the car accident awarded Mr. Iler $3,542.57 for injuries to his upper back, although the judge said if Mr. Iler is, "not totally disabled now, he is very close to it." This disability was blamed on the industrial accident.

In November, 1973, Mr. Iler turned to Star Alert. After a preliminary investigation and an 11-month wait for a copy of the seven-page 1971 court judgment, Mr. Steele, representing Mr. Iler, went before the WCB appeal tribunal.

The tribunal ruled that Mr. Iler's deteriorated condition wasn't from the industrial accident and denied the appeal.

His day usually ends by 7:30 p.m., when he retires.

Mr. Iler is alone except for his 12-year-old dog, Pal. His eyes grew misty and his voice broke when he said he tried to have the dog, "put to sleep," but just couldn't do it.

He said he just couldn't bare to think of what he would do without her.

Marital difficulties have added to Mr. Iler's problems and he blames them on his disability. Although he has six children, all living away from home, he said he only sees a 20-year-old daughter.

The tribunal ruled that Mr. Iler's deteriorated condition wasn't from the industrial accident and denied the appeal.

At this point the court had said the industrial accident was to blame and the WCB claimed the car accident or some other cause was the culprit.

A final appeal was launched in June in Toronto, with Mr. Steele representing Mr. Iler, who was unable to travel because of his condition.

That appeal resulted in the awarding of a 50-per-cent disability pension to Mr. Iler, retroactive to September 1973, the last time his pension was reviewed.

Stooped over from his injury, Mr. Iler uses a cane to make his way to a seat in the living room of his modest three-bedroom house on Ellrose Avenue.

"I very seldom go through a whole night without waking up," he said of the nearly-constant pain.

A collection of pills varying in shape and color help him get through the day, hopefully killing pain, warding off arthritis and providing him with vitamins.

His day starts about 6 a.m. because, "I can't lie any longer. . . I get so sore that I have to get up."

Rising from his bed with the "good mattress," and the bedboard which hardens it, he drinks coffee and rolls his daily quota of 35 to 40 cigarettes.

It takes all his strength to just clean the house, make his meals and maybe lean on a hoe in his garden for a few minutes, Mr. Iler said.

Trips to the grocery store are usually made in his 1965 Ford. Occasionally Mr. Iler will slip over to a nearby tavern for a beer, "rather than look at the four walls."

A sister-in-law and brother come over to help him every ten days or so, he said.

The pain is always with him. It varies between a dull aching and a sharp knife-like thrust. He seldom walks without the aid of a cane.

Mr. Iler said before his injury he was active and robust and at one point held two jobs—one as a janitor and the other as manager of a meat cold storage firm.

But what hurts most, he said, as he dabbed at tears with a facecloth is, "you can't keep up with your friends in income, so you damn well have to stay at home."

Mr. Iler said his health has deteriorated in the last three or four years. He now weighs 119 pounds compared to a pre-accident 153. His height — five-foot-six-and-a-half — has declined an inch or two from operations and his stooped posture.

"I have learnt to accept what I got," Mr. Iler said. That is not a very bright future, he added.

Ron Steele has earned Mr. Iler's gratitude but Mr. Iler feels he won't gain much because what he receives in WCB will reduce an army pension he receives.

The retroactive money should enable him to pay off a second mortgage of $571 and relieve him of payments of $30 a month. But with food, utilities and a first mortgage payment of $70, Mr. Iler said he didn't figure the money will go very far.

What he called the doctor-lawyer-insurance conspiracy has left him disillusioned, Mr. Iler said.

He didn't collect the court award but his lawyer pressed for his fee and received close to $2,000. Mr. Iler said he doesn't think there is enough left to cover the doctors' bills.

Since he is totally disabled and the WCB pays 50 per cent, Mr. Iler feels that the court judgment should have covered the other half.

"But what chance has a small man got?"

WCB to start full review of Windsor man's case

By RON STEELE

A full review of the total disability of Glen Iler has been ordered by Michael Starr, the man who heads Ontario's Workmen's Compensation Board.

Mr. Iler is caught between conflicting rulings of the WCB and the courts. The court claims the WCB is responsible for Mr. Iler's well-being. The WCB claims it is responible for only a portion of the total disability.

The WCB is not answerable to the courts for its decisions. The courts, of course, are not answerable to the board.

All of which left Mr. Iler caught in the middle with a pension of only 20 per cent until recently. The pension from the WCB was increased this month to 50 per cent.

Mr. Starr said he has heard of only one other similar case in the two years he has been heading the multi-million dollar operation. He doesn't like it.

Mr. Iler isn't happy about it either.

"But the doubt must be based on the evidence, not a decision by the courts. They are not medical experts."

He said that a judge sits with his hands tied by the legal process. He can look at only the evidence supplied by the opposing lawyers.

The WCB, on the other hand, is an enquiry. "If we feel we don't have all the evidence we can go after more."

Mr. Starr feels that many of the common complaints about the WCB are unjustified.

"Forty per cent of all claims are paid within two-and-a-half days. And we are handling 200 new claims every hour."

"We are hoping to reduce that time even further but the real objective is to have no interruption in the flow of money into the workman's home. The ideal situation is to have the cheque in his hands by the following payday."

The WCB is not answerable to the courts for its decisions. The courts, of course, are not answerable to the board.

All of which left Mr. Iler caught in the middle with a pension of only 20 per cent until recently. The pension from the WCB was increased this month to 50 per cent.

Mr. Starr said he has heard of only one other similar case in the two years he has been heading the multi-million dollar operation. He doesn't like it.

Mr. Iler isn't happy about it either.

Mr. Starr turned the review over to the "workmen's adviser," an office staffed by experienced WCB people who defend the workman's case before the board. The service is available on request.

One official of the board said the workman's advisers are people with over 20 years experience with the commission and "they know all the angles."

The adviser will review both the files the commission has concerning Mr. Iler and files Star Alert has compiled in the two years it has been attempting to aid Mr. Iler's case.

Mr. Starr says that the WCB leans toward the injured workman. All that is needed for a favorable decision is a reasonable doubt: evidence, not a decision by the courts. They are not medical experts."

He said that a judge sits with his hands tied by the legal process. He can look at only the evidence supplied by the opposing lawyers.

The WCB, on the other hand, is an enquiry. "If we feel we don't have all the evidence we can go after more."

Mr. Starr feels that many of the common complaints about the WCB are unjustified.

"Forty per cent of all claims are paid within two-and-a-half days. And we are handling 200 new claims every hour."

"We are hoping to reduce that time even further but the real objective is to have no interruption in the flow of money into the workman's home. The ideal situation is to have the cheque in his hands by the following payday."

The most common cause of delayed payment is failure on the part of the employee or the employer to report the accident promptly. "The sooner we get the claim the sooner we can establish it."

Accident reports for claims are now accepted by telephone from the employer and the commission will do its checking by phone to speed the process rather than wait for the mails.

Under an ammendment to the compensation act, which went into effect the first of July, the board can now penalize employers for late reporting.

The amendment also includes greater freedom for the board in awarding and administering a temporary supplemental pension. The maximum earnings covered have been raised to $15,000 per year, which means a maximum weekly compensation to $216.35.

The board of appeal is facing a change in the immediate future, which will eliminate another common complaint. By the fall, Mr. Starr said the board of appeal will travel.

While the WCB does have a hearing tribunal which travels, the appeal board has always remained in Toronto. The appealing workman must travel to Toronto to present his case.

If the appeal is unsuccessful, the WBC may or may not pay the workman's expenses depending on the "reasonableness" of the appeal.

The big problem with a travelling board of appeal is manpower, according to Mr. Starr. "By the fall we will have the properly-trained manpower."

The future plans for the WCB... the near future... is improving the service and streamlining the claims procedure as much as possible.

However, only 17 per cent of all accidents in Ontario happen at work. But the earning ability of a workman can be just as impaired by other accidents. The long-range, ideal goal for the commission would be to eliminate itself. The ideal would combine such earnings-insurance plans as compensation and unemployment insurance and others to cover any loss of earnings for a family.

If the WCB statistics are correct, the 17 per cent of all accidents cost $300 million dollars annually.

That's the amount the WCB pays out each year to the 443,000 injured workmen.

HEBERT-ILER WEDDING

The Rev. Don Bardwell of Windsor officiated at a lovely outdoor wedding on Saturday, August 14, at 3:30 at the home of David and Dorothy Iler. The double ring ceremony united in marriage their daughter, Susan Carol, and Richard Allan, son of Richard and Virginia Hebert, Windsor.

Before the ceremony a tape of organ and piano selections by the bride's father was played. A guitarist, Jim Stiers played and sang "Sunshine on My Shoulders" as the bride's father walked her out. Her dress of white crepe, featured an overskirt, blouse and train of white chiffon trimmed with lace. Her veil of net and lace trim which was fastened to her hair with white rosebuds was made by her mother for her sister's wedding. The bride wore the gold and pearl cross, the groom's grandmother and mother wore at their weddings. Susan carried a spray of white rosebuds and greenery. During the signing of the register the guitarist played and sang "Annie's Song" and "Follow Me."

Leslie Nantais, the bride's sister was her matron of honour. She wore a yellow floral satin dress with a floral chiffon overblouse and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Ken Murney of Windsor was the best man. J5A771 -3179

The groom's maternal grandparents of Windsor, Grace and Armand Tratechaud attended the ceremony. Mrs. Iler, Mrs. Hebert and Mrs. Tratechaud wore orchid corsages

An evening reception was held at the K. of C. Hall in Harrow. The new Mr. and Mrs. Hebert, after a honeymoon in Florida, are residing in Windsor.

[illegible] Herrington

REV. R. … …NGTON—The subject of this notice, was born in Greenbush, near Albany, State of N. Y, on the first day of Feb. 1796. At the age of 7 years he removed with his parents to Canada and settled on a farm near the old city of Kingston, where the family resided several years. Again they remov… the vicinity of what is now …illipsville. His conversion and baptism occurred at this place it is supposed about the year 1812 or 1813, in troublous times, being buried in the likeness of Christ's death by the hands of the noble pioneer Stephens and added to the Phillipsville Church, after a time entering the service of Prince Immanuel whose marching orders he faithfully heeded for many years.

On the 30th of Nov. 1812, he was married to Miss Polly Woorster who lived to be the mother of three children and then died. On the 24th of Oct. 1818, he was married again to Miss Emily Brown. In the Spring of 1823 he finally removed to the township of Gosfield, in the county of Essex, and in the vicinity of the village of Kingsville, part of which stands upon the lot which comprised his farm. Here he lived over fifty years. Soon after his arrival he was called to pass through deep waters of affliction. His second wife died, and the family was so entirely prostrated by sickness at the time that only one, and that a small child, was able to follow the dead mother to the grave. Our brother and his family remained sick for a long time, and but for the kindness of the neighbors, some of whom came a considerable distance to minister to their wants, they must have suffered greatly. Among the most self-sacrificing of these friends whom he held in ever grateful remembrance were Peter G. Malott and wife. Some time after this he married Miss Ann Iler, with whom he lived over 40 years, and who still survives him. Upon his arrival in this county he united with the old Gosfield church, then the only Regular Baptist church in all this section of country. He was soon licensed to preach, and then ordained. As an untiring soldier of Christ and pioneer of the gospel truth, he has had few superiors. From the Detroit River to the Township of Euphemia, he ranged on horseback a great deal of the t…e through almost impassable roads, … … … foot, leaping sometimes from log to log by means of a strong staff, where a horse could not go. He sowed good seed, and that freely, faithfully, and broadcast. A pleasing evidence of this is found in the fact that at nea…y every one of his old preaching stations there is now a Baptist church.

Though he had … family to maintain, and never …ive… for preaching, his labor… …ai… …ere abundant and his con… …o… …se of God were larg… He … …c… generous to the poo… h… …ll… but especially no… for… …e… …ning his brethren C… …s a… father in Israel. … the 41st year of her age, Emily, daughter of the late Rev. R. and Ann Herrington, and the wife of Charles Wiglo, Esq.

Deceased was born in Kingsville, Dec. 6th, 1834. From a child she was seriously inclined, but never gave her heart to the Saviour till in her 17th year. Two things in the providence of God so wrought upon her mind that it terminated in an entire surrender to be saved by Christ alone. In the fall of 1852 the writer was holding a series of meetings, in the village, which she was desirous of attending, but was entirely deprived by that fatal disease, inflammatory———, that entered the home of our dear brother Herrington and three of his children, Emily, Susannah, and Samuel, aged respectively 17, 13, 7, were all stricken down at the same time. The two latter died four days apart, and I preached their funeral sermons, and thus became acquainted with Emily's state of mind, in regard to the salvation of her soul. I told her to trust her all to Christ, as his blood cleansed from all sin—to calmly leave herself in his hands, and trust and hope in his mercy and pardon; and it was evident that ere the morning dawned, salvation came to her troubled soul, and through the tender mercy of God, who saw the sore affliction of this venerable pair, who in anguish were mourning, Susananah is not and Samuel is not, said it is enough and permitted Emily to recover.

During the revival, we frequently resorted to the lake, which was our baptistery in those good old times, and father Herrington's house standing near the lake, was our vestry. On one of those occasions while the candidates were preparing to be immersed, her father said to me that Emily wished to see me. She was sitting in a chair wrapp d in a blanket and unable to walk. She asked me if I thought it would hurt her to be baptized; after a moments pause I said to test her faith, if you are a Christian it will not hurt you, but if you are a hypocrite, I should not wonder if it killed you. With a countenance lit up with heavenly joy, and eyes streaming with tears, she said that God for Christ's sake had forgiven her sins. She was received, prepared and carried to the lake, and after baptizing the others, deacon Beman assisted me to carry her to sufficient depth, and I baptized her, and to our astonishment with a little help she walked to the shore. Such was the effect physically, and intellectually, … …d to mind a remark of Jno. # Essex County's Grand Old Man

(J681)

One of the most fabulous personalities Leamington has ever known was Lewis Wigle, who spent 53 of his 89 years in public life and perhaps contributed as much to the future development of the community as anyone else in its history.

Known in later life as "Essex County's Grand Old Man," Mr. Wigle served in both the provincial and federal houses of parliament as a member for South Essex in the 1870's and 80's. He was a veteran of municipal politics in both Leamington and Mersea Township.

Lew Wigle is credited with having introduced the by-law before Essex County Council in 1874 to incorporate Leamington as a village and also guided provincial legislation to elevate it to own status in 1890.

He persuaded the federal government to subsidize the first railway into Leamington, the first public transit system the town had except the old stage coach which Mr. Wigle drove in his younger days.

A tobacco buyer and general store operator here for many years, he had extensive real estate holdings. His ornate home on Talbot street west was converted into Leamington's first high school in 1896.

Born in 1845, Lew Wigle died in 1934. Of his long life he said: "I have made fortunes and lost them simply because I gave my time working for the public and neglecting my own business."

There was no indication he would have preferred it any other way.

Just before his death, Mr. Wigle wrote a letter to the editor of The London Free Press which related the story of his interesting career in his own words. The letter follows:

"I have read where you have been writing up the lives of several ladies around the ages of 90, and in today's Free Press, you have written the life of Thomas Walters of Wyton, Ontario, who will be 89 years old on August 30.

"As I am near the ages of Mersea in 1867 when Leamington was only a crossroad in the township. I introduced a by-law into the county council in 1874 to make Leamington an incorporated village. I introduced the act in the Ontario Legislature to make it a town.

"I drove the first mail that went from Leamington direct to Windsor, and the first passenger that rode in a public conveyance from Leamington and vicinity to Windsor rode with me in the old four horse stage coach. I am the only man alive in Canada who sat in the Ontario Legislature in 1874.

"I was elected three times to represent South Essex and defeated my mother's brother twice, but that never changed our friendship. I was chief whip of the Conservative party, under the leadership of Mathew Crooks Cameron, Q.C., a greater lawyer of Toronto, and later W.R. Meredith, Q.C., a great lawyer of London, Ont., the late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ontario.

"I am the only man alive in Canada who sat in the Dominion Parliament in 1882. I was deputy whip, under the leadership of Sir John A. Macdonald. I am the only Conservative who represented South Essex in the Dominion Parliament since 1874, until now, by Eccles J. Gott, M.P. I have known personally every Premier of Canada since Confederation, including our present premier, Right Hon. R. B. Bennett, who I believe is the best one of them all.

"I sat in parliament with Sir Leonard Tilley, father of the Hon. Mr. Tilley, premier of New Brunswick. I sat in parliament with Dr. Ferguson, father of Hon. G. Howard Ferguson. I sat in the Legislature with the fathers of the Hon. Mr. Drury, the Hon. Mr. Patullo, premier of British Columbia; W.E.N. Sinclair, late leader of the Liberals, and Mr. Hays, once leader of the Liberal Party. I ws reeve, deputy reeve, mayor and member of parliament for 53 years. Never took a bribe in to help get up wood for the house, and had to help neighbors plant corn and potatoes by hand in the spring, and exchange work with our neighbors all summer, not much money in those days, same as now.

"Father sold wheat for 60 cents a bushel and towed it on a scow one mile out in Lake Erie to a vessel; sold dressed hogs for $2.50 per hundred weight, and hauled them 30 miles to market. No farm implements in those days, had to do nearly all work on the farm by hand. A yoke of oxen and a plough was about all we had to start with.

"Father had a 200 acre farm, about half of it was cleared and worked, he would hire men for 75 cents a day to work on the farm, would kill a beef, cut it up into parts, to divide up to pay hired help, would have the hide tanned on halves, and hire Mr. Palmer, a shoemaker, to come to our house at $1.00 a day, and make his half of the hide into shoes for our family of six. I have lived through several depressions, but none as long and as tough as the one we are passing through since the war.

"I started to keep a general store when 19 years of age, made $9,000 clear of all bad debts, etc. in the first three years. That was the time of the civil war in the United States. Canada had a reciprocity treaty with the U.S. from 1854 until 1864, all products of the farm went both ways free of duty, all manufactured goods went both ways by paying a duty of 15 per cent, the first four years were about even up to then.

"The U.S. civil war broke out and Canada had six years of the best of it. Prices of everything grown on the farm, and all manufactured goods in the United States went up in price on acount of the war, and we Canadians got the benefit of war prices, and did not have to pay anything towards paying the war debts. MR. LEWIS WIGLE, ex-MP., RECALLS OLD TIMES

Editor, The Border Cities Star,

Sir: I saw a picture in The Star of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Scratch of Kingsville, who recently celebrated their golden wedding. As they are both closely related to me, I thought I would give you a description of their relationship. Mr. Scratch's grandfather, Peter Scratch, was my grandmother's brother, and Mr. Scratch's grandmother was my grandfather's sister . Mr. Scratch's father was my father's first cousin, and my second cousin. Mrs. Scratch's grandfather, J6 Solomon Iler, was my grand-father. We all know Lance Iler. His mother was a sister to Aunt Judy Malott, who was the grandmother of Mrs. Scratch, and John J. Malott was the son of Aunt Judy Malott and the father of Mrs. Scratch, and was my first cousin, and my uncle, because he married my mother's sister. The late Watson Coatsworth, who was clerk for Gosfield South Council for over 20 years, was a son of Joseph Coatsworth, who was a brother to my Grandmother Iler, who was Mrs. Scratch's grandmother. Mr. Watson Coatsworth's mother was my father's sister, who was a sister to Aunt Judy Malott, who was the grandmother of Mrs. Scratch and who was my aunt.

We are all related to the 3,000 or more Wigles who met in reunion at Kingsville on July 30, 1931. The puzzle, in addition to your daily puzzle, is to find out what relation we are to each other. My mother, Ann Iler, was the J68 eldest daughter of Solomon Iler, who was the grandfather of Mrs. Scratch and also my grandfather. Aunt Hannah Malott was my mother's sister and Mrs. Scratch's mother.

My grandfather and Mrs. Scratch's grandfather, J6 Solomon Iler, was a devoted Baptist in religion. I have heard him say dozens of times that the best preacher of another denomination would go to hell if he was not baptized. Sprinkling would not save him. I have heard him say again and again that the man who played the fiddle was an agent of the devil, who was sent here by him to get recruits for himself. I have heard him tell of the girl who went to a dance, got warm, put her head out of the window, caught cold, and had flu and penumonia. Before she died she called her friends to her bedside and told them in a few hours she would be in everlasting punishment, all because the fiddler, agent of the devil, had induced her by his music to dance.

Two little boys, who had heard that doctrine preached all their lives, went to a baptism with their mother, where they baptized about 30. It had such an effect on them that when they went home, one said to the other: "Let's get the cat and her five kittens and baptize them." They got a pail of water and chucked the kittens to the bottom. The old cat bit and scratched until she kicked about half the water out of the pail. When one said to the other: "What will we do with the old cat? We can't get her in the pail to baptize her," the other boy said: "The kittens are saved. Let's sprinkle the old cat and let her go to hell."

I was the oldest nephew of J6B Aunt Hannah Iler, Mrs. Scratch's mother, and my mother's sister. I was the only young person asked to Aunt Hannah's wedding. I was 13 years old. She was 18. I thought I would wait until father and mother got away in the buggy. Then I would get mother's beautifully scented hair old and give my dark curly hair an extra dose. In those days we parted our hair on both sides and made a big knot on top of our heads, and parted it behind. I poured a handful of what I thought was mother's good hair oil on my head, rubbed it in, and when I smelled it, it was turpentine. I went to the wedding. The house was a large brick, with four large square rooms, all filled with guests. I would not be in one minute before some person would say, "I smell turpentine," so they kept me jumping from one room to another all day.

A reciprocity treaty existed at that time between the United States and Canada. All produce of the farm went from one country to the other free of duty. Manufactured goods went both ways at 15 percent. A man from Detroit would come down and buy live hogs all over the place. To deliver them he would give my brother and myself 50 cents a day to drive them to Windsor. I saved $4.50 and bought myself a suit of clothes in Detroit, made of cheap black cloth, part wool and part cotton. It would both shrink and fade. I was caught in a cloudburst, got in a fence corner to protect myself and suit, got soaked through and through. The sun suddenly came out hot and shrunk my new suit, so that I was almost afraid it would lift me over the fence.

This was the suit I wore to Aunt Hannah's wedding. My legs had grown longer, my pants and coat had shrunken shorter, and I wore a hole in my pants riding up on horseback.

My mother bought me the first pair store shoes I ever had, for $2. I climbed a cherry tree to pick cherries, and when I jumped out of the tree, left the sole of one of my new shoes in the crotch of two limbs. Then to cap the climax, I heard the next day that an aunt of mine said to another: "Did you ever see such a long-legged, green-looking pumpkin of a boy as Lew Wigle is?"

Talk about hard times. Father would hire men for 75 cents a day, and would kill a beef and divide it up to pay his men. He would take the hide and have it tanned on halves, and would hire Mr. Palmer at $1 a day to come down and make his half into shoes for us boys. He would say: "If you boys want a whip-lash, cut it off before it is cut up for making shoes."

I was the oldest of the family and went to school a very little. I had tostay home and help get up wood for the summer, and as soon as spring came had to drop corn, potatoes, etc., and cover them with a hoe. I never was taught dollars and cents, only three months in the winter, when I was 17 years old. I will never forget when our teacher was giving lessons in grammar . He said: "Susan Scratch, can you parse butter?" She lisped. She said: "Thirtainly, thir; butter ith a common thubthtantive, thingle number, neuter gender and nominative case to buckwheat caketh, and governed by thugar and molatheth underthtood."

Peter Scratch was my grandmother's brother, and his sister was my grandmother. He had a large house and one night he was preparing for bed, when a knock came at the door. On opening he saw seven men on horseback, and eighth plainly a gentleman. This man asked for a night's lodging. Uncle Peter said: "Come in; I have never turned anyone away yet." So they all came in." He gave them supper and showed the head one to a bedroom downstairs and put the seven upstairs to sleep. The head man got up early and Uncle Peter was still sitting before the fire. He had not gone to bed. He said: "Good morning, Mr. Scratch; did you ever see the Lieutenant-Governor?" He shook his head and said: "No; we farmers don't get about much."

He went into his room and came out in a few minutes with papers to show that he was Sir Francis Bond-Head, Lieutenant-Governor of Upper Canada. Uncle Peter laughed, and said: "Do you see that gun in the corner? Horse-thieves have been stealing horses from the neighbors and I sat up all night thinking you were a gang of horse-thieves."

Shortly after Aunt Judy and Uncle Peter Malott were married, they went to Detroit to do some trading. Aunt Judy went into a store to buy a coat. Uncle Peter went to a hardware store. Aunt Judy had never seen a looking glass. When she went to the head of the stairs, a great, big looking glass was in front of her. She went up to it and shook hands with herself and said: "It seems to me I have seen you somehwere before. What might your name be?"

I am 87 years of age and have written the most of this letter from personal knowledge and memory, without spectacles. I hope it will interest you.

Yours very truly,

LEWIS WIGLE J681

J61 JOHN COATSWORTH ILER, Sheriff of the County of Essex, and one of its most highly regarded citizens, claims German ancestry. J JACOB ILER, his grandfather (1768-1843) was born in the State of Pennsylvania in 1768, and settled in Canada while a young men. He married J* ELIZABETH SNIDER (1779-1851) and they reared children as follows: J1 SUSAN (who lived to the age of 99 yrs 5 mos 14 ds) (1797-1896), ELIZABETH (1798- J4 18__); J2 ANN (1803- ) married Rev. Richard Herrington (1796-1872); SOLOMON (1804- J6 1881) married Hannah Coatsworth (1807-1875); JOHN D. J9 (1806-1877) married Susannah Wigle (1813-1889); DAVID J5 (1807-1876) married Margaret Shay (1804-1832) 1st wife; Mary Ann Fox (18__-1901) 2nd wife; ESTHER JA (1811-1835) married Joseph Coatsworth (1805-1891); SAMUEL (1813-1897) married Catherine Slater (1815-1873); MARY J3 (1815- ? 1880); and JACOB J8 (1818-1912) married Mary Anne Buchanan (1827-1908)

J6 SOLOMON ILER, son of JACOB and father of Sheriff Iler, was born in 1802, on Grosse Ile, and in 1806 came with his parents to the County of Essex, where later he married Hannah Coatsworth J68* (1807-1875). J61 They reared these children: ANN J68 (1826-1876) married Solomon Wigle (1822-1898); JOHN COATSWORTH (1828-1908); ELIZABETH J69 (1830-1831; JOSEPH (1831-1856), ESTHER (1834-1862), GEORGE (1836-1925); a farmer of County of Essex, HANNAH COATSWORTH (1841-1921), SUSAN (1843-1864); LEONARD J62 (1845-1915) a Baptist minister of County Kent; THOMAS (1848-1921); BURRITT J65 (1851-1929) connected with the Inland Revenue service in Toronto. J66

J68 J6A J63 J6C

J61 JOHN COATSWORTH was born in 1827 1828 in Colchester township, County Essex, where he grew to manhood, and where he passed many years as a farmer, still retaining his property in his native township. Mr. Iler is a man of unusual physical and mental vigor, and has been identified with both religious and political interest in his locality for a very long period. For over forty years he has been a local preacher of the Methodist church, being even now active as such, and his voice has been heard in the discussion of religious topics in almost every district in Kent and Essex, and also many times in the City of Detroit. He is gifted with great eloquence, and has always been in demand as a speaker. His popularity and reliability have also made him a favorite and successful candidate for almost all the township offices, and in 1875 he came within 35 votes of being elected to a seat in Parliament. For ten years he served as township clerk, and nine years as reeve, and in 1879, he was elected warden of the county. Mr. Iler has always been conscientious in his political stand, and has taken an active part in the various campaigns, as an effective speaker for those principles which he has believed to be the best for the country. In 1883 Mr. Iler was made sheriff of the County of Essex, and since that date he has devoted his attention closely to the duties of the office with the same efficiency which has marked all of his public career.

J6111 J61*

In 1850 Mr. Iler was married to Adaline Buchanan, who was born in the County of Essex, a daughter of John Buchanan, one of the early settlers, and three daughters were born to this union as follows: J611 MARGARET, who married Eli Wright, of the County of Essex, has one daughter, Bertha Grace; JOSEPHINE, J612 who married Atkinson Wigle, of Essex, has children--Roland, Adaline, John C., Allen and Lewis; Mira, who married J613 Albert Rumball, deputy sheriff of the County of Essex, has children--Maude, Lulu, Margaret, Adaline, Kinney and Albert.

The Sheriff and his wife are leading members of the Methodist church at Windsor, and they are numbered among the most substantial residents of the County of Essex. Mr. Iler claims to own, very largely, any success or honor to which he has attained in life to his beloved wife, who has always been a faithful and wise counsellor and companion. One feature of Mr. Iler's family life that might almost be called unique is the fact that although he has been married for over fifty-four years, and has raised three children and twelve grandchildren, there has not been a single death in the family during that long period.

ILER'S SOLILOQUY AFTER THE TRIAL.

The following lines were picked up near Mr. Iler's residence on Sunday the 11th inst., after he had returned from the Election Trial at Sandwich.

Back through the swamps from Sandwich I've trudged my weary way,
I, a played out candidate, as all the people say,
I, who was the cheekiest of any Grit about,
Must forever take a back seat, and be quietly jostled out.

Once I was fond of Politics, and always light of heart;
And of dirty work in Politics all know I've done my part;
And if to do it cleverly [illegible] make a man feel proud,
The Grits have had a candidate that would pass in any crowd.

The Grits—I can[illegible] them—are all ashamed of me.
And in future hav[illegible]ded to quietly let me be,
For as a politician they think I'm no success,
And as a good petitioner they know I'm something less

'Twas only last election, when I aspired to fame,
That Wigle and the Electors had to spoil my little game,
And I learnt a little lesson in a very appropriate school,
That I was the rarest specimen of a good political fool

No lack of proof was wanting to show I was a fool,
When I was willing to become Hube Deming's pliant tool;
But the treacherous "cuss" he wilted me and only was my friend
To get even with the Wigles and an old quarrel end.

'Twas he who made the trouble and started all this fuss;
'Twas he who caused the muddle and left me in this muss;
And without an eye to pity or a friendly voice to cheer,
He sucks at his Government pap, while I am whimpering here.

The biggest toad in the puddle I always tried to be,
At home or at county council or at any political spree:
But now when talking politics I get the same reply,
Alike from Grit and Tory—"No Iler need apply."

Once I was true and honest as any man need be;
Once I was just as good a Grit as any you might see;
But it wasn't hard to lead me; and it must be confessed
The company that I fondly kept was not always the best.

There was Alan[illegible] Elliot, and also Sam McGee,
The hoary-headed sinners, who were the ruin of me;
Who gave their ablest council to always put me wrong,
And missed no opportunity to help the thing along.

There was Balfour of the Echo, and many other such,
Who never yet was grumbled at because he knew too much,
And since nature didn't bless him with the common sense we see,
He thought he'd like good company, and so he went for me.

But he did the "Echoing" bully in his little one-horse sheet,
And plagiarism was something at which he couldn't be beat,
And at spouting in his own style he took especial pains;
But it isn't fair to blame him, because he hasn't brains.

I'd like to give him credit for something if I could;
I know he'd gladly take it if I only would;
But about him I'll be silent, then I cannot do him wrong,
But he's got at least one talent in the great length of his tongue.

Not long before the election,—I can't forget the day—
The Grits were all assembled in glad and proud array;
Like a second edition of Judas I shook hands all around,
And vowed a solemn promise by their dictum to be bound.

But I fancied the convention would every one agree
In hunting up a candidate, to hunt no one but me;
And I felt considerably miffy when things got turned about,
And instead of its being Iler, why, Atkins was brought out!

But I quietly hoped for better days and bottled up my wrath,
And gave no kind encouragement when Atkin crossed my path;
And what with meeting Wigle and holding meetings brief,
Our candidate threw up the sponge, and Atkin came to grief.

'Twas then I studied Politics and put my armor on,
While the electors of South Essex stood by to see the fun;
But I couldn't stand the pressure, and I was put to rout;
My nephew he got Wigled in, and I was wiggled out.

I thought I'd try another game, and got old Sam McGee
To do, as I had done before, the dirty work for me,
And we trumped up forty charges, and our witnesses all swore
To all the forty charges, and were willing to do more

But our yarns didn't hang together, and many were proved wrong;
It would have been a blessed thing if some had held their tongue;
And to us our trial ended in a decided sell,
And as a speculation it was far from paying well.

So back through the swamps from Sandwich; Electors dear, good bye;
Many's the time I'll think of you when election times draw nigh;
Judge Spragge, may God forgive him; and I will always pray
You'll never be as badly fooled as I've been fooled to-day.

"Dear Dr. Eilar,

Your letter was indeed a surprise to me, and we are glad to be able to communicate with you and will give you as much information as possible.

J6411 J64111 J64112

Joseph Iler is the father of two daughters, Sarah Josephine, age forty-five this July 8th; Mrs. A. E. Montgomery, Merced, Calif, and Leola Esther, age 42, April 15, Mrs. Adolph Leonard Nelson, San Rafael, Calif. with whom I make my home.

Mrs. Montgomery has three children, two daughters and one son. The older daughter is in Mills College, Berkeley, and the son in Stanford University, Palo Alto.

Mrs. Nelson had one daughter but she passed away when an infant.

J641 J64

Mr. Joseph Iler's father went to Australia when a young man to work in the gold mines. He married a Dukin girl and he died before his son (Joseph) was born.

J641 J641

When Joseph was six years old his mother took him to Canada. On the way she was courted and married a Scotchman while on board the boat. Joseph was taken to the grandmother and grandfather Ilers and they raised him. It had been the father's dying request that if the child lived he wished his mother to raise the child.

When he was about nineteen he left Canada and came West for his health as he had asthma. When he arrived in California he went to San Jose and lived with an Aunt. He lived there for awhile, then went to Santa Cruz, San Francisco and kept moving trying to free himself of asthma.

When he moved to Mayfield I met him. He was about twenty-two years old then. He was then in the carriage and sign writing business.

Later we moved to Redwood City. Here we lived for fifteen years. My two daughters were born there. I had two other children, one boy and one girl, but they both died when infants.

We have been in San Rafael about thirty years. Both daughters went thru high school, Sarah went into business world, Leola was a school teacher. Leola has been thru the officers of the Eastern Star and is a Past Matron of the Order.

Joseph was sixty-eight years old when he passed away. He had several small strokes and one evening he had a stroke and passed away in it. He lived a good life. He was always thoughtful and kind toward all. He had turned to God and was ready to go when his time came.

I'm enclosing a picture of his burial, also a picture of his grandfather's home where he was raised. I put in a few snap shots I had here. We haven't any small ones of my daughter Sarah but sometime I'll send a snap of them.

Hope this has helped you with your hobby.

Very sincerely yours,

Solomon Iler/Hannah Coatsworth home in Colchester South. First brick house built west of Kingsville. Solomon Iler was born here ? January 26, 1839. His son was Joseph Iler, Sr., who moved to Austrailia in 1851 and he died after falling from a roof.

This home was torn down in 1957 by Earl Scott Iler, whose great, great grandfather was Samuel, brother to Solomon who built this house (Jacob/Samuel/Charles/Ernest/Scott/Earl) Earl found a ½ cent 1812 coin when he tore the place down.

The black and white pictures were copies I Made in August, 1975, when I borrowed them from Dr. John S. Eilar, Albuquerquew, N M.

The color picture Bob Iler took in August, 1957, before it was all torn down.

Kind And Gentle Lady Passes

We cannot allow the passing of Mrs. Philemon Ulch (nee Edna Mildred Iler) to pass without expressing our sincere admiration for her many sterling qualities.

She endeared herself to everyone she met by her kind, gracious manner and her charming personality.

One had but to see her beaming countenance to know that she was at peace with God and with the world at large and as so many have said of her she was the typical mother and grandmother, kind, thoughtful, loving and generous.

She was always a home loving woman and her greatest joy was in her home and in her family.

The constant stream of people who called at the Funeral Chapel — the large attendance at the last funeral rites and the many beautiful floral offerings were mute evidence of the love and esteem in which she was held in the community where she had spent her whole life.

We have often remarked that people express in their countenance the kind of life they have lived.

How true this was of Mrs. Ulch. When she reached her three score and more years her fine features and color were only a little dimmed by her years of activity and fulfillment.

Her every feature seemed to say "I have given my best to life" as indeed she had and life had dealt very kindly with her.

And now she has passed to that Better Land leaving a sweet memory that her husband and children will carry with them down through the years.

It is women like Mrs. Philemon Ulch who remain an inspiration even after death to those who had the good fortune to meet her and know her.

The tenderest of human sympathy is extended to the bereaved husband and family by the people of Harrow and vicinity at this sad time of separation.

Lloyd McLean's life honored

J672111

Lloyd McLean hears of his life

(Ed.'s Note: the following article was taken from the Beacon Herald of Stratford, Ontario. Mr. Lloyd McLean was a former resident and native of Harrow. Many relatives from here attended the program honouring Mr. McLean in "this is your life.")

ST. MARYS — A man who had expected to spend Saturday evening sitting in the audience in the meeting room above St. Marys arena found himself front and centre on the platform.

Lloyd McLean, RR 1 St. Marys, had no suspicion that he had been chosen man of the hour, when he went to the Lions Club's seventh annual This Is Your Life show.

Bruce Murray, master of ceremonies for the occasion, invited him to the platform with the words, "Lloyd, nobody has ever heard an unkind word about you; nor, what is more important, have they heard you say an unkind word."

At the end of an evening rich in memories and tributes Mr. McLean thanked all those present. He said he had absolutely no idea beforehand that he had been chosen for the honor. He owed much to his wife, Helen, beside him on the platform, he said. "Thank you from the bottom of my heart", he told the audience.

Still a long way from retirement at the age of 44, Mr. McLean has a worthy personal record. He has been a member of Blanshard Township council, president of the St. Marys fair board, coach of minor ball team, member of the Kirkton-Woodham community centre board, and past president and secretary of the St. Marys Lions club. He is also a successful businessman.

Every year for the past seven years a committee of the St. Marys Lions club has honored [illegible] whose personality, character and achievements made him an outstanding member of the community. Past recipients have been K. C. [illegible] Charles Courtnage, Gordon McEwan, W. G. K. Hearn, Cardiff (Cy) Cline and Dr. Ross Crosby.

Lloyd Charles McLean was born near Harrow, Ontario, Sept. 18, 1929, the first son of Ralph and Violet McLean. When he was 11, the family moved to Science Hill, where he attended S.S. 9 Blanshard. On July 7, 1951, he married Helen Jean Thompson. They have six children.

After working for Stan Bean for a while, Mr. McLean bought a cement mixer and started a construction company which has grown and prospered. He was in partnership with Ernie Foster from 1955 till the latter's retirement in 1959. A new partnership was then formed, which included Lloyd's brothers, Bruce and John, Eric Taylor and Paul Hovey.

Friends, relatives and business associates had turns at the microphone during the evening. Ralph McLean, Lloyd's father, said he was proud of his son, a self-made man, who had had little material help to get started in the world.

Brothers and sisters and others told stories about Lloyd. When he went courting, somebody else had to do his chores, said brother Bruce. Another brother, Murray, said he remembered a family dinner when Lloyd had been helping himself to meat and his mother said he was not getting a very good piece. "Is that that old goat?" Lloyd had asked. A sister, Mrs. Earl (Jean) Foster, recalled that before she even had a chance to wear a certain new dress, her brother had come downstairs modelling it.

Helen and Lloyd McLean's six children also said a few words. Gordon recalled the time they smoked a carton of cigarettes while their parents were away and the painful consequences. Margaret, the youngest, said what she most remembered was the time her father tried using snuff. Lloyd did not elaborate on that, but he seemed to know what she meant.

An old school friend, Bill Hanly, who was present with his wife, said he recalled a truck driven by Lloyd which had neither muffler nor exhaust. It was like an alarm clock, said Bill. When you heard it thundering home, you knew it was time to get up.

Homer McKay, reeve of Blanshard Township, spoke affectionately of his former councillor and mentioned his extensive vocabulary. "Some of those words are still being used in council," said Mr. McKay.

At the close of the evening, Harold May, president of the Lions club, presented Mr. McLean with a special plaque and a handwritten souvenir of the program highlighting his life to date. Guests signed the book after the show.

Special guests included his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McLean; brothers, Bruce, John and Murray and wives; sisters, Mrs. Earl (Jean) Foster and Mrs. John (Doris) Forman and husbands; aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shepley, Mr. and Mrs. Mark McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Sid McLean and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Squire; a cousin, Max McLean, and his wife; the McLean children, Larry and Gordon and wives, Allan John, Barbara Ann, Betty Jean and Margaret; brother-in-law, (and best man) Vernon Thompson and his wife; and special friends, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hanly, and Mr. and Mrs. Len Boreham.

Volunteer Crew Discovers Body At Parents' Bed

By DON HARRIS

McGREGOR—A four-year-old Anderdon Township boy lost his life early this morning when he was trapped in his parents' burning home.

Dead is Michael McCann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McCann of Walker Rd.

His father, 27, is reported in fair condition at Hotel Dieu Hospital with severe burns to his neck, back and arms. These were suffered while trying to rescue the boy from the blazing home.

The mother and a three-year-old daughter, Kelly, escaped uninjured.

Anderdon Township Fire Chief Eric Hooper said the fire broke out shortly before 4 a.m. when an oil stove exploded.

"Mr. and Mrs. McCann were asleep in one bedroom and the children in another," the chief added. "The father raced into the children's room and carried Kelly to safety. He was unable to locate his son."

The boy was found by volunteer firemen and members of the Amherstburg, Anderdon and Malden rescue unit some two hours later lying on the floor beside his parents' bed.

He was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. E. C. Harris of Amherstburg. The body was removed to the Kennedy Funeral Home in Essex.

Some 20 firemen from the Anderdon volunteer fire squad answered the call. When they arrived the home was engulfed in flames.

Chief Hooper said it took less than a half hour to extinguish the blaze, but that his men were unable to enter the building because of dense smoke.

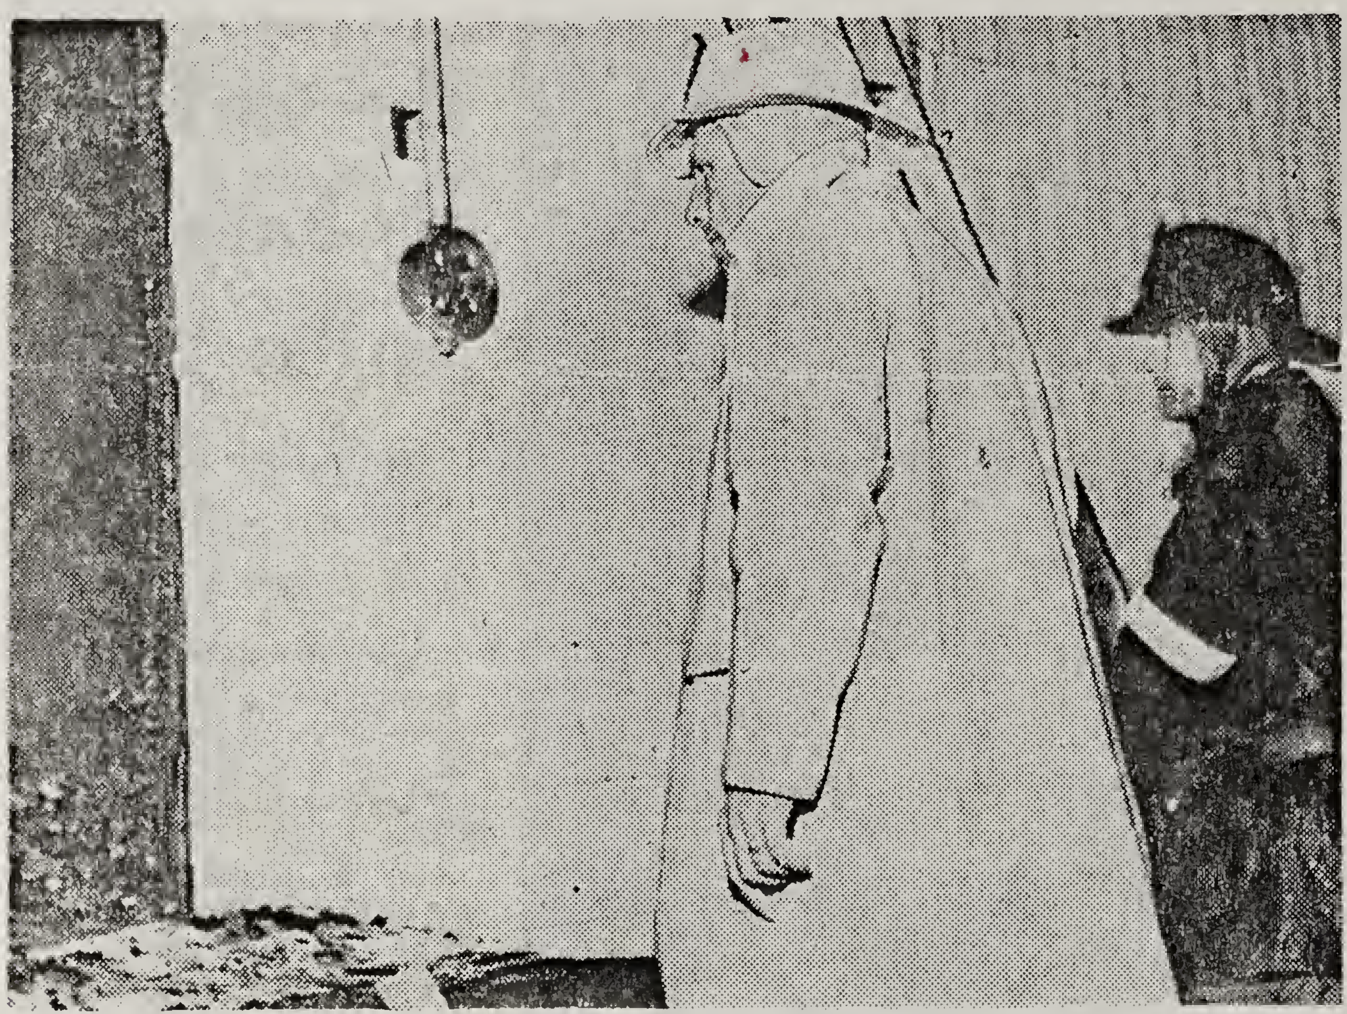
SURVIVES—Three-year-old Kelly McCann was saved from her parents' blazing home on Walker Rd. early this morning, but her four-year-old brother Michael perished. The fire started shortly before 4 a.m. when an oil stove exploded. The father, Malcolm McCann is in fair condition with severe burns suffered while trying to rescue Michael.



SCENE OF TRAGEDY—Anderdon Township Fire Chief Eric Hooper and an unidentified fireman examine the charred ruins of the dwelling.

an oil stove exploded.

"Mr. and Mrs. McCann were asleep in one bedroom and the children in another," the chief added. "The father raced into the children's room and carried Kelly to safety. He was unable to locate his son."

The boy was found by volunteer firemen and members of the Amherstburg, Anderdon and Malden rescue unit some two hours later lying on the floor beside his parents' bed.

He was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. E. C. Harris of Amherstburg. The body was removed to the Kennedy Funeral Home in Essex.

Some 20 firemen from the Anderdon volunteer fire squad answered the call. When they arrived the home was engulfed in flames.

Chief Hooper said it took less than a half hour to extinguish the blaze, but that his men were unable to enter the building because of dense smoke.

A number of the firemen had to be given oxygen at the scene by the first aid squad for smoke inhalation.

The floor of the one storey frame building caved in when men were finally able to enter, but no one was injured.

Both township fire trucks were at the scene, as were two ambulances and a number of police cars.

Traffic on Walker Rd. was confined to one lane, but police officers managed to keep cars moving at a steady pace and there was no tieup.

The McCanns' were renting their home from their next door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Renaud. They moved into the house late last fall.

The fire marshal's office will be asked to make a complete investigation of the blaze.

Chief Hooper praised the people of the area for their assistance. "They did everything possible to help us," he said. "This included serving coffee and doughnuts to my men while they battled the blaze in mid 20 temperatures."

He also gave the fire truck drivers a pat on the back. "The roads were like a sheet of glass," he said. "They had to perform a miracle to get on the scene as quickly as they did."

Anderdon Township Reeve Charles Evans and Deputy Reeve Lloyd Bondy said this morning the township council will do everything in its power to assist the stricken family.

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT ADDISON BIRCH

In an afternoon ceremony Saturday in Cottam, Rev. A. F. Thrower united in marriage Shirley Marie Ulch and Albert Addison Birch. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ray Ulch of Cottam and the late Mr. Ulch and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Birch of Cottam.

Given in marriage by her brother, Ray Ulch, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin trimmed with seed pearls and featuring a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was caught by a satin rose and she carried pink sweetheart roses and white shasta chrysanthemums centred around a white camellia.

Ruth Ann Couture of Cottam was maid of honor and Audrey Johnson, Sharon McKenzie and Nancy Lampert of Essex were bridesmaids. Lyle Miller of Cottam was best man and Bill Johnson, Ian Stewart and George Newman of Cottam were ushers.

A dinner was held at the Poplar Inn in Cottam for the immediate family and an evening reception for 200 guests was also staged at the Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Birch will reside in Cottam.

TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

THE LORD is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I shall fear no evil;
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest
my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
